

HIGH SCHOOL CONTRACTS TO BE DISCUSSED AT PUBLIC MEETING

Speaking on the purpose of the meeting which will be held this evening at city hall at 8 o'clock and at which local contractors and builders will discuss the high school contracts and labor Mayor O'Donnell said this morning:

"There seems to be some misapprehension among the public as to the object of the meeting and the attitude of the municipal council. The meeting tonight shall not be for the purpose of deciding whether the bids for the high school shall be split up or whether the contract as a whole shall be awarded to anybody in particular. At one of its first meetings the advisory board favored the one-contract plan, but two methods are open to us, one of which would, I think, be acceptable to Lowell contractors while providing for efficiency and economy."

HERCULE TOUPIN WAS FOUND NOT GUILTY

Hercule A. Toupin of this city, who was charged with illegally keeping liquor at his premises in Keefer street, was tried before a jury at the criminal session of the superior court in East Cambridge yesterday and found not guilty.

The case was tried before Judge Earlight in the Lowell police court about two months ago, and at that time Toupin was found guilty and fined $100 and ordered to serve three months in jail. An appeal was taken with the result that in the higher court Toupin was discharged. Frederick W. Mansfield, candidate for governor at the recent state election, appeared for the defendant. After disposing of this case the criminal session of the superior court adjourned until next January.

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—Twelve persons were injured, several perhaps fatally today when the last car of a seven-car Third Avenue elevated train left the tracks and was crushed against a workman's shanty and a steel pillar at 128th street. Five of those hurt were women. The accident was attributed to a defective switch.

NOTHING DOING AT THE STATE ARMOY

For the first time since the return of Company M from the Mexican border, the state armory in Westford street again took on a strictly "peace" appearance today. The soldiers, who had been reported for two or three weeks, now have most of their belongings and they were not seen at the armory today. Meals have been served to a few members of the company three times daily and this too was of course discontinued, when the company was mustered out.

CHALIFOUX'S ON THE SQUARE

SHOPPING AT HOME

For Pleasure through Boston and New York we roam. But when we wish to shop right at home. We go down to Chalifoux's right on the square. A charm for small pocketbooks seems to lurk there. You have not far to seek it, it's right on the square.

We've a stock of shoes, that is stylish and neat. They always wear well, we can fit any foot.

We have suits for the ladies and suits for the men. And socks that will look well and you won't have to mend. Come in and look them over. I'm sure you will find what you need. The things you will need no matter what kind.

ANOTHER BIG BRITISH HOSPITAL STEAMER SUNK; ALL SAVED

LONDON, Nov. 24, 1 p. m.—The British hospital ship Braemar Castle of 6280 tons gross, bound from Saloniki to Malta with wounded, has been sunk or torpedoed in the Aegean sea. It was officially announced today. All on board were saved.

The disaster occurred in the Mykonos channel, the announcement states. Mykonos is an island in the Aegean sea, about 100 miles from Piraeus, the port of Athens. A comparatively narrow passage separates Mykonos from the island of Tino to the northwest.

BRITANNIC NOT TORPEDOED

LONDON, Nov. 24.—A virtual disavowal that a German submarine had anything to do with the sinking of the British hospital ship Britannic in the Aegean sea is contained in a wireless despatch received today from Berlin, which reads as follows:

"According to the reports so far at hand the Britannic was proceeding from England to Saloniki. For a journey in this direction the large number of persons on board was extraordinarily striking and justifies a strong suspicion of the misuse of a hospital ship for transport purposes."

"Inasmuch as the ship bore the distinguishing marks of a hospital ship in accordance with regulations, there naturally can be no question of a German submarine in connection with the sinking."

STURMER OUT; TREPOFF TEST CASE OF NEW RUSSIAN PREMIER ADAMSON LAW

LONDON, Nov. 24.—Alexander Trepoff, Russian minister of railways, has been appointed premier, according to a Reuter despatch from Petrograd. The retiring premier, M. Sturmer, by an imperial ukase, has been appointed grand chamberlain of the imperial court, retaining his functions as a member of the council of the empire. Petrograd newspapers say that the appointment of M. Trepoff as premier implies the necessity that the government make a communication to parliament explaining the impending problems connected with the work of the government.

PETROGRAD, Nov. 24, via London, 11.05 a. m.—The appointment of M. Trepoff as premier.

WOMEN CAMPAIGNERS VISIT MR. ROGERS

This afternoon at two o'clock or thereabout, a deputation of members from the Massachusetts branch of the congressional union for woman suffrage called upon Congressman John Jacob Rogers, to impress upon him the widespread demand for a national suffrage amendment. Mrs. Thomas H. Gray, Jr., of Brookline, chairman of the committee on deputations, introduced the speakers, who were Mrs. Agnes H. Morey, chairman of the Massachusetts branch of the congressional union for woman suffrage, Miss Marian McGraw, of Topeka, Kansas, who has come to Massachusetts to help in the work of the congressional union, and Miss Katharine A. Morey, of Brookline, who has taken up her residence in Kansas in order to become a citizen of the United States.

R.R. NEED $1,250,000,000 A YEAR FOR 12 YEARS FOR DEVELOPMENT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Railroads will need $1,250,000,000 additional capital annually for the next 10 or 12 years to increase their facilities to handle the country's growing commerce, Alfred P. Thom, counsel for the railway executives advisory committee told the congressional railroad investigating committee today, continuing his statement on behalf of the railroads begun yesterday. About $250,000,000 a year additional will be required, he said, to refund maturing indebtedness.

To attract investors, Mr. Thom suggested that federal regulation should replace the present system of authority divided between the states and the central government.

Referring to the need of additional railroad facilities, Mr. Thom said:

"It has been found that the wealth of the country has been increasing at the rate of 8 or 9 per cent a year and the same ratio of increase has held good as to demand for transportation. As the forces which have affected the growth and development of the past apparently still continue in full operation and may reasonably be expected to continue for the next 10 or 15 years at least, the investment in railroad facilities to meet the larger requirements of the future must consequently grow at a corresponding annual rate of increase." The estimate of $1,250,000,000 for additional transportation facilities includes nothing for extensions into new territory, he added.

"Where is this money or any sum approximating it to come from?" asked Mr. Thom. "This problem is of vital interest to the public because on its successful solution depends the commercial facilities of the country. Would it do to confront the investor, when asking for this great investment, with a situation where revenues of the railroads are not subject to the control of the investors, but are fixed and limited not only by governmental authority, but by many unco-ordinated state authorities in no way responsible to each other and where the railroads cannot control and the government cannot and does not limit the expense account?"

Mr. Thom referred to the recent case in which the New York Central, which has not over 20 miles of line in Illinois, was taxed $600,000 by the state of Illinois as a condition of the consent of that state to the issue of certain securities. He asked why the states of New York, Ohio, and the others through which the road runs could not with as much reason exercise the same right.

"If they did," he continued, "commerce as a whole would be most seriously burdened. If they did not, then their own commerce must help to bear the burden of this tax placed upon the road by the state of Illinois, contrary to their views of the justice of such a tax."

As another illustration of the conflict of state action, the New York, New Haven & Hartford in the summer of 1913 arranged for the sale of $67,000,000 of convertible bonds. The states of Rhode Island and Connecticut gave their approval, but the approval of Massachusetts could not be obtained. The result was that the issue failed and the consequent inability of the road to furnish the proposed new facilities in the way of new equipment and enlarged terminals is largely responsible for the great congestion of business and interruption of commerce throughout the whole of New England and surrounding regions."

U. S. TO BREAK IF GERMAN PLEDGES ARE BROKEN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Revival of sensational rumors of renewal of ruthless submarine warfare by Germany and consequent action by the United States, were met today by the statement of officials here that the situation, while delicate, was absolutely unchanged and would be until the United States had gathered all the evidence on recent attacks.

The state department still is awaiting the result of investigation and meanwhile officials reiterated that the position of the United States as laid down in the last correspondence with Germany is unchanged.

It made clear that a severance of diplomatic relations would follow any violation of the pledges from Berlin.

WOMAN'S PLACE NOT IN HOME IN WAR TIME

3219,000 EMPLOYED OUTSIDE THEIR OWN HOMES IN BRITISH ISLES

LONDON, Nov. 24.—The saying that woman's place is in the home has little application in war time. There are now in the British Isles 3,219,000 women employed outside their own homes. It is generally recognized that their rally to work "in the national interest" is going to make it difficult for parliament to refuse the demand for suffrage which will be renewed when hostilities end.

During the first two years of war the increase of women workers, exclusive of purely feminine occupations, was 886,000. Of these 268,000 directly replaced male labor. In other words more than three-quarters of a million women left their homes to release that number of men for military service. In most instances the women went into the munition plants, where a considerable number of them have given up their lives in "doing their bit."

There seems to be no limit to the class of work women can do. At first it seemed strange to see girl conductors on the busses, girl window-cleaners, van drivers and messengers. But as the war progressed the field broadened and now even in building, mining and quarrying scores of women are employed. The metal trades also have claimed their share of the new industrial army. It must be understood that this is not an army in skirts. As a matter of fact skirts are worn for the most part only in those occupations which bring women in touch with the public. In most of the factories and shops, the breweries and the railway yards, jumpers and regulation overalls are the approved costume. The bus and tram conductors, or "conductresses," are jaunty in their neat blue tunics and skirts reach just below the knees—low enough to overlap close fitting black leather puttees. There is seldom a glimpse of stocking. The bus companies issued an order recently that no silk hose should be worn.

It is stated that probably 100,000 of the women "war workers" have been recruited from those formerly engaged in purely feminine occupations—domestics, dressmakers, milliners, etc. The servant problem is becoming more and more acute. For the demand for munition workers is increasing day by day, and the wages offered are far beyond the dreams of avarice to a majority of the English domestics.

The number of women employed in railway work has increased more than 200 per cent. Ordinarily the only railway posts open to women were clerks, shop girls and carriage-cleaning tasks. Now there are women ticket collectors, porters, engine cleaners and workshop laborers. In Glasgow and some other cities women are being tried out as train drivers or motor-women.

Interesting statistics regarding women's part in war work have been collected by the employment bureau of the board of trade. The number of women recruited to industrial occupations between July, 1914, and July, 1916, was 362,000. Of this number, 268,000 directly replaced men. In commercial occupations the increase in the number of women workers was 198,000, while the number of women replacing men in this class was 201,000. This apparent discrepancy is accounted for by the transfer of women from the feminine side to the male side of the establishments. The increase in women clerks amounts to only 45,000, all of whom, however, have replaced men.

The increase of women workers in hotels and places of entertainment is only 19,000, yet the number of men replaced in these establishments is 31,000, many of the old female employees now doing the work of men.

There has been much more discussion lately as to whether the city woman is a success on the farm and the point is far from being settled. Nevertheless, 65,000 more women are working steadily at agriculture today than in July, 1914. In 1914 there were only 2,000 women employed in government arsenals and dockyards. Now there are over 10,000. The English breweries formerly employed 8,000 women. Now they have 15,000. And so it goes through all the industries. As a whole the industrial post-war problems are going to offer much food for reflection, and, to be amicably solved, will require an intelligent skill of direction and "square dealing" equal to the best thought and energy put forward in the war itself.

BOSTON CARMEN IN HOT FIGHT FOR OFFICE

BOSTON, Nov. 24.—Charges of discrimination and steam roller tactics were hurled at the meeting of the Boston Street Carmen's union at 724 Washington street, last evening, when a number of applicants for some of the principal offices found their names had been ruled out of the nomination lists. The meeting was for the purpose of placing in nomination officers for the annual primary and election.

During the discussion, telegrams were despatched to William B. Mahon of Detroit, president of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees of America, urging him to come on to Boston at once, or in the event of his inability to leave Detroit at this time, to forward instructions relative to the legality of a ruling of the international that candidates for office must be in good standing for at least two successive years prior to being placed on the nominating list.

The putting into practice of this rule and the removal of the names of certain candidates declared not eligible under this law of the international led to the above charges and excitement. In consequence, the holding of the scheduled primary next Monday and the annual election Monday, Dec. 4, may be postponed to a later date. The meeting was still in session at a late hour last night and the officers of the union were unable to give out the names of the candidates for the principal offices.

FIREMAN HURLED FROM ENGINE

BOSTON, Nov. 24.—A $10 fine in 588 Tremont street last night, caused by a curtain blowing in the breeze, came near costing the life of John F. Foley of Engine 3, Beal street and Harrison avenue. Foley is in a serious condition at the City hospital.

The fireman was thrown from the engine as it turned Waltham street into Tremont. He continued his way to his fire only to fall unconscious upon his return to the engine house.

STATE OR MUNICIPAL REGULATION OF WAGES

D. F. WILCOX DISCUSSES PLAN FOR PAYMENT OF PUBLIC UTILITY EMPLOYEES

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Nov. 24.—State or municipal regulation of wages, hours and conditions of employment of public utility employees, was discussed in a report presented today to the National Municipal league convention

by Delos F. Wilcox, chairman of the committee on franchisees, who was for several years chief of the bureau of franchisees of the New York state public service commission for the first district.

The interest of the public in the continuity of operation of public utilities is sufficient, says the report, to warrant the employment of legal measures to prevent strikes, especially on street railway and telephone systems, but the committee recognizes that the right to strike cannot be taken away from such employees, until the public in some way guarantees that the employees' interests as to wages, hours of labor and conditions of work will be conserved.

Discussing the right of corporations to earn a fair return, the committee points out that in most cases, public utility services are worth more than the consumers have to pay for them, and that the public might well afford to pay higher rates, if revenues at existing rates were insufficient to afford the employee a living wage and the corporation a living income.

The committee was in favor of inserting certain general clauses in franchise grants, not determining specific schedules of wages and hours, but establishing a definite method for the settlement of labor disputes as they may arise.

The report continues: "The committee does not favor the principle of fixing wages and hours of labor in specific cases by legislative act without investigation. Legislative commissions, like franchise contracts, should concern itself primarily with the establishment of general principles and the creation of means for the amicable settlement of specific disputes as they arise. The committee feels some doubt as to the particular character of the tribunal upon which should be conferred the authority to settle these disputes, but in view of the control already exercised by the public service commissions over rates, a matter that is vitally connected with the problem of wages, hours and conditions of labor, it reaches the conclusions that experimentally the far-reaching powers necessary to enforce the demands of the public for continuity of service by the prevention of strikes should be conferred upon these regulatory commissions."

Resides Dr. Wilcox, the signers of the report are Prof. William M. Leiserson, head of the public service bureau of Toledo university; Robert Treat Paine, of Boston; Dr. Horatio M. Pollock, of Albany; Charles Richardson, of Philadelphia; and Clinton Rogers Woodruff, also of Philadelphia, who for more than twenty years has been secretary of the National Municipal league.

PRES. WILSON ILL. WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—President Wilson cancelled several engagements yesterday and spent the afternoon and evening in his bedroom because of a slight cold caught several days ago. Senator-elect Gerry of Rhode Island was among the dozen who were to have seen him.

WOMAN BURNED TO DEATH

YORK VILLAGE, Me., Nov. 24.—Mrs. Carrie Whitten, 42, who was horribly burned yesterday at her home near Cider Hill, died two hours later in the York hospital. Mrs. Whitten ran from her chamber to answer a telephone call, her dress caught in an oil stove, and in a few seconds her body was wrapped in flames.

Unable to free herself from the blazing heater she dragged it down the full length of stairs and fell at the bottom with the stove on her body. Bradford Kimball, a small boy who was in the house at the time, ran to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. David Young, who hurried back and found the charred body of the woman and the house afire. They battled with the flames and finally got the body into the yard. Mr. and Mrs. Young were both severely burned.

SAYS WOMEN INSULTED IN RECENT CAMPAIGN

MRS. LAIDLAW SAYS CANDIDATES
"DUCKED" ISSUE WHEN EAST OF MISSISSIPPI

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 24.—To the women of the east who are working for equal suffrage a "certain sense of insult" was brought out in the recent political campaigns, Mrs. James Lees Laidlaw said last night, speaking here at an open meeting in connection with the annual convention of the New York state woman suffrage party. Presidential candidates were guilty of "careful, geographical" distribution of their utterances," Mrs. Laidlaw asserted, as they favored woman suffrage when on woman suffrage soil but maintained silence when campaigning east of the Mississippi.

"Republican and democratic political organizations in many unfranchised states have endeavored practically to repudiate the national planks," the speaker said. "In the most cavalier way they have adopted state platforms, after the national conventions, with utter disregard for the pro-suffrage principles announced in the national platforms of their own party."

"When it has come to the declaration of their woman suffrage convictions presidential candidates have shown a discrimination unparalleled in their treatment of their other utterances of campaign principles. East of the Mississippi they were smitten with a strange selfishness not to say obliviousness of their spirited utterances on this question. In view of their blank silence on suffrage questions in our eastern states the whole-hearted enthusiasm of the utterances which burst spontaneously from their lips as soon as they set foot on truly free American soil of woman suffrage states is one of the most picturesque phenomena in our political history."

"Naturally this brought a glow of pride and a sense of dignified responsibility to the hearts of the enfranchised women to feel that their prospective national executives were so quickly responsive to the interests of womanhood, childhood and the home, that big business of the United States. But how could any unfranchised American woman with a drop of red blood in her veins, with an atom of self-respect, fail to realize the humiliation of such a position. The women of the east simply do not count, they are not a consideration, they are practically negligible."

Mrs. Laidlaw asserted that the suffrage cause has become so strong however, that "never again in the history of our country will any national party meet in convention" without endorsing it and that never again would it be possible for a presidential candidate to omit speaking of it "in terms of noble conviction." She said that with "the political power that comes in the hands, the political recognition that voting women have of necessity gained, the New York state campaign can move forward with a greater certainty of success than ever before."

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known
Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, you will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, yellow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women as well as men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep in the pink of condition. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

COST OF SOMME DRIVE IN MEN ENORMOUS

We may say, then, that the Somme offensive, now in its fourth month, is being pressed with greater vigor and more success than in the period following the first days. This is in strong contrast to the Verdun operation of the Germans, which never showed any great driving power after the first great rush in the last week of February.

As it stands, the Somme drive has resulted in a gain of twice as much ground and the capture of twice as many prisoners and more than twice as many guns (500, to quote official figures) as the Verdun attack, while it is still to run some weeks before it equals the Lorraine contest in time.

In the past month many assertions, patently extravagant, have been put forth on both sides to prove the cost of the Somme battle. The Germans allege that the cost to the allies has been a round million. French and British figures claimed a total German loss of around 600,000, including nearly 100,000 prisoners. Now we know that the French concede a loss of 250,000 at Verdun, while the Germans admit to a casualty list a little larger, and about half that mentioned in French official estimates of German loss at Verdun. Finally the British officially admit a loss in three months of fighting, mainly at the Somme, of above 300,000.

If the French and German losses were equal at Verdun, then there is no reason why, in a similar operation on the Somme, there should be any striking difference between the cost of attack and defense. But there is no escape from the conclusion, the Germans have underestimated their Verdun losses, and neutral observers agree that the total Teutonic casualties at Verdun were not less than 500,000, or at a ratio of two to one, compared with the French.

Accepting this estimate as a basis of comparison, it is reasonable to conclude that the Germans have not lost more than half as many men as the allies at the Somme. As the British have lost 300,000 on their own statement, in three months, they will hardly have lost less than 400,000 at the end of this month. The French loss has been very much smaller, probably not more than 100,000. As against this the German loss has been, at the very least, 250,000. If the capture of Germans continues at its present rate to the end of the month, there will be a total gain of above 300,000, or more than twice as many as the Germans took at Verdun. Conceivably, therefore, the German loss at the end of the month will be around 200,000, as contrasted with a British loss of 400,000 and a French loss of more than 100,000.

Now, putting the Somme and the Verdun figures together, it will be seen that in the west the Germans have lost in the two chief engagements between 750,000 and 800,000 men; (that the British have lost 400,000, and the French between 350,000 and 400,000. But the noteworthy thing is that while the total losses on either side have been approximately equal, which might be expected, the whole loss on one side has been borne by the Germans, while it has been about equally divided on the other. And allowing for German losses in the east, where the fighting has been very severe, it is hard to see how the total losses of Germany in the present year can be figured at less than 1,000,000.

If you say that while the British have been losing 400,000 men, the French 400,000 men, the Russians something less than 400,000—that is, the Russian armies fighting Germans—the Germans have alone lost a million, you will say what the allied critics are saying, when they talk about the effect of a war of attrition upon Germany.

Now, turning to Austria, we have Russian official statements to prove that 420,000 prisoners, almost all Austrian, have been taken in the east, while the Italians announce 30,000 prisoners since they began their drive, all of them Austrian; and even the Rumanians count 15,000 prisoners, chiefly Austrian. We may say that Austria has lost 350,000 men by capture, her Trentino and Gorizia defeats cost her at least another 100,000, and her casualties, due to death and wounds in Galicia and Volynia, must have amounted to 300,000. To sum Austria must have lost not less than 750,000 men since Jan. 1. As against this stands the German statement that Russia has lost 1,000,000 in her offensive since June 1. As we set down 400,000 to the German score, we may put the remaining 600,000 against the Austrian. Italian losses in the same time must have been at least 150,000. The losses of Austria in battle with the Italians and Russians was thus 750,000, and the losses of the Russians and Italians combined equal.

ly large, but divided between two nations.
Now if you look at the population of Russia, France, Britain, and Italy on the one hand, and of Germany and Austria on the other, you can easily discover why the loss of 1,750,000 to the latter alliance is more serious than the loss of a large number divided as we have divided it—400,000 British, 400,000 French, 1,000,000 Russian, and 150,000 Italian—is to the opposing alliance. And the Austro-German alliance has suffered a greater permanent loss because of its casualties nearly one-third, 550,000 to be exact, have been in prisoners, while the allied loss in prisoners has not been more than a quarter as large, including the first Verdun bag.

TAFT TALKS ON PREPAREDNESS

BOSTON, Nov. 24.—Former President Taft last evening delivered his lecture on "Our World Relations," before a gathering of people at the Central Congregational church, Newtonville, under the auspices of the Newtonville Women's Guild.

Mr. Taft advocated preparedness for war and preparedness for the industrial strife that is certain, he said, to follow the end of the present war.

GOMPERS OF A. F. OF L. REPEATS HIS DEFY

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 24.—"If it was Judge Hook's intention to test the constitutionality of the eight-hour law, why didn't he declare it constitutional and place the burden of proof upon the railroad managers, who wanted to evade and avoid it, instead of compelling the government to affirm the constitutionality of the law?"

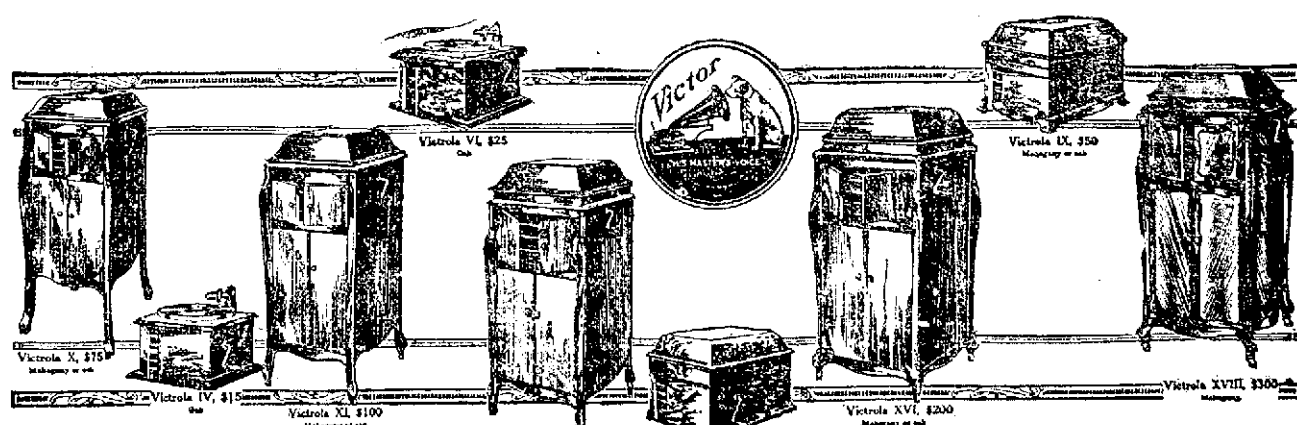

Thus did President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor, in addressing the convention yesterday, lead up to a declaration that brought the delegates to their feet with shouts of approval that lasted five minutes.
"We are going to act on the defensive," said Mr. Gompers, "but if a fight is to be made to take from the men, women and children of our time the advantages they have obtained, then labor's opponents had better look out. We will resist to the uttermost."

Jurisdictional disputes took up most of the time at both sessions of the convention today.

MAN KILLED BY AUTO
BOSTON, Nov. 24.—An unidentified man about 40 years old was fatally injured at Huntington avenue and Bryant street, last night, when he was struck by an automobile truck.
The injured man was carried to the City hospital and died there within a few moments after his arrival. Herbert L. Lothrop, the driver, was arrested by the police of the Back Bay station on a charge of manslaughter.

INCREASE IN WAGES IN THE LOWELL MILLS

The cotton mills of Lowell will grant a general increase in wages to all their operatives, the increase to take effect Dec. 4. This announcement came yesterday afternoon from officials at the local mills. The amount of the increase has not yet been wholly decided upon, but will be announced later. It is understood, however, that it will be in keeping with the ten per cent. increase granted in other mill cities. Notices announcing the increase have been posted in all of the mills. The news of the increase brought happiness to thousands of operatives who were facing a list of high prices with which their wages were unable to cope. Yesterday, the mill spinners presented their demand for a ten per cent. increase and the mill officials took the matter under advisement. It is understood, however, that the decision made known today was not influenced in any way by the demand of the mill spinners.

here, as a general increase had been decided upon several days ago.

The seven large corporations affected by the increase are as follows: Appleton Co., Boott mills, Hamilton Mfg. Co., Lawrence Mfg. Co., Massachusetts Cotton Mills, Merrimack Mfg. Co., and Textile Co. of Lowell. In the above mentioned mills, notices of the increase were posted yesterday afternoon. The United States Worsted Co. at the Merrimack and Silesia plants also posted notices of an increase yesterday afternoon, while today similar notices were posted in the plant of the Lowell Bleachery Co.

It is stated that the amount of money to be put in a combination with the new increase will be about $1,200,000 a year extra, and this will bring Lowell's yearly payroll, including all classes of industry, up to about $30,000,000. It is stated that other local mills which have not yet granted an increase are contemplating a similar advance in wages.

INCREASE IN NEW HAMPSHIRE

MANCHESTER, N. H., Nov. 24.—The International Cotton Mills company announced an increase in the wages of its 1,500 employees.

The wooden cloth mill of M. T. Stevens & Sons in Franklin, employing 500, issued a similar notice. The company has three plants in Haverhill, Mass., and North Andover, Mass.

8000 GIVEN INCREASE

WEBSTER, Nov. 24.—More than 8000 operatives employed in the East, North and South Village mills of the S. Slater & Sons, Inc., the Dudley plant of the Chaseville wooden mill, and the Dudley plant of the Stephens linen works, yesterday were informed that on and after Monday, Dec. 4, their wages will be increased to ten per cent. The local plants manufacturing wooden, cotton, canvas and linen goods. The high cost of living is given as the reason for the voluntary increase in wages.

AMOSKEAG CO. RAISES WAGES

MANCHESTER, N. H., Nov. 24.—The Amoskeag Manufacturing company, whose cotton plant, employing 1,500, is said to be the largest in the world, last night announced a raise in wages. Substantially the same amount as given in other textile cities in New England, to take effect on Dec. 4.

This is the third increase granted by the Amoskeag company in the calendar year.

BILL FOR MOBILIZATION OF LABOR IN GERMANY

AUXILIARY SERVICE BILL SURPASSES ALL WAR MEASURES, SAYS VON LOEBELL

LONDON, Nov. 24.—The German auxiliary service bill is considered by Secretary of the Interior von Loebell as surpassing in importance all previous war measures, according to an Amsterdam dispatch to Reuters describing the debate on the bill before the main committee of the Reichstag. Secretary von Loebell opened the debate on the bill, which provides for the services of all men from 17 to 65. He said that besides the millions of men in the army it would affect 2,000,000 others to be called upon for other services in this war which is not only a war of armies but a war of political economy, a war of nations. Explaining that the object of the bill was the mobilization of labor, the minister declared that instead of the lack of employment which prevailed at the beginning of the war, there was now a positive lack of labor, especially in the manufacture of munitions and war material of all kinds. He said the bill is intended to assure the sustenance of the laboring population and that compulsion would only be used as a last resort and was not needed for women. "The bill must prove to the whole world," he said, "Germany's determination to fight with all her forces to the uttermost." Gen. Greiner pointed out that the exhortations of the British minister of munitions necessitated a considerable increase in the manufacture of munitions in Germany. He explained that the bill proposed to add to the army all men liable for service who had hitherto been regarded as indispensable at home.

Freed from Worms

Familiar signs of worms in children are: Dull, aching stomach, swollen upper lip, sour stomach, offensive breath, thin works, wasted and fall belly with occasional griping pains and the navel, pale face of leaden tint, eyes heavy and dull, twitching eyelids, itching of the nose, itching of the throat, short dry cough, grinding of the teeth, little red points sticking out on tongue, starting during sleep, slow fever. If your child shows any of these symptoms, start using Dr. Tappan's Elixir, the Family Laxative and Worm Expeller, at once.

"My little son is gaining every day and I think more of Dr. Tappan's Elixir than all other such medicines put together," writes Mrs. Ida Gasdon of Manchester, N. H.

LOWELL MEN MADE HIT IN ORIGINAL PLAY

An event of importance to local theatergoers took place in Boston last Wednesday when Claude (Zeke) Lohman and John Y. Myers were given their professional try-out at the Puritan theatre. Friends of both have been urging them for some time to get up an original act, and the result is the western spectacular playlet, "Cowboy and Indian Chief," written by the local baseball hero, who takes the part of the cowboy in the production.

A group of Lowell friends were in the audience at the Puritan on Wednesday when the act was given its try-out by a booking agency and they were very pleased at the enthusiastic reception it received. Present indications are that local friends of Messrs. Lohman and Myers will be able to enjoy the act on the Keith circuit early in the present season.

PRES. WILSON TO ATTEND ARMY-NAVY GAME

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—President Wilson's cold was better today and he expects to attend the Army-Navy football game tomorrow.

The president, accompanied by Mrs. Wilson and a large party will leave here at 8 a. m. on a special train, arriving in New York at 1.06 p. m. He will return to Washington directly after the game.

The president plans to sit on the Army side during part of the game.

THOSE MUSTERED OUT IN FRANCE AS UNFIT WILL BE EXAMINED AGAIN

PARIS, Nov. 24.—The minister of war has introduced a bill in the chamber of deputies by which all persons exempted from military service or mustered out as physically unfit, prior to April 1, 1916, must submit to a further medical examination. During the first period of the war the main object in recruiting was not to overcrowd the depots and consequently only the strongest men were taken. The minister believes that of several hundred thousand men thus exempted an appreciable number will be found, on a less perfunctory medical examination, to be capable of enrollment for non-combatant services at least. Certain defects hitherto considered inhibitive are not incompatible with service in the artillery or even the fighting rank.

BRITANNIC SUNK BY MINE

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—The officers of the White Star Line have been advised by the British admiralty that the Britannic was sunk by a mine. The officials of the line here stated yesterday that the following message had been received from the head office in London:

"Regret exceedingly to inform you Britannic sunk by mine Aegean Sea. Loss of life not exceeding 50."

A later message stated that the captain, all the officers and the engineers were safe, but that there were 24 dead. The officials said that the information contained in these messages came from the British admiralty.

CRUSHING DEFEAT FOR VILLA AT CHIHUAHUA

EL PASO, Tex., Nov. 24.—Francisco Villa withdrew his surviving forces in defeat from Chihuahua City at 6:45 o'clock last night after a battle of seven hours, during which he made fruitless attempts to carry Gen. Trevino's protection works by assault, according to reports from Juarez.

This report was received from Chihuahua by Carranza officials in Juarez last night, who added that government troops were actively pursuing the retreating bandits. The telegraph operator in Chihuahua said that the firing could still be heard clearly, but was becoming more distant. A small party of bandits engaged in a skirmish with a Carranza outpost near Chihuahua Wednesday evening, according to Juarez officials, who added that the military authorities there were undecided at that time as to whether it was only a re-

ing band or an advance part of Villa's column.

Made Three Attacks

Three times Villa attacked the first line trenches which defend the city, and each time he was repulsed, leaving his dead and wounded on the plains outside the city to the north, reports to military headquarters received by Gen. Gonzales here from the besieged city said.

At 11 o'clock a. m. today (Monday) the high crowned hats of the bandits were seen to the south, along the Mexican central main line, according to these messages. The battle was opened a few minutes later with a salvo from cannon on Santa Rosa hill, the key to the state capital. The first and second line trenches, protected by barbed wire entanglements, took up the fighting and by noon a general engagement was in progress along the entire southern line, which continued the entire afternoon. At that time the booming of large calibre guns on Santa Rosa hill and other artillery stationed along the first line trenches was so deafening that it was almost impossible to hear the click of the telegraph instruments, the military operator in Chihuahua City told the military operator in Juarez.

Villa Had 3500 Men

At 2 o'clock the battle was still raging, the apparent advantage being with the government forces. Villa is reported by Gen. Gonzales to have at least 3500 men, nearly all of whom are armed with machine guns, but no heavy artillery. For this reason the 20 or more heavy field guns of Gen. Trevino's command were able to rake the advancing lines of Villa bandits, the message from the state capital said.

The field was covered with dead and dying men, one message said. A sortie by Carranza cavalry, supported by artillery, resulted in the capture of many Villa prisoners who were without ammunition and had gone since morning without food or water, another message declared.

The only cause of worry to Carranza officials is the fact that Gen. Trevino's ammunition supply for small arms and machine guns is limited. All the available ammunition has been sent from here and it is reported that a request has been made to American officials to permit ammunition to be sent through the El Paso-Juarez port for Gen. Trevino's forces.

Villa Leads Troops

FAREWELL WORDS OF AUSTRIAN EMPEROR

LONDON, Nov. 24.—A special edition of the Wiener Zeitung has published the following farewell words of Emperor Francis Joseph to his people and the army and navy, according to a Vienna despatch to Reuters by way of Amsterdam.

"To my beloved peoples I express my heartiest thanks for their loyalty toward me and my house, in happy days as well as in times of distress. The consciousness of this attachment has done me good and strengthened me in fulfilling my imperial duties. May they continue to observe the same patriotic feelings toward my successors.

"My army and navy I remember with feelings of deepest thanks for their bravery, loyalty and devotion. Their victories gave me joyful pride and their unmerited mishaps painful sorrow. The excellent spirit which at all times has animated my army and fleet and both my landwards gives me confidence that my successor can also count on them not less than I did."

EMPEROR CHARLES SENDS IMPERIAL RESCRIPT TO PREMIER

LONDON, Nov. 24.—Emperor Charles of Austria has addressed the following rescript to Premier Koerber, according to a Vienna despatch to Reuters by way of Amsterdam, quoting the Wiener Zeitung.

"Dear Mr. Koerber: Bearing in mind my constitutional duty to take the oath and exercise the executive powers of government according to article VIII of the constitution of Sept. 20, 1907, I await from you proposals tending to the fulfillment of this situation.

"Dated Vienna, Nov. 20, 1916.

"Charles."

EMPEROR CHARLES CONFIRMS PREMIER AND HUNGARIAN MINISTERS

tary headquarters from Chihuahua City given out by Carranza officers. The bandit leader was said to be riding horseback with his crutch strapped to his saddle. He was said by the de facto authorities to have approximately 3500 men in his main column. As he is reported to have more than 5000 troops under his command, the remainder of the bandits are believed to be advancing to reinforce their chief. It was learned from Chihuahua City late yesterday that Gen. Murugua, who is advancing north from the Juarez region, was still in the vicinity of Santa Rosa with his main column of several thousand men.

The only fear the local government officers have is that Gen. Trevino's ammunition will not last until Gen. Murugua arrives from the south with his reinforcing division. There is said to be a plentiful supply of military ammunition but a shortage of rifle and machine gun cartridges, due to the embargo at El Paso, which has never been lifted.

PAWN BROKERS FINED FOR VIOLATION

LAWRENCE, Nov. 24.—Joseph O. Gagnon, proprietor of the Lowell Loan company and Charles Daggett, employed as a clerk at the pawnshop, were convicted in district court yesterday morning before Associate Justice F. N. Chandler for a violation of the city ordinance, to wit, purchasing second hand articles from minors.

Fines of $20 each were imposed on the defendants but they appealed and were ordered to furnish $100 bonds for their appearance in superior court. The conviction of the pawn brokers was brought about through the arrest of Edward Boubin, aged 18 years, on an idle and disorderly charge. Boubin was sent to the Concord Reformatory, but sentence was suspended for three months pending his good behavior.

Boubin was arrested yesterday by Inspector Morrissey who observed the youth at the Lowell Loan company endeavoring to dispose of a watch, he claimed. Inspector Morrissey alleged that he had observed Boubin loitering about the pawn shop district and send the applicant to Little or no work for the past several months.

An investigation of the records of the pawn shop showed that Boubin had disposed of watches, rings, gold glasses, a manicure set, safety razor and violin to Gagnon and Daggett on different occasions covering a period of time from September until the present month. In two specific instances the commonwealth showed that both defendants had bartered or exchanged articles with Boubin, a minor, in violation of the city ordinance. Boubin disposed of the articles under the name of "D. Marsden." It was stated.

Both defendants admitted having dealings with the youth but both claimed he told them he was 22 years old. Boubin claimed to have purchased the articles which he disposed of at the pawn shop from various sources. Atty. Monette appeared for Gagnon and Daggett.

Do you want a clear skin?

If your skin is not fresh, smooth and glowing, or has suffered from an unwise use of cosmetics, here is an easy, inexpensive way to clear it.

Spread on a little Resinol Ointment, letting it remain for ten minutes. Then wash off with Resinol Soap and hot water. Finish with a dash of clear, cold water to close the pores. Do this regularly, once a day, and see if it does not quickly soothe and cleanse the pores, lessen the tendency to pimple, and leave the complexion clear, fresh and healthy.

Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment are sold by all druggists. For samples of each, free, write to Dept. S-R, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.

LAWRENCE, Nov. 24.—Joseph O. Gagnon, proprietor of the Lowell Loan company and Charles Daggett, employed as a clerk at the pawnshop, were convicted in district court yesterday morning before Associate Justice F. N. Chandler for a violation of the city ordinance, to wit, purchasing second hand articles from minors.

Fines of $20 each were imposed on the defendants but they appealed and were ordered to furnish $100 bonds for their appearance in superior court. The conviction of the pawn brokers was brought about through the arrest of Edward Boubin, aged 18 years, on an idle and disorderly charge. Boubin was sent to the Concord Reformatory, but sentence was suspended for three months pending his good behavior.

Boubin was arrested yesterday by Inspector Morrissey who observed the youth at the Lowell Loan company endeavoring to dispose of a watch, he claimed. Inspector Morrissey alleged that he had observed Boubin loitering about the pawn shop district and send the applicant to Little or no work for the past several months.

An investigation of the records of the pawn shop showed that Boubin had disposed of watches, rings, gold glasses, a manicure set, safety razor and violin to Gagnon and Daggett on different occasions covering a period of time from September until the present month. In two specific instances the commonwealth showed that both defendants had bartered or exchanged articles with Boubin, a minor, in violation of the city ordinance. Boubin disposed of the articles under the name of "D. Marsden." It was stated.

Both defendants admitted having dealings with the youth but both claimed he told them he was 22 years old. Boubin claimed to have purchased the articles which he disposed of at the pawn shop from various sources. Atty. Monette appeared for Gagnon and Daggett.

MR. AND MRS. DELARONDE OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Delaronde of 125 Valley Avenue are today observing the 25th anniversary of their marriage and many friends and relatives called during the day to offer their congratulations and best wishes.

Mr. Delaronde was born at Malone, N. Y., April 22, 1871, and after receiving his education at the Franklin Academy in his home town, he came to Lowell. On Nov. 24, 1891, he was united in marriage to Miss Angelina Pelisse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Pelisse, formerly of this city and now of St. Marc des Carrires, Que. The ceremony being performed at St. Joseph's church, this city, by Rev. Antoine Ayoub, O.M.I.

Six children were born to the couple, four of whom are living. Beatrice A., a graduate of the high school and the New England Conservatory of Music; Ruth B., a captain in the girls' regiment at the high school; Gertrude and Dorothy.

Mr. Delaronde was elected a member of the municipal council in 1911 from ward six and served one year, the last under the old form of government. He is holding the position of buyer in the white and wash goods department of the A. G. Pollard Co. store, having been in the employ of the company for the past 24 years, 22 years of which he has been at the head of a department. Mr. Delaronde is a prominent member of Club Lafayette, former president of the A. G. Pollard Co. Employees Mutual Benefit association and is a member of the A. G. Pollard Co. Employees Savings and Loan association, as well as a director of the Modern Investment Co. Mr. Delaronde was born at St. Alban, Que. now St. Marc des Carrires, Nov. 26, 1874. For a number of years he conducted a variety store in Moody street and recently has opened a dry goods and ladies' garment store in Lakeview avenue. The couple own a handsome home at 125 Valley Avenue as well as a fine summer home at Willow Lake. Mr. Delaronde is a connoisseur of wide reputation and for a number of years he was connected with the Sixth Regiment band, being also secretary and treasurer of the Lowell Musicians' association. The couple are held in the highest esteem by their large number of acquaintances, who wish them many more happy anniversaries.

EVELYN'S BIRTHDAY

Over 25 young people gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Kennedy, 45 Lawrence Street late yesterday afternoon to offer their congratulations and best wishes to their daughter, little Miss Evelyn Kennedy, who was celebrating her eighth birthday anniversary. The young people enjoyed themselves to their hearts' content from 5 until 8 o'clock, during which time a very appetizing and well prepared luncheon was served.

Shortly after their arrival at the Kennedy home the boys and girls showered their little hostess with numerous gifts, among which was a gold locket and chain, donated by the parents, the presentation address being read by little Miss Anna Bowers. Games were played and a literary and musical program was given, those taking part being Alice and Francis Horne, Doris, Mildred and Margaret Scanlon, John Kennedy, Marion McMahon, Anna Bowers, Dorothy Kennedy and others. The accompanist for the evening was William Horne. At 8 o'clock the party broke up, and all present extended their best wishes to little Miss Evelyn Kennedy, and their thanks to her parents for their cordial hospitality.

SALOON CHEESE NOT FOOD

Director of Food Bureau Says Free Lunch Article is Made from Skimmed Milk

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—Saloon cheese and beer may be filling, but if there is any nourishment in such a repast it is not in the cheese, it was brought out yesterday at the hearing here of the legislative committee investigating food conditions.

It developed that "saloon cheese" is not purely a descriptive title, but is the trade name for a specific article made out of skimmed milk and sold only to saloons for free lunch counters. It contains little or no butter fat, which is the nutritious element of milk and other kinds of cheese, according to the testimony of the Salts,

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—Saloon cheese and beer may be filling, but if there is any nourishment in such a repast it is not in the cheese, it was brought out yesterday at the hearing here of the legislative committee investigating food conditions.

It developed that "saloon cheese" is not purely a descriptive title, but is the trade name for a specific article made out of skimmed milk and sold only to saloons for free lunch counters. It contains little or no butter fat, which is the nutritious element of milk and other kinds of cheese, according to the testimony of the Salts,

Assistant Director of the Food and Drug Bureau of the City Health Department

He said his department pays virtually no heed to the manufacture and sale of cheese, so that the consumer has no idea what kind of cheese he gets. Ice cream made with a cheap grade of gelatine contains copper, zinc and arsenic, he said. His department examines gelatine to guard against those poisons, he said.

Dr. William Hallock Parke, director of the bureau of laboratories of the city health department, testified that by the use of pasteurized milk bovine tuberculosis in children under three years old has virtually been eradicated in the last four years, and that the typhoid rate has dropped faster in New York city than in any other part of the country.

WHAT HORTENSE TOLD ME

High pillows and double chins go hand in hand, says Hortense. Use a very flat pillow if you have to have any. The following exercise, if persisted in, will banish a double chin and strengthen the muscles of the neck: Three or four times a day drop your chin on one shoulder and turn your head until it touches the other shoulder, letting it rest on the upper part of the chest all the way.

At night, after you have bathed your neck with warm water and soap and applied a good massage cream, place your fingers behind your ears and draw them down to the base of your neck, repeating ten times. Then, with a rotary motion, work over the entire portion of flesh from your chin to the hollow of your throat. If you do this regularly and wear a chin strap at night, you will soon get very satisfactory results.

The best remedy for brittle nails is oil and plenty of it, says Hortense. Soak the finger tips for five or ten minutes every night in warmed sweet almond oil.

When the surface of the nail shows ridges and there is a general appearance of coarseness, apply grease about edges whenever possible. Cleanse the nails with grease instead of using soap or nail brush. It will produce a satin like appearance and the tinge of pink that is so desirable.

Many women use cold cream about their nails, but vaseline is better. After soaking the finger tips in the almond oil, take an orange stick and fill the cuticle with vaseline. The superfluous grease may be removed with a piece of cambric or absorbent cotton.

Hortense advises, when bathing the face, to treat yourself to a little gentle massage. Dip your hands in the water and rub the cheeks with the flattened palms, being careful to give an upward pressure and to be very light with the downward stroke.

Place the thumbs under the chin and then on over the ears with the bended first fingers. Clasp the back of the neck with both hands so that the fingers touch in front. Never dry the face with a rough towel, but use soft linen if possible. The soap must be carefully removed with clear water. Always, after using soap and water on the face, apply the orange flower skin food, which will do wonders toward keeping the touch of youth in your cheeks.

A few drops of plain lemon juice is an excellent and economical tooth wash, as it not only removes the tartar but sweetens the breath, says Hortense. We all know that lemon rind is a skin whitener and bleacher, but few know that a splendid manure sold may be made by adding a teaspoon of lemon juice to a cup of warm water. This loosens stains from the teeth and loosens the cuticle more satisfactorily than instruments.

For scrawny, wrinkled hands, try massaging with olive oil. Warm half a cup of pure oil in an enameled dish and set it in a larger one of hot water. Wash your hands clean and allow them to soak in clear water for twenty minutes. Then put the hands nearly dry, drop a little of the warm oil into one hand and massage the other. Alternate until the hands refuse to absorb any more. Wipe them dry with a soft cloth, but do not wash them.

Now that the slouch fashion of standing and walking has gone, Hortense hopes never to return, correct that faulty pose and regain a healthful pose by remembering the following under all circumstances.

When leaning forward in a sitting position, the action should be from the hips and not from the waist. When sitting, the body should recline backward in such a position that the chest is kept open and broad.

Women should learn to stand with equally balanced tips. Pointed toes and high heels should not be used when walking any distance. The experts say that coats should not be made so high in the neck that the head is pushed forward.

To get rid of blackheads, says Hortense, scrub and steam the face thoroughly, as the little black pittings are nothing more than dirt imbedded in the pores of the skin. The practice of pressing them out between the finger nails is very harmful.

Where cases are extremely obstinate, after steaming the face, it should be anointed with cold cream and so remain for at least fifteen minutes before scrubbing. This will help much to soften the particles, as some of the little black spots seem almost rooted. After they are out, an astringent lotion should be used to contract the pores.

When a woman has taken means to reduce her weight and finds that her skin is left flabby the following hardening pomade may be used and should correct the defect. Also she should not fail to use cold water after hot whenever she bathes the flabby parts. The pomade should be applied after a massage. Oil of sweet almonds six ounces, white wax three ounces, tincture of benzoin one and a half ounces, rosewater one and a half ounces, and pulverized tannin six drams.

For chapped lips, so prevalent this winter, the following is said by Hortense to be good and perfectly harmless: Spermaceti three ounces, white wax four ounces, oil of almonds eight ounces, camphor four ounces, oil of eucalyptus forty drops, oil of lemon three drams.

Many women, while they do not need glasses, do not take proper care of the eyes after they have been strained from long reading or after a shopping trip filled with vexatious examination of goods in the shops. It is well, after getting home, if your eyes burn, to bathe with a lotion made as follows, says Hortense: Boric acid one ounce, boiling water one pint. Put the boric acid in a basin and pour on the hot water and allow to dissolve before bottling.

There is no better way to remove a foreign substance from the eye than to make this same mixture, spread it on a cloth and lay it over the eye. For inflamed eyes the white of an egg beaten to a froth is soothing.

The most intelligent people and the most beautiful are those who see things and get all possible pleasure out of them. An exhibition of indifference to things about you is not an evidence of intelligence. Intelligent people are those whose eyes are open and that is the way to become intelligent. Such people, also, are the most interesting. Sometimes so much so, that even though they lack physical beauty, that is forgotten in admiration for their intellect.

The victim of indifference victimizes all about her. Her friends may look upon her and admire her beauty, but if she is decidedly uninteresting, even a little of her society is generally an overdose.

A double chin is not a pretty feature. To help reduce it, Hortense says to practise the following exercises: Stand erect in military position, placing the hands lightly on the hips, fingers forward. Drop the chin slowly on the collarbone, then throw the head back with a quick, even movement that is not a jerk but yet puts all the muscles into quick play. Repeat ten times.

Turn the head quickly to the right until the chin is just over the right shoulder, then turn it back again. Repeat ten times, then turn the head to the left and repeat. Do not tire the muscles of the neck, but gradually increase the number of movements daily until you can do it fifty times without after discomfort. Daily massage will help, too. From the point of the chin with the open hand, press backward at the same time. Bathe the chin and throat frequently with cold water.

For the woman over forty who wishes to retain her beauty of face and form, Hortense advises that she guard against eating too much. Cut down on meat particularly. A certain amount of tissue building food is necessary to repair and replace worn-out tissues, but one can get along with less than most of us think. Here is a good diet given me by Hortense for just such women:

For breakfast a large dish of oatmeal with milk and sugar, a glass of milk and two slices of bread and butter. If coffee is taken, and it can be, eat three slices of toast and butter. For luncheon take toast, fresh fruit, and a glass of milk. For dinner, a soup, meat of any kind in moderation, three vegetables of any kind, a dish of prunes, two slices of bread and butter, and a glass of milk. Prunes should be eaten at least three times a week.

When the skin is very dry and cracks and peels, Hortense says to stop using soap and water for awhile. The dryness may result from a natural insufficiency of fat secretions or from using unsuitable soaps. Cleanse the face for awhile with sweet oil or almond oil. Any excess oil may be wiped off with a piece of soft linen. Steaming the face is the best way to remove blackheads, as it opens the pores widely and the peels can then be pressed out easily. After removing massage well with a cleansing cream and finish with a grease cream. Either lemon juice or a little vinegar are good astringents to close the pores again.

J. ALLAN DUNN HAS JACK LONDON'S LAST LETTER

PITTSFIELD, Nov. 24.—J. Allan Dunn, the short story writer, who is living at "Homeland," in Lansboro, received a letter from Jack London, Wednesday, probably the last that the author wrote before his death, in which London told of plans to visit Mr. Dunn for Thanksgiving in the Berkshires.

Dunn and Jack London were intimate friends. "I never heard London speak harshly of anybody," said Mr. Dunn. "While on the other hand he was helpful to thousands. I have lost one of my best and dearest friends."

MEXICO HEARS UNITED STATES IN REVOLT

PRINTS STORY "ROOSEVELT HAS STARTED REVOLUTION AGAINST PRESIDENT WILSON"

EL PASO, Texas, Nov. 24.—Roosevelt has started a revolution against President Wilson, according to a despatch printed in El Democrita, the leading newspaper of Chihuahua City, which however, qualified the report by printing a question mark in the heading.

The despatch, which appears in the issue of the 23d of this month, is placed under a Mexican City date. It reads as follows:

"Alarming rumors have been circulating in this city which say that Col. Theodore Roosevelt heads a revolution that has broken out in several states of the American Union, with the object of overthrowing President Wilson who, Roosevelt claims, authorized various electoral frauds in order to triumph in the past election.

"High officials in this city and some of the diplomats state with confidence that this rumor is a canard of the American yellow press, which is hostile to Wilson. The American ambassador already has telegraphed to Washington in order to inform himself as to the truth of the report."

FORMER QUEEN OF HAWAII IS CRITICALLY ILL.

HONOLULU, November.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.) The condition of Liliuokalani, the 75-year-old former queen of Hawaii, continues to cause her friends grave concern. Her illness began with a cold some time ago, and she has been weakened by its inroads that her attendants fear she may never fully recover. Though now seen occasionally in her carriage, she is easily exhausted and often falls to sleep along the drive.

Possessed of no more actual sovereignty now than the meanest Hawaiian stevedore, she is still accorded all the deference of royalty. On state occasions at her own home she is accompanied by ladies in waiting who wave peacock fans over her, while kahili-bearers stand motionless at her side holding the royal kahilis—feather-topped standards. No person is permitted to pass behind "her Majesty" nor must the shadow of any human being fall upon her.

In the years immediately following the overthrow of her monarchy, Queen Liliuokalani struggled bitterly against the fate that had befallen her. Her attitude toward Americans was hostile. But age has healed these wounds and today her constant advice to her people is that they be loyal to the country that has adopted them.

The former queen has in recent years occupied herself largely with literary labors. She is the author of both the words and music of "Aloha Oe," the Hawaiian song that is now well known in the United States. She wrote it as a farewell tribute to her brother, King Kalakaua, and it is a matter of grief to her that the song is being syncopated and played irreverently as dance music on the mainland.

Most recently Liliuokalani has been assisting the Rev. Henry Parker, a native minister, in compiling a dictionary of the Hawaiian language, for which an appropriation was made by the territorial legislature. They already have compiled about 15,000 words, several thousand of which Liliuokalani has defined in English and Hawaiian, with all the finer shades of meaning and accentuation. The difficulty of the work is that many Hawaiian words have a dozen different meanings, dependent upon their juxtaposition to other words and upon gestures and inflections.

1500 BOTTLES OF WINE POURED INTO GROUND

LONDON, November.—The action of Rosalind, Countess of Carlisle, in pouring away into the ground about 1500 bottles of wine, as evidence of her strong temperance views, has aroused a storm of criticism in letters to the newspapers. The countess is president of the British Women's Temperance association. She has been a lifelong total abstainer and temperance advocate.

The wine was of old vintage and was stored in the cellars of Castle Howard, the Yorkshire estate of the countess. She inherited the stock, but is said to have kept the cellars sealed for the last 50 years. A few days ago the wine cellars were opened, a large hole was dug near the countess' mansion and the caretaker poured the contents of the bottles into it.

The countess' action has been criticised on the ground that she is inconsistent with her principles, the wine would be very acceptable in military hospitals for the use of convalescing soldiers.

ORDER OF MOOSE

Lowell Lodge Conducts Annual Concert and Dancing Party in Associate Hall—Fine Entertainment

Lowell lodge, 618, Order of Moose, conducted its annual concert and dancing party in Associate hall last evening and in spite of the inclement weather there was a large attendance of members and friends of the lodge. The entertainment consisted of "A Night at the Club," presented by the Bach Center, a popular club. The program was rendered in a pleasing style and the various contributors were obliged to give many encores. Charles D. Slattery was director of the entertainment and he performed in his usual efficient manner.

The program was as follows: "The Long, Long Trail," Thomas Delmore; "See Dixie First," Richard Donoghue; "Time Will Tell," John Davlin; "Turn Back the Universe and Give Me Yesterday," Frank Connor; "Just One Day," James Rouse; "Can't You Hear Me Calling," Caroline and Andrew McCarthy; "Oh, How She Could Yacki, Yacki, Wicki, Wacki, Wacki," Walter Davis; "Answer," John Dalton; finale, "Goodbye, Bachelor Days," John Gleason. Musical director, George Smith.

General dancing was enjoyed during the latter part of the evening, with the following officers in charge: General manager, Edward St. Legere; assistant general manager, William Riley; floor director, George A. Gallagher; assistant general manager, Miss Mollie Peterson; chief aid, Miss Agnes Nicholson; floor director, Miss Isabelle Burns; assistant floor director, Miss Rose Nicholson; aids, Misses Julia Bolan, Madeline Bolan, Mary Griffin, Mae King, Mae Flynn, Mae Mollen, Margaret Tobin and Genevieve Winn. The club officers are: President, Mary T. Gallagher; vice president, Julia Bolan; secretary, Mae King; treasurer, Rose Nicholson.

DISCOVERS NEW COMET

BOSTON, Nov. 24.—The discovery of a new comet by the Rev. Joe H. Metcalf of Winchester was announced by the Harvard college observatory yesterday. The minister-astronomer now has four new comets to his credit, a record equaled by few, it is said.

The comet, so faint that it was discovered only by photography, was first seen by Mr. Metcalf on Nov. 21. In its official report on the discovery, the observatory stated it was made on "Nov. 21, 1873, Greenwich mean time; right ascension, 3 hours, 11 minutes, 0.5 seconds; declination, plus 18 degrees, 32 minutes, 0 seconds." The daily motion was stated as 11.5 minutes of time, west, 25.1 minutes arc, south.

BIG RUSSIAN BATTLESHIP SUNK; 200 LIVES LOST

PETROGRAD, Nov. 21, via London.—Russia officially announces the loss of the dreadnought Imperatritsa Maria of 22,000 tons. A statement issued last night reads:

"The Russian dreadnought Imperatritsa Maria has been sunk by an internal explosion. Two hundred of the crew are missing."

NAVAL STAFF REPORT

LONDON, Nov. 24, 1916, via m.—The Russian naval staff, says a Reuter despatch from Petrograd, has issued the following statement:

"At 6 o'clock on Oct. 20, fire broke out in the forward magazine of the Imperatritsa Maria. An internal explosion followed immediately, and the fire spread rapidly and reached the petrol tanks."

"The officers and crew strove with the utmost bravery to localize the effect of the explosion and flood the magazines. The commander-in-chief, Vice-Admiral Koischak, went aboard and took personal command of the operations."

"Shortly after 7 o'clock, however, the vessel sank. The greater part of the crew were saved. An officer and two first-class sub-officers and 119 sailors are missing. Sixty-four of the crew have since died from the effects of the burns."

"The position of the ship, which lies in shallow water, gives hope that it may be refloated and completely repaired in a few months. The bridge is only one yard below water level."

Early in November, a report was in circulation that the Imperatritsa Maria had gone to the bottom and that nearly all of her crew had perished. Later, on Nov. 11, Berlin reported by wireless that a Bulgarian headquarters despatch announced that a fireman on the battleship had reached the Bulgarian coast and confirmed the destruction of the dreadnought, which it was stated had been sunk by a mine near Salina, or Prokossia Island, at the mouth of the Danube.

The Imperatritsa Maria was a new dreadnought. She was launched in 1914 and displaced 22,000 tons. Her officers and crew numbered about 1000 men. The vessel was 350 feet long and had a draught of 27 feet. She was armed with 10 12-inch, 20 5-inch and four 2.5-inch guns and four 3-pounders and four torpedo tubes.

MEDICAL ORGANIZATION TO CARE FOR U. S. TROOPS

MOST COMPLETE SYSTEM DEVELOPED ALONG THE MEXICAN BORDER

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Nov. 24.—Within the last five months the most complete medical organization known to the United States army has been developed to care for the 150,000 state and regular troops stationed at border points and in Mexico.

The system includes five base hospitals, located at strategic points in the long stretch of border territory; eight camp hospitals at other points where troops are stationed; a cantonment hospital at Columbus, N. M., to serve the troops on duty in Mexico; and 26 ambulance companies and 41 field hospitals distributed among troops in the field.

The base and camp hospitals afford accommodation for a total of 4000 patients and have medical and surgical facilities equal to the finest hospitals. Not more than half the beds have been occupied at any one time since the nation's militia strength was called into the federal service, but the room is available in case of need.

Back of this array is the potential organization. A hospital train of ten Pullman cars, with a capacity of 200 patients, has been placed in use to transport patients from the camp to the base hospitals and from base hospitals to general military hospitals in various parts of the country, should a campaign in Mexico be undertaken. These larger institutions are the Walter Reed hospital at Washington, D. C., the General Army and Navy hospital at Hot Springs, Ark., and the Letterman hospital at San Francisco. About 1200 beds are vacant in the three hospitals at the present time.

In addition, a number of army posts have been selected for transformation into general hospitals in case of emergency. This list includes Fort McPherson, at Atlanta; Fort Oglethorpe, also in Georgia; Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indianapolis, and other army stations where barracks are available for hospital purposes.

The medical corps has complete equipment in storage for 20 evacuation hospitals and two base hospitals. An evacuation hospital takes care of 300 patients and a base hospital accommodates 500, so the total reserve equipment ready for use at a moment's notice is sufficient for 8000 men. Evacuation hospitals are entirely under canvas and are intended for use along an extended line of communication.

The base hospitals now in service are located at Fort Sam Houston, Fort Bliss, Brownsville, Eagle Pass and Nogales. Serving as feeders for these institutions are the camp hospitals located at the following points: Laredo, 120 beds; Del Rio, 75 beds; Marfa, 150 beds; El Paso, 180 beds; Douglas, 300 beds; El Paso, 200 beds; McAllen, 150 beds; and Fort Clark, 150 beds.

Last July when state troops began arriving at the border the only army establishment for the care of sick were the post hospitals at Fort Sam Houston and Fort Bliss and much smaller places at Laredo and a few other border points.

Practically the entire system of base and camp hospitals has been built since the call on the National Guard was made.

As a result of the scientific methods adopted by the medical corps and the steps taken to insure absolute sanitation in border camps the big company of regulars and militia has set a new health record. From May 1 to Oct. 31 there were only 15 deaths from disease in the force of more than 150,000 and

WHAT OUR NEIGHBORS SAY.

Brookton, Mass.—"I have found Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription wonderful. I only took three bottles. When I started to take this medicine I was working where I had to stand all day and I had bearing-down pains, backache and was tired all the time. The doctors didn't seem to give me relief so a friend advised me to try 'Favorite Prescription' and I am glad that I did for I had immediate relief. I recommended it to the other girls who were working with me and it did not fail to cure in any case."—Mrs. MARGARET LAMOUR, 20 Perkins Place.

Every woman who has reason to believe that backache, headache, menstrual pains, low spirits, sleepless nights, irregularities or a catarrhal condition is caused by a derangement of the womanly functions, owes it to herself and dear ones to speedily overcome the trouble before a general breakdown causes permanent prostration.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a non-alcoholic remedy that any ailing woman can safely take because it is prepared from roots and herbs with pure glycerine, containing tonic properties of the most pronounced character.

It is not a secret remedy because its ingredients are printed on wrapper.

Get Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription to-day, either in liquid or tablet form or send Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., 10c for large trial package.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets not only the original but the Best Little Liver Pills, first put out over 40 years ago, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, have been much wanted but never equaled, as thousands attest. They're purely vegetable, being made up of concentrated and refined medicinal principles, extracted from the roots of American plants. Do not gripe. One for stomach corrective, three for cathartic.

of this small number only 21 deaths were due to infectious maladies.

Typhoid fever was formerly the worst scourge of camp but it has no place among the troops along the Mexican border. From May 1 to Oct. 18 only 21 cases of typhoid developed and no deaths resulted from the disease. All of these cases were among the National Guard organizations, where in some instances the men were not inoculated with typhoid serum until after regiments had come to the border. There was not a single case among the 42,000 troops of the regular army engaged in patrol duty and stationed in Mexico with Gen. Pershing's command.

In Spanish-American war days—over a period of eight months in 1898, among 147,000 regulars and volunteers, the typhoid epidemic reached the enormous total of 21,000 cases and there were 2192 deaths from the disease.

NAMED FOR BILLY SUNDAY
BOSTON, Nov. 24.—Partly because he was born on the Sabbath, but principally because the day of his birth was made memorable by the opening of Billy Sunday's Boston revival, the infant son of Charles Moore, 95 Chester avenue, Chelsea, has been named William Sunday Moore. He is the first baby in Greater Boston to be named for the evangelist.

If Too Fat Get More Fresh Air
BE MODERATE IN YOUR DIET AND REDUCE YOUR WEIGHT.
TAKE OIL OF KOREL.

Lack of fresh air, it is said, weakens the oxygen-carrying power of the blood, the liver becomes sluggish, the acidities and the action of many of the vital organs is hindered thereby. The heart action becomes weak, work is an effort and the beauty of the figure is destroyed.

Put out on, by indoor life is unhealthy and if nature is not assisted in throwing it off, a serious case of obesity may result.

When you feel that you are getting too stout, take the matter in hand at once. Don't wait until your figure has become a joke and your health a burden of unsightly and unhealthy fat. Spend as much time as you possibly can in the open air, breathe deeply, and get from any druggist a box of oil of korel capsules, take one after each meal and one before retiring at night.

Watch yourself every few days and keep up the treatment until you are down to normal. Oil of korel is a purely harmless, is pleasant to take, helps the digestion and even a few days' treatment has been reported to show a noticeable reduction in weight. A. W. Lewis & Co. can supply you.

ROY AND HIS PICTURE

Once upon a time Roy's mother said: "Roy, don't you want your picture taken with all of your birthday toys?" Roy thought that would be very nice so he went and brought his white duck, a woolly lamb and his big brown teddy-bear, and his mother sat him on his new rocking horse with all of the other toys beside him. Just as his mother was ready to snap her camera for the picture, Roy called out: "We forgot pussy. I want her picture taken." So Roy hopped down, have all your toys and that will do," from his horse and ran to find the said his mother and she snapped the kitten. In a minute he came back with camera. But what do you think? Pussy had her under his arm and climbed again on his rocking horse, but pussy didn't want to stay still and she jumped down and walked around beside his toys as much as to say: "I know what camera was snapped and landed on I want." Roy's shoulder and rubbed her nose against his shoulder and purred. Again and gave it to Roy and told him to hold her as tight as he could, but the kitten was too strong and again it jumped down and started to walk a picture of Roy they would have to off. "Never mind the pussy. Roy, you try again."

CAMPAIGN TO RELIEVE COAL CAR SHORTAGE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—The newly organized conference committee on the efficiency of the American Railway association began its campaign to relieve the coal car shortage yesterday by instructing all railways to turn coal cars loaded on empty to their owners immediately.

Members of the committee said last night this action probably would result in despatch of enough cars to interior coal fields from congested seaport sections within two weeks to have a marked effect on the threatened coal famine in various sections. Similar action may be taken later in regard to other classes of cars, but the most pressing demand just now is for coal carriers.

ERROR IN N. H. BALLOTS

CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 24.—An error in printing the ballots used in the national election Nov. 7 was found by the secretary of state, Edwin C. Bean, yesterday, but neither he nor any other official was prepared to say whether the discovery would have any effect on the vote which gave a small plurality for the democratic electoral ticket. One of the democratic electors, Lawrence M. Connor of Manchester, appeared on the ballots as Lawrence A. Connor.

The republican elector receiving the highest vote was George D. Longdon of Dublin.

SALIM DOCTOR ARRESTED

SALIM, Nov. 24.—Charged with having performed an illegal operation on Mrs. Nellie St. Pierre of West place, this city, last June, Dr. William N. Noyes, former city physician, was arrested last night.

Theophilus J. Wall, 28 years old, a blue worker, 22 Norman street, was arrested as accessories. Dr. Noyes was released on bail, Wall was locked up for the night.

SIR HIRAM MAXIM THE INVENTOR IS DEAD

LONDON, Nov. 24.—Sir Hiram Maxim, inventor of the automatic system of firearms, died at his home here early today.

Born in America

Sir Hiram Stevens Maxim, American-born, was one of the most famous inventors, civil, mechanical and electrical engineers of Great Britain. He was most widely known as the inventor of the Maxim machine gun, which makes the recoil of the weapon serve as the power for reloading, and which is the weapon largely used in the European war today.

He was born in Sangerville, Me., February 5, 1840, the son of Isaac Weston and Harriet M. Maxim, and received only a common school education, but he acquired scientific knowledge by reading and attending lectures. He went to England in 1881, and had resided there ever since. He was knighted by Queen Victoria in 1901.

His son, Hiram Percy Maxim, is a well known inventor in the United States, known particularly as the inventor of the Maxim silencer.

For many years Sir Hiram was a director of the firm of Vickers Sons and Maxim, but resigned that post in 1911. For more than thirty years he experimented in aeronautics and invented flying machines. In the light of the present war, with its numerous German airship raids on England, it is remarkably interesting to recall that eight years ago Sir Hiram took the British nation to task for its small interest in aeronautics, and pointed then, at a time when aeroplanes were in their infancy, that England was in grave danger of bombardment by airships.

"Does any one doubt for a moment," said he, "that in case we find ourselves at war with a continental power, airships will be used for bombarding English towns, both on the coast and inland? The city of London within a year's time can be attacked without our enemy needing to fear the boasted British fleet."

Following the success of the Wright biplane, Sir Hiram renewed his long continued interest in aviation and in 1910 perfected a machine which he declared had certain advantages over the Wright's. It was he who, with others, interested the British government in beginning its organization of an aerial navy, and though he was then 70 years old, he lived to see the great war bring air fighting to pass in even greater measure, probably, than he himself had dreamed.

In addition to his gun and aeroplane, he patented many electrical inventions, including incandescent lamps, self-regulating current machines, several pieces of ordnance and a smokeless powder.

The aged inventor took a keen interest in the war, and from time to time there were unconfirmed reports of his invention of devices to meet the needs of the war, one of them being an apparatus to counteract the effects of the poisonous gases which the Germans were first to bring into use. In 1915 he was appointed a member of the inventions board of the British munitions department under Lloyd George.

Sir Hiram applied himself so strenuously to science throughout his long life that even his recreations were given by him as "reading scientific books and studying the abstract sciences." He wrote many important articles and an autobiography, "My Life," in 1915.

He was a chevalier of the Legion of Honor, a member of the American society of Civil Engineers, the Royal Society of Arts, the British Association for the Advancement of Science and numerous other scientific bodies.

COST OF LIVING IN 1853

Beef Sold for Four Cents a Pound and Calico Brought a Shilling—Tea Was $1 a Pound

My memory of an old charcoal iron furnace on Bullion Run, Venango county, operated as early as the spring of 1853 by a Pittsburg manufacturer, says Percy P. Smith, in the Pittsburg Dispatch, is freshened by a glance into the pages of the old "day book," which recorded the original entries at the furnace store, some 53 years ago. Few people, indeed, knew of the existence of this furnace, as it was in such an out of the way place, but it was reached by boats on the Allegheny river to Scrubgrass and by drive via Butler, Parkers Landing, etc. It was a small furnace, but here the pig metal industry was carried on in its most primitive way, by water power.

I append some of the entries in the "stratcher," or day book, kept at the furnace store, which will be appreciated the more as the prices are contrasted with present cost of high living, or high cost of present living.

Tea sold at $1 a pound; iron, six and a half cents; coffee, 16 cents; plug tobacco, six and a quarter cents; calico, 12 1/2 cents.

Just here let me explain that the one-fourth and one-half cent meant something then, because the "dimey bit," a silver coin, was worth six and one-fourth cents, while the "levy" was rated at 12 1/2 cents. Afterward, the five and 10-cent coins took their places.

Cordwood sold for 45 cents per cord; sugar, 10 cents; 22 1/2 pounds sole leather brought $5.42 1/2; beef, four cents per pound; flour, four cents per pound; coal, 14 cents per bushel. Labor was paid 50 cents a day and upward and board, although some entries show $2 per day for labor—likely skilled.

Bacon brought 12 1/2 cents. About one-half of the extras in each account was for tobacco, but there is not a single entry for alcoholic beverages.

Payment was made in various ways, very little actual money changing hands, and still less business in the way of bank checks. For instance, there are credits for 2000 feet of board $15, 12 cords of wood, $5.40. For coffee and a saavi, charged at $1, payment was made by one hog weighing, when dressed, 125 pounds, at five cents per pound.

THANK U. S. CONSUL

LONDON, November.—The lord mayor's fund at its last meeting passed a vote of thanks to Willoughby Smith, the United States consul at Tidd, for the great work he did in helping them, and other kindred organizations, to alleviate the distress of the Armenian refugees.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

"The Girl From Out Yonder," that brilliant play which is the offering of the Emerson Players at the Opera House this week, will be given its final performances this afternoon and tonight.

DON'T SUFFER WITH NEURALGIA

Musterole Gives Delicious Comfort

When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on the temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister.

Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet—colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable.

and tomorrow afternoon and night and record breaking crowds will witness the play.

Miss Ann O'Day is scoring a big hit as Blossom, while Ivan Miller is also making himself even more popular by his splendid work. Rose Morrison, Jas T. Galloway, Gertrude Shirley, Allard Vincent, David Baker, Ernest Rust, Frank Wright and other members of the company handle their characters in a finished manner and a superb scenic production is offered with all new and special effects.

A splendid program of vaudeville and picture features will be offered at the Opera House Sunday afternoon and evening. One of the headliners being Kendall Weston and company in the sketch entitled "The Eagle's Nest." Mr. Weston is a great comedian, as he is well known in this city, having been connected with the Playhouse and Merrimack Square stock companies previous to the coming of the Emerson Players to Lowell.

His offering is said to be one of the biggest hits of the season in vaudeville. The "Three Sisters" in a singing offering, and Patry Burke, the famous Irish comedian, are other acts on the bill that will go over "big." There will be two other fine acts and five reels of the newest releases in photoplay features which include both comedy and dramatic subjects. The same prices will be charged and no special performance can be secured now.

Next week, starting with a special bon-bon matinee on Monday, the Emerson Players will present "The Girl Who Couldn't Buy," a powerful drama of New York life, written by Sumner Nichols, and which is now being played by five road companies in the large cities at two dollar prices. And of particular interest to the theatregoers of this city is the fact that Mr. Nichols, the author of the play, has appeared in Lowell several times in productions and last season played an important part with the Emerson Players in "Wanted $25,000."

It is a play with a punch and a purpose and should prove one of the greatest hits of the season. Seats are now selling for the week.

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

In Morris Cronin's Merry Men, at the B. F. Keith Theatre, this week, there are presented to Lowell audiences one of the most novel of comedy and juggling acts seen in this city in a long time. Opening up with vaudeville effects, there follow rapid fire handling of Indian clubs, the comedy boxing match of the two dwarfs and splendid manipulation of trick ropes. This act has many new things to offer, and is decidedly meritorious. "Fingers-Keepers," a brand new satirical sketch on the theme of honesty, is likewise something which holds attention. Exceptionally well written and acted it cannot fail to make a lasting impression. Tony Hunting and Corinne Francis, the "Love's Blossoms" are likewise above the ordinary in drawing power. So good is the bill that it is hard to set out in brief another, and the remaining turns are all applauded to the echo. They are: Force & Williams in a comedy; The Three Kellions, comedians; Rome & Kirby, two dancers; Leonard Brown, Lowell singer, and the Pathe News. Good seats for the remaining performances may be obtained at the box office. Phone 23.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE
Only today and tomorrow will the present excellent bill of super-photoplays be presented at the Merrimack Square theatre, so the time is limited in which to see the winsome Alice Brady in the role of the pathetic little orphan in the picture dramatization of "Beauvoir and Fair Play," the play which took Broadway by storm. As this play touches in its portrayal the depths of human emotion every-thing within reaching distance of this theatre should strive to take it in. The other play, "The Years of the Locust" with Fannie Ward, is alone sufficient reason for attending this theatre today or tomorrow. Miss Ward in this drama of Africa and America has a tragic part which she interprets with a beautiful and wonderful power. Burton Holmes travel pictures, a comedy and other plays conclude this splendid bill at the Merrimack Square theatre.

This is the same grade of Regan Melton we sold last year for $20—but this year's coat has a finer silk lining (and incidentally, costs US a dollar more).

Positively, they're the best overcoat values we know of. They're the firm finish cloth that wear for years. We like to sell them because we know every man who buys one will be pleased with the coat and grateful to us for selling it to him.

Other quality Regan Meltons at $15 and $17.50.

The new "Trench" model young men's overcoat is here in blue and gray at $20.

OWL THEATRE

Mabel Taliaferro, the gifted and charming little stage star, who is now appearing exclusively in Metro pictures, will be seen at the Owl theatre today and tomorrow, in "God's Half Acre," a new and pleasing photoplay from the Metro studios. The story of this new release is one of unusual charm, teeming with many situations of both comedy and pathos. There are many thrilling moments also, and a delightful love story is unfolded in a decidedly interesting manner.

"God's Half Acre" possesses every requisite for a screen masterpiece. The star is one of the foremost of either the stage or the screen. The story is unusual and of high quality; the supporting cast is exceptionally strong, the settings are wonderful and the director, Edward Carewe, ranks among the three best directors in the country. The story of "God's Half Acre" is laid around "Rainbow's End," a home for aged people. Miss Taliaferro, in the role of Blossom, a young servant, is called by the old folks, who fairly worship her, "The Angel of Rainbow's End," as she is forever ministering to their wants and their comfort. How Blossom becomes the principle character in a novelist's book, when the writer comes into the home in search of local color, how she wins love, after a heaven-sent wonderful experience equaling those of Cinderella, and how she marries him when certain obstacles are removed, form a very pleasing story of power and fascination.

In addition to "God's Half Acre," other high-class offerings will also be presented at the Owl theatre today and tomorrow.

JEWEL THEATRE

The management of the Jewel has arranged a corking program for the remaining two days of this week. First in line comes "Hobson's Choice," one of a series of five-reel railroad and out-door stories—the present release being "The Manager of the B. & A.," a stirring drama of the rail-roads, in which many exciting adventures and dangers are encountered by the well-known daring girl. An entire new "The Crimson Satan Mystery," which stars Maurice Costello and Ethel Grandin, and features an exceptionally clever young woman in the person of Miss Olinova, who plays a "vampire" role with wonderful effect. Then an episode of "Liberty," starring Marie Walcamp, Eddie Polo and Jack Holt, exciting and thrilling at the Mexican front, and also Billie West, called "Charlie Chaplin's double, who will imitate the famous comedian for two reels of uproarious fun, entitled "His Married Life." A comedy which Chaplin himself could not equal. And the regular releases will top all these special features, thus the audience who will fill this popular house during these two days, will have their money's worth fully.

ROYAL THEATRE

It is a pretty guess as to which material of "The Yellow Menace" and "Liberty" is the better. Both widely different in theme, they are however, agreeing on the same subject—that of preparedness. Both contain highly exciting moments, and both have well-known stars in the cast. As Ali Singh, the yellow demon, Edwin Stevens is really the out-standing type in the "Yellow Menace," his portrayal of the demoniacal character is one that captivates with its utter wickedness and realism. No other actor could play this part so well as it is given right now. In "Liberty" honors are divided between three great favorites, namely, Marie Walcamp, a fearless woman, whose beauty and brains are a by-word in Universal City, where the aerial is produced, Eddie Polo, whose feats of strength are thoroughly astounding, and Jack Holt, who makes a handsome soldier-hero. Other attractions on today and tomorrow's Royal theatre program are a "Ham and Bud" comedy, and the semi-daily releases. Coming Sunday, 2nd episode of "Gloria's Romance."

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

refurbishing the Academy of Music and now that they have completed their work the new management of this oldest of Lowell's playhouses announces a grand reopening on Monday evening under a new policy, as a high class picture theatre which will offer exclusively the greatest film productions ever shown in this city. Only the newest of complete photo plays will be presented and two performances will be given daily at 2 and 7:30 p. m. High class Sunday concerts will also be given. The daily programs will consist of two complete high class photo plays, while there will be a complete change of program every three days. The resident manager is Mr. Henry M. Strout, who represents some of the best known men in the film world. The Academy of Music has been leased for one year and has been renovated at great expense by the lessees which indicates their intention and financial ability to remain permanently in this city.

Manager Strout takes pleasure in announcing for the first three days of next week two part plays featuring two of the most popular stars in film-dom. Viola Dana appears in "The Cossack Whip," a gripping story told on the screen in a faultless manner while George Fawcett will be seen in that intensely interesting story "The Country That God Forgot." Each of these productions is an entire and perfectly satisfying picture entertainment in itself for each is a complete human interest story presented by a leading dramatic star. But two complete plays at each performance, all new to Lowell at the time of their presentation is to be the policy of the Academy under the new management and the price will be but 10 and 15 cents at all times though some of the most expensive films in the world of movies will be included in its programs. Remember the opening night, next Monday night. There will be a complete change of bill on Thanksgiving Day when Edna Mayo will be seen in the "Return of Eve" and Bessie Erton in "Prince Chap."

proscenium was beautifully draped on the same plan, while the boxes displayed artistic adornments in the prevailing colors. The stage presented a forest scene, with wreaths rising from front to rear, the whole giving the appearance of a sylvan bower, from whence the Salem Cadet band sent forth some very stirring strains of music. The orchestra occupied a platform in the front of the stage and furnished the music for dancing. The stage was arranged by Mr. Joseph Convery.

The guests began to arrive at nine o'clock, and the entire number present was estimated at less persons. A covered passageway was laid to the sidewalk and carpeted for the comfort of the ladies who appeared in ball gowns on their side. Just upon entering to the hall the gentlemen found a boudoir for their accommodation to be used as a rest place, one for the ladies and other for the gentlemen. In the ladies' bower Russian tea was dispensed, while light refreshment of various kinds was served to the gentlemen on the other side of the entrance. The floor of the hall was covered with white canvas for the convenience of the dancers. The effect of the decorations was enhanced by the glow of many colored lights, which were given and lit by Jackson Hall, in which supper was served, was also beautifully decorated.

At 8 o'clock the Salem Cadet band gave a concert program of six numbers, and at 8:30 the dancing commenced. The dances were conducted on a raised platform in front of the stage where they held a reception. At 9:15 Governor

Governor and Mrs. Russell were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Cumnock at their home, after the ball. The reception committee was as follows: Hon. Charles C. Russell, W. T. White, Dr. J. M. "The various parts were cleverly sustained and vocal solos were given by Misses Nellie Murphy and Lilla Cook; mandolin and guitar by Misses Nellie Lynch and Albertine Lane; banjo solo, Miss Alice Dempsey; piano selections, Miss Kittie Keyes, and recitations, Miss Mary Donnelly. After the entertainment refreshments were served in the lower hall and then dancing was enjoyed until midnight."

LAWRENCE, Nov. 24.—It was reported on good authority that a party of wealthy and industrial men will finance a large new mill to be erected in South Lawrence with Alfred Sagar, secretary of the Lawrence mill at the head of the plant.

Mr. Sagar has had considerable experience with the mill business, having devoted practically all of his life to the textile industry. There are rumors in connection with his resignation as agent of the Arlington mills which seem to indicate that the new mill soon to be built to complement the Arlington plant.

SUCCESSFUL SALE
Properties of George W. Olney Woolen Company Sold by J. E. Conant &
Co. Auctioneers, of This City

The properties of the George W. Oliver & Son company in the Cherry Valley district of Worcester were sold Wednesday afternoon by J. E. Galt & Company of this city. The sale was a success from any standpoint and very satisfactory to all concerned. The entire tract was sold for $6,500. Lot one comprising the manufacturing plant, was sold to B. E. Northbridge and C. A. Brogan of Worcester for $2,500. The building dwelling house properties aggregated $4,000. The tract was sold in lots of about sixteen parcels. The foregoing major amounts together with the 640 acres total $26,000. The day proved to be an exceptionally bright, clear and invigorating day. The attendance was very large. The properties included lands from New York City, Providence, Conn. There was not the slightest lagging in the bidding from the very start to the very end of the sale. The bidding for the thirty-acre tract was the last and the seventh centered parcel of property. The sale assures well for business conditions.

LEARNING FROM CANADA

More than 250,000 members of four brotherhoods of railmen, says the New York World, have empowered their officers in their discretion to declare a strike. Several of these officers are on record as opposing arbitration. If that should be the final decision of the brotherhood leaders, a few men, failing to exact from their employers all that is demanded of them, would be in a position to paralyze transportation on the greater part of the railway mileage of the country.

In Canada this whole proceeding would be unlawful. By the act of 1907 the appointment of boards of conciliation and investigation is provided for, and the act states that no person shall be liable for any act of inquiry by such a board, or even to advocate a strike or lockout before the board has made its report. It is an offence punishable by heavy fines. Summary action of every kind on the part of the unions is prohibited. It is hoped that investigation will lead to the settlement of disputes or to their ultimate arbitration, and that public opinion will be helpful in promoting peace and justice. Thus far the plan has worked well. Most cases strikes have been

Short of compulsory arbitration, which most English speaking peoples have hesitated to adopt, the Canadian arrangement is the closest approach to a true remedy for labor quarrels that has yet been made. It is compulsory only for a season and for a purpose, and acts not upon the liberties of those in controversy, but upon their season. This much is demanded in the public interest, and is difficult enough to be adjusted by reason. A compulsory strike or lockout, which then becomes unlawful, has a more impressive sanction than the word of a boss who refuses to arbitrate, or of an irresponsible labor chieftain who is in a hurry to "tie up" things, regardless of public rights.

INCOME TAX LAW DOESN'T COVER ALL INCOMES

Special to The Sun

STATE HOUSE, Boston, Nov. 24.—According to a statement of the new income tax department the income tax law does not impose a tax upon all income, but merely on four kinds of income. These taxes are:

"1. A six per cent. tax on the income of certain intangible personal property. By this term is meant stocks, bonds, notes, debts, savings bank deposits, other money at interest, and transferable shares in partnerships, associations and trusts. Certain of these are exempted, however, deposits of legal amount in savings banks and savings departments of trust companies; bonds of the United States, and certain of the bonds of the commonwealth of Massachusetts and its counties, cities, towns and districts; loans secured by real estate taxed in Massachusetts to the amount of its assessed value; dividends on Massachusetts corporation, national banks, and the shares of the American Telephone & Telegraph company, the New England Telephone & Telegraph company, and the Western Union Telegraph Co.; and such shares in partnerships, associations and trusts, as, by agreement with the tax commissioner, pay the tax to the tax commissioner direct.

"This tax is a new form of taxation in Massachusetts. Such property has formerly been taxable at its full value, and is now taxable only upon its income. The list of 'intangibles' so taxed is the same as was taxable under the old law, with the addition of transferable shares in partnerships, associations and trusts.

"2. A tax of one and one-half per cent. on income from an annuity. Annuities were taxable under the old law at the regular local rate. The new law reduces the rate in most cities and towns.

"3. A tax of one and one-half per cent. on the excess over $2000 income from professions, employments, trade or business. A series of deductions of business expense is allowed, to arrive at the fair net income of the taxpayer. A further deduction is allowed for those having a wife or husband or other dependents.

"Such excess of income was formerly taxable at the local rate.

"4. A tax of three per cent. on the excess of gains over losses from the purchase and sale of securities or other intangible personal property, including shares in Massachusetts corporations and other tax-exempt securities.

"This is a new form of taxation, have no parallel in the old law."

IN MILADY'S BOUDOIR

HANDRUFF Foe TO BEAUTY

There is no greater foe to beauty than dandruff, for with insufficient hair or thin hair, beauty is impossible, even though one has a most beautiful face. Uric acid, say physicians, in its endeavor to escape from the system, is responsible for a very unpleasant and harmful form of dandruff. A careful watch has shown that many sufferers from uric acid rheumatism are troubled with the moist, greasy, flake form of dandruff which, if neglected, is fatal to the health and well-being of the hair.

In very bad cases this is yellow in hue, sticks to the hair like fish scales and leaves a red, angry surface when dissolved. To reduce uric acid a regime is necessary, depending on the individual case and prescribed by a physician. For local treatment get rid of the scales, but do this in such a way as not to injure the delicate hair roots.

Commence by rubbing the entire scalp gently with sweet oil or vas-line, leaving a little of this on the entire scalp, or over the patches, if the dandruff forms in that way, over night. In the morning give the head a vigorous shampoo with a pure soap and rinse very carefully, using the hair spray, and first warm and then hot water.

This will invigorate the scalp and bring a new supply of blood to the surface. After the hair is dry you will find a considerable portion, if not all, of the dandruff has disappeared. Now give the scalp a vigorous daily shampoo, using the tips of the fingers, and taking care not to scratch the scalp with the nails. For this massage keep the fingers lubricated with sweet oil or vaseline, and if the hands feel hot wet the fingers with cold water. As often as the dandruff gathers, repeat the oil treatment, followed by a shampoo.

Mayor O'Donnell Presents Handsome
Silk Flag in Behalf of Congressman
John Jacob Rogers

The Y.M.H.A. troop of Boy Scouts entertained a patrol of scouts from Troop 15, Chelmsford Street Baptist church, in its rooms in Central street, last evening. First Class Scout Hilton was in command of the visiting troop. Mayor James E. O'Donnell presented to the Y.M.H.A. troop a handsome silk flag in behalf of Congressman John Jacob Rogers, who was unable to attend. His Honor made a brief address to the boys, complimenting them on their progress and thanking them for the part they took recently in civic work. Remarks were also made by Scout Executive Williams, Field Executive Kibben, Scoutmaster A. S. Goldman and others.

AUTOS HELD PENDING DECISION

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina, November.—A case of considerable interest to American exporting houses has cropped up here. A consignment of motor cars from an American factory arrived in Buenos Aires. The invoice price of the cars, sent to the agency in Buenos Aires, were, by the customs authorities, deemed exceedingly low. The minister of finance was induced to believe that some fraudulent intention underlay the invoice prices, which ranged $200 to $300 gold. He fixed the value of the cars, for the purpose of revenue, at from $340 to $445 gold. On behalf of his principals the local agent invited the authorities to take over the cars at the invoice prices. After much delay the minister has gone out of office without giving a decision on the point. The cars remain in store pending the decision of the new minister of finance.

LIGHT AND PROGRESS

The pennant bearing the name of "J. L. Chalfoux's" which floats in the breeze daily from the flag staff over the J. L. Chalfoux Co.'s building at the juncture of Merrimack and Central streets, will be seen by night if the scheme of H. L. Walker, advertising manager, goes through. Mr. Walker has arranged to have a spot light of 250 watts placed on the building for the purpose of illuminating the pennant. If one light is not sufficient Mr. Walker says he will put more on for he states the name of the J. L. Chalfoux Co. will have to be seen day and night. The new light, which is equipped with an x-ray reflector will be given a test Saturday evening.

WILL OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY

Division I. A.O.H., will observe its 50th anniversary in February and the committee in charge of the celebration held an important meeting last evening. John P. Sheehan of the ticket committee, reported that the tickets will be in circulation next week. Other committees reported progress and the following made interesting remarks: John J. McOsker, James Ahern, Thomas Sheedy, Michael A. Conley, James E. Burns and James A. Sheehan. The next meeting will be held next Tuesday evening.

The Results Were Very Remarkable

Well Known Lowell Man Gives A Glowing Testimonial For Plant Juice

When the stomach performs its functions so perfectly that the possessor forgets that he has one, good health, physical powers and buoyant spirits prevail. The stomach in civilized people of today, however, is degenerate. It lacks tone and strength, gradually brought about by a sedentary existence. Too much food and too little exercise have forced them stomach into a half sick condition. It becomes weak and does not protect itself, and the bars are down for the entrance of disease in many forms.

E. A. DEMMONS

Plant Juice, the new herbal stomach remedy, is a purifying and a vitalizing agent. It corrects local disorders of the stomach, which is being demonstrated daily, and verified by well known people of this city who have been restored to health, in signed testimonials.

For instance, Mr. E. A. Demmons, who lives at No. 25 Rogers street, Lowell, Mass., and has many friends in this city, recently stated:

"I have been troubled for years with my stomach. My food soured in my stomach and caused gas to form. I was afraid to sit down to the table to eat anything, as I had such pain afterwards. I could not eat meat nor vegetables and had to exist on the lightest kind of a diet. I had very severe headaches, was dizzy, and my head would seem to be in a constant whirl, so I could scarcely see anything. I could not sleep at night and felt all played out in the morning and had no ambition to do my work. I was so constipated that I had to take pills all the time, and never got any permanent relief; my kidneys troubled me, and I had terrible pains all through my back and in my side. I had tried so many medicines I was fairly disgusted, but when I heard so much about Plant Juice I thought I might try one more, although I had little faith in it helping me. After taking it for several weeks, I can truthfully say that the results were truly remarkable. My appetite is so good that I can eat anything I want and do not suffer afterward; I sleep well and am not dizzy or nervous; it has toned up my entire system and put my kidneys in fine condition. I am glad to give this endorsement for Plant Juice and hope others who suffer with stomach trouble will try it. The Plant Juice Man is at Dow's, The Drugists, in Merrimack Square, where he is daily meeting the local public, and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy. On Saturday he will remain at the store until 10 p. m. to meet those who are unable to call during the day."

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

Considerable important business was transacted at last evening's meeting of Lowell council, Knights of Columbus. A committee of 10 was appointed to make arrangements for a ladies' night to be held soon. Thomas J. Fitzgerald was elected treasurer of the council to succeed James Brown, who resigned after several years of faithful service. Lecturer Hickey announced that plans had been made for entertainments at the winter meetings of the council.

ed at this week's meeting of James A. Garfield Post 120, G.A.R. Reports of committees were read and referred. Greetings were received from Comrade F. W. Cragin, now residing in California, wishing a pleasant and happy Thanksgiving to all the comrades of Post 120. Under new business, nomination of officers for the year 1917 was in order. This being accomplished, the election of officers will follow three weeks later, on Wednesday evening, Dec. 13. Under good of the order, remarks were made by Comrades Plumstead, Dickey, Flanders and others. Remember, election occurs on Wednesday evening, Dec. 13.

OVERCOATS!

They say that peace with "Turkey" will be declared after Dinner-Thanksgiving. On the questions of War, Politics and Light or Dark Meat preference we're Neutral, but when it comes to the question of Overcoats we SHINE—with as big a variety as you'll find in a 10 course Thanksgiving dinner from soup—to turkey—to nuts.

The reasons why so many Lowell men are getting their Thanksgiving Togs at the P&Q Shop, are first and foremost:—

NO WONDER SO MANY P&Q CUSTOMERS SEND THEIR FRIENDS TO US

There's not a garment on our racks that isn't the very latest model. For instance last Saturday's rush pretty near cleaned us out in Overcoats, but by Tuesday the Big P&Q Tailoring Plant in New York had shipped us a big supply of NEW Broadway Styles—bigger and better than ever. Just received by express yesterday.

Such woolen mills as GILBERT, SAWYER, ASSABET, LEBANON and 6 others, known the world over for their superior overcoatings are ALL represented at the P&Q Shop. You won't find these fabrics made up into Overcoats elsewhere for less than $25. Out of a score of "pace-making" styles we illustrate a few above. STOLEN JEWELS WORTH $60,000 RECOVERED

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—A $40,000 ruby which was part of the jewelry stolen from Mrs. E. H. Harriman, was sold to an optician for $650, according to police statements made today, narrating the circumstances of its recovery. The ruby passed through several hands and was to have been sold to a Fifth avenue jeweler, who notified the police of his prospective purchase, and this clue led to the speedy solution of the disappearance of the Harriman valuables.

Arthur P. Daggett, 42 years old, of Larchmont, N. Y., and Orville Daggett, 48, brothers, are under arrest in the case, charged with grand larceny. The former was custodian of a trust company's deposit vault in which Mrs. Harriman placed her jewels for safe keeping. The older brother has confessed that he was given the ruby by Arthur Daggett last July, according to the police.

The police said further they learned that Arthur Daggett notified the trust company superintendent on the day before Mrs. Harriman reported her loss, that there was something wrong with the vault and that he was waiting until upon examination found the door open. Nearly all the missing jewelry, valued at more than $60,000, has been recovered and the police say the rest has been located.

ganization, its method and policy, Mrs. Morey said:

"I would like to impress upon you two or three facts which we ask you to consider before you make up your mind how you will cast your vote on this measure. First—that your vote affects not only the women of your own constituency and the women of the state of Massachusetts, but the women of the entire nation, and that the women of the western states, who have political power, will watch the vote of the eastern men on this measure, knowing that their own congressmen will support the measure, and if the party's record is unsatisfactory, it is the result of the vote by members of congress in the states where women are still unfranchised.

"You are helping make the record of your party on this question, which will be taken to these women in the next congressional election, and that record will help decide whether or not the leader of your party will have a democratic majority in the national congress during the last two years of his administration.

"We lay these facts before you for your consideration in an absolutely non-partisan spirit, friendly and hopeful in every degree.

Woman from Kansas

Miss McGaw said: "I am from Kansas. I am a full voting citizen of that state. My work has called me to Massachusetts. I feel that this state offers greater opportunities for the things I want than my own state, and I have come here to earn my living, but by coming here I have lost my citizenship, through no fault of my own whatever, and I protest against such unjust interstate discrimination. Since my work is here, I feel justified in calling upon the congressmen of Massachusetts to protect my rights as a citizen of the United States. I have never given this matter much serious consideration. Since I have been 21 I have voted simply as a matter of course, just as my brother voted. I never realized that if I crossed an imaginary state line my political rights would be taken away from me—that my political rights are not safeguarded by the national government. The plea of the unfranchised women of the east to the women of the west who have votes and power, to use that power against the party that has refused to further the national enfranchisement of women, made a tremendous impression on me, as it did upon thousands of other women of the west. I was convinced that there was no higher use to which I could put my ballot than to aid in securing political liberty for all American women. As a member of that party and one who is vitally interested in its success, you should see that your party does not bear on the reactionary reputation that it now has in the west.

Widespread Demand

Miss Morey said: "Since there is such an urgent and widespread demand for an amendment to the United States constitution which will enfranchise the women of the east and secure nationally the political rights of the women of the west who are already enfranchised in their own states, we feel that it is the plain duty of congress to pass such an amendment on for the consideration of the legislatures to the states.

"I am urging you to work and vote for this measure because you are a member of the party in control of the coming session of congress. This party has lost control of the house and will have a very short time to enact legislation with which to plea for a restoration of that power two years from now. We feel sure that had the democratic party realized that there was a demand for a national amendment they would have put their party machinery back of it and secured its passage in the last session of congress. We therefore went to the west to demonstrate that there was a demand for a national suffrage amendment and to put the record of the democratic party before the voting women.

"Secondly I urge you to do your part in furthering the passage of our amendment because as a Massachusetts woman I have had to move my residence to Kansas in order to become a citizen of my own country, and express my opinion as to who shall be our president. I demand that you shall use your power to make it possible for me to return to my native state without being disfranchised, which can be made possible only by the passage of an amendment to the United States constitution which will forbid such interstate discrimination."

MR. ROGER'S REPLY

Mr. Rogers replied to the deputations that he would vote for the Susan B. Anthony amendment and would do all he could to help its passage. He said that as chairman of the resolutions committee of the republican state convention he had made every possible effort to secure the endorsement of the national suffrage amendment and regretted greatly that he had been unable to do so.

LOST BRITANNIC WAS THIRD LARGEST OF WORLD'S SHIPS; TWO GERMANS BIGGER

S.S. BRITANNIC AND CAPT. C.A. BARTLETT

The Britannic, used as a hospital ship by the British and sunk by a mine or torpedo in the Aegean sea, was launched at the Harland & Wolff shipyard in Belfast Feb. 26, 1914, and was the largest British merchant vessel afloat. Her keel was laid soon after the Titanic was sunk, and she was intended to take the place of that craft. The Britannic was surpassed in size only by the German vessels Imperator and Vaterland. Shipping men remarked upon the fact that neither the Titanic nor the Britannic ever reached America. The Britannic was to have gone into service in the fall of 1914, but owing to the numerous strikes in the shipyard and the labor trouble, which caused delay in getting materials, it was put off to the spring of 1915.

When the war started in August, 1914, the Britannic was taken over by the admiralty and fitted out to accommodate about 3600 wounded and sick. At that time her cabin fittings had not been installed, and there was very little at all on board except the engines, funnels, masts and decks. On her first voyage the majority of the partitions on the upper decks were made of canvas, which lasted until the carpenters had time on the way out to Larnaca to replace them with wooden bulkheads. She was equipped with a double bottom and fifteen watertight bulkheads carried from the keel to the bridge decks about sixty feet above the waterline.

DISCOUNT ON BULBS

6 PRESCOTT ST.

The Britannic was 885 feet long, 64 feet beam, 64 feet 3 inches depth of hold, 48158 gross tonnage, and 164 feet 6 inches from her keel to the upper navigating bridge.

She had three propellers driven by two sets of reciprocating engines on the port and starboard side, and a low pressure turbine on the center shaft, which combined to give her an average speed of twenty-four knots under full pressure of the twenty-nine boilers. The Britannic was 2600 tons larger than the White Star liner Olympic, which is now carrying troops from Canada, and 3000 tons bigger than the Cunarder Aquitania, now engaged as a hospital ship carrying wounded men from Saloniki. The Britannic was commanded by Captain C. A. Bartlett, formerly of the Cedric.

The Britannic had ample lifeboat and life raft accommodation and had davits which could launch three boats, one after another, which, it was said, might have accounted for so many lives being saved.

The Britannic was the largest passenger liner that has been sunk since the war began. The two next in size were the Cunarder Lusitania, 32,000 tons, and the White Star liner Arabic, 20,000 tons, which were torpedoed.

MOSQUITO CONQUEST AFFECTS LAND

BANISHING OF PEST IMPROVES
VALUE OF SWAMPS IN UNITED STATES

That there are today approximately 100,000,000 acres of swamp lands in the United States, of which 75,000,000 acres can be reclaimed for agriculture, is reported by the committee on statistics and standards of the chamber of commerce of the United States. According to this committee, of which A. W. Douglas of St. Louis is the chairman, the vast area of land which could be made available is about 75 per cent of the entire acreage of our present corn crop and twice the average planted to cotton.

Although the work of reclamation of swamp lands of any moment is an enterprise of recent times, it grows in volume and importance each year. The committee traces step by step the history of the reclaiming of swamps in this country and which it lays stress upon the part played by the mosquito, which for years held undisputed sway—so frequently carrying the deadly germs of malaria and yellow fever.

Cornering the Mosquito

Had not the hospital corps of the United States army so definitely determined the status of the mosquito and thus caused the menacing swamp lands to be drained, the national chamber committee declares it is a question whether the building of the Panama canal would have been possible. The tragic failure of the French to dig the waterway is attributed to the existence of the mosquito.

In the early nineties of the last century, it was demonstrated beyond question that the cause of malaria was transmitted by a species of mosquito and that there was no other possible method of infection," the committee continues. "All that was necessary to prevent malaria was to avoid being bitten by this mosquito. Army medical officers stationed in Cuba, after the Spanish-American war, undertook a series of similar experiments in regard to yellow fever. It was the silent, unobtrusive heroism that gave its life in order that humanity might live, for some of the officers and soldiers died from yellow fever as a result of these experiments. It was demonstrated that the life of another species of the mosquito family was the sole source of infection of yellow fever. Since then the fear of this pestilence has vanished from men's minds in all civilized countries, for protective measures were immediately found which are both ample and effective."

Cost of Drainage

The cost of drainage as determined by the committee varies according to conditions and localities. In Missouri, it ranges from $3 to $7 per acre, and in this must be added the cost of clearing the land, when timbered, which varies from $12 to $25 per acre. The timber on swamp lands consists of poplar, oak, pine, spruce, cypress and gum and is often very valuable and repays the cost of clearing many times over. This is especially true of the cypress swamps of Louisiana.

The only value of the land when a swamp is its potential value for reclamation, otherwise it is a serious liability as a breeder of fever. Once cleared, the price ranges from $30 per acre upwards. The soil is generally of unusual fertility, since most of the land is an alluvial deposit from some neighboring river. Besides, it is unusually free from insects, because of centuries of decaying vegetable matter. As it has naturally an abundance of moisture, it possesses all the requisites of abundant yields.

Modern Drainage Methods

The work of swamp reclamation, as explained by the national chamber committee, is practically all done by private enterprise, sometimes by individuals, sometimes by chartered companies, but more often by co-operative organizations in the form of what are known as drainage districts. The districts are formed usually by the majority, sometimes two-thirds, of the persons who own the lands to be drained, and who signify their desire, according to certain legal methods, that such lands should be drained. If a petition be approved, then all action from that time is according to certain definite and carefully prescribed legal procedure and under the care and supervision of state authorities. Every possible precaution is exercised to make it a strictly business proposition, free from speculation and exploitation for personal gain.

Taxes are levied upon the land to pay the initial expenses, and after that drainage bonds, as they are called, are issued, for the continuing costs and for the completion of the work. Taxes are levied annually to pay the interest and the principal on the bonds, which are a first lien on the land, the same as any state taxes. The bonds bear from 5 to 6 per cent interest and run from 20 to 40 years, being generally on the amortization plan. They are usually regarded as sound securities and safe investments. Both laws and methods of procedure differ somewhat in de-

VILLA RENEWS ATTACK ON CHIHUAHUA CITY

EL PASO, Tex., Nov. 24.—Francisco Villa and his command renewed their attack on Chihuahua City at 9 o'clock this morning, a message received in Juarez stated.

100 CARRANZA MEN KILLED
CHIHUAHUA CITY, Mex., Nov. 23.—Delayed by the capture of the Carranza forces, the Villa forces were killed during the fighting today between Carranza troops and Villa bandits. Four hundred men of the Villa command are known to have been killed and left on the battlefield.

The names of the Carranza officers killed have been suppressed by the military censor.
Gen. Trevino, in command of the Carranza forces, suffered a scalp wound. He refused to retire to the field hospital, however, and continued directing the movements of his command.

After machine guns which were placed about 2 o'clock this afternoon, had poured an enfilading fire into the Villa ranks, Gen. Carlos Ojuna, Trevino's chief of cavalry, delivered an attack on the Villa center and drove the bandit forces back in disorder. The battle ended at 7:30 p. m. with Gen. Ojuna pursuing the Villa command.

DENIES EVACUATION

EL PASO, Tex., Nov. 24.—Andres Garcia, inspector-general of Carranza, today officially denied a report that Gen. Trevino and his forces were at Terrazas station north of Chihuahua City and had evacuated Chihuahua City.

MEXICANS WANT RECESS

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Nov. 24.—When the Mexican-American joint commission met today it appeared almost certain that the request of Carranza's representatives for a recess of two weeks would be granted. They were insistent that they must be given an opportunity to refer to their government a full account of the proposals made by the American commission after Secretary of the Interior Lane, chairman of the commission, had secured from President Wilson his approval of the plan. They were unwilling to sign the agreement as it stands, however, even after certain modifications had been made, unless sanctioned by Carranza to whom it was planned that Alberto J. Pani, one of the commissioners, should render a report in person.

So certain were the Mexicans early today that the recess would be granted that Mr. Pani had made all preparations for leaving today for Queretaro, where the first chief is now attending the congress assembled for the purpose of drafting a new constitution. It is understood that Luis Cabrera, chairman of the commission, will remain in the United States until the joint commission reconvenes.

It was indicated that action on the request of the Mexicans would have been taken yesterday but for the absence of Dr. J. R. Scott, one of the American commissioners. Dr. Scott returned today and was present when the meeting began.

The American commissioners appeared to regard the determination of Carranza to place the question in the hands of Carranza not as indicative of failure to effect an agreement, but merely as another delay. It is understood that the Mexican commissioners have been practically convinced that the agreement would be signed but that they do not care to assume the responsibility.

DIET SQUAD MAKES GAIN OF ELEVEN POUNDS

CHICAGO, Nov. 24.—With 11 pounds net gain in the weight of the diet squad which is attempting to demonstrate the feasibility of living well here for 40 cents a day, Dr. John Dill Robertson yesterday considered reducing the daily allotment to 35 cents for the purpose of making the proof even more conclusive.

Today's menu:
BREAKFAST:
Stewed Peas, Syrup, Griddle Cakes, Coffee.
LUNCH:
Beef and Rice Croquettes, Peas and Carrots, Bread, Butter, Gingerbread, Tea.
DINNER:
Tomato Soup, Parsley, Potatoes, Halibut Steak, Parsley, Butter, Cream Tapioca Pudding, Tea.

CHICAGO, Nov. 24.—That the single blessedness of some of the women members of the diet squad of the Chicago health department may be menaced because of their experiment in reducing the daily allotment to 35 cents for the purpose of making the proof even more conclusive, was revealed yesterday when the fact was revealed that two of the squad had received proposals of marriage.

The 12 dieters began the second day of the two weeks' race against the high cost of living with a breakfast of apples, rolled oats, hot biscuits and coffee. All of them expressed their satisfaction with the food, and individual weight, with two exceptions, showed a slight increase. Estimates yesterday indicated that it cost less than 30 cents a person to feed the squad its first three meals. Instead of 40 cents, as anticipated, Miss Lillian Kemp, in charge of the menu-making, said that this price may be lowered by using the left-overs and that has probably will make its appearance on the table before the week is ended. It is probable, she added, that the average price a person for the two weeks' period may be ten cents a meal.

TODAY IS "HASH DAY"
CHICAGO, Nov. 24.—Today is "hash day" in the race of the Chicago health department's diet squad against the high cost of living. Disguised as "beef and rice croquettes," it appeared on the lunch menu, but Dr. John Dill Robertson, health commissioner, admitted it was the left-over of Wednesday's beef purchases.

To test the satisfying power of the food which they have been eating since Wednesday, members of the squad will eat dinner tonight at a table adjoining one at which venison will be served. The venison, a gift to Dr. Robertson and intended for the use of the squad, was held to be a luxury, which could not be included properly in the living test. Later the 12 dieters will attend the annual ball of the health department tonight, but they are forbidden to partake refreshments.

GAIN IN WEIGHT
CHICAGO, November 24.—Latest reports show that members of the Chicago's diet squad of six men and six women who are to live two weeks on meals that cost not more than 40 cents a day for each person, have made a net gain of 11-14 pounds in weight as a result of the first three days of the test.

COMPLETION OF TEUTONIC CONQUEST OF WALLACHIA

Virtual completion of the Teutonic conquest of Little Wallachia is announced today by Berlin. Today and tomorrow the Danube, have been captured by the Austro-German forces, who have broken the resistance of the Rumanians in this section of western Rumania.

Treaty Cut Off
The retreat of these Rumanian forces is assumed to have been cut off with the recent capture by Gen. von Falkenhayn's armies of Craiova and with it the only main line railroad leading eastward.

Rumanians Last Stand
Pushing eastward from the Jiu valley after their capture of Craiova, the Austro-German forces are announced as approaching the Alt valley. It is along this valley that the Rumanians apparently have elected to make their next stand. Bucharest yesterday reported a withdrawal of the Rumanians from the Jiu region and announced that they were holding their own in the Alt valley, where a Teutonic force is driving from the northern Rumanian border, in a converging attack with the forces from the west.

New Drive By Bulgarians
Simultaneously a movement has been made, presumably by the Bulgarians, which may prove of notable importance. Bucharest reports an attempt by hostile forces to cross the Danube at Zimnita, 35 miles southwest of Giurgiu, on the railroad leading to Bucharest. This move, if successful, would mean a cutting in far behind the present Rumanian line along the Alt. Zimnita is 70 miles southwest of Bucharest.

Russians Thrown Back
On the other hand the Russians have made a counter move in Dobruja. Petrograd announces that they are pushing south and have reached to Lake Tashan, about 12 miles north of Constantza, which is the Black sea terminus of the railroad from Tchernavoda, and have crossed the Kartal river. Berlin announces a battle in this region, declaring, however, that the Russians were thrown back from advanced positions.

Entente Success in Macedonia
Both east and west of Monastir, on the Macedonian front, the entente armies are pressing the Germano-Bulgarian lines and making further advances, according to the French war office announcement today. Berlin announces the repulse of local attacks by entente troops northwest and northeast of Monastir.

On Franco-Belgian Front
Neither Paris nor London reports any infantry activity on the front in France and Belgium. According to Berlin the British attacked in the Ancre region, but failed to gain ground.

RAIDS ON GERMAN TRENCHES ON FRANCO-BELGIAN FRONT
LONDON, Nov. 24.—Raids on German trenches during last night are reported in the official statement issued by the war office today regarding operations on the Franco-Belgian front, as follows:
Last night we raided enemy trenches southeast of Grenay in the Festubert and Bois Grenier sections. Otherwise there were no events of importance.

LIVELY BOMBARDMENT ON SOMME FRONT LAST NIGHT
PARIS, Nov. 24.—There was a lively bombardment on the Somme front last night in the region of Sailly-Saillies, north of the river and that of Ablaincourt, south of the stream, the war office announced today. The night was uneventful on the remainder of the front.

French aviators took part in forty aerial engagements on the Somme front, during which five hostile aircraft were brought down. Sub-Lieut. Guynemard, accounting for his 23rd German machine.

KEENAN—The funeral of William Keenan took place this morning at 8 o'clock from his home, 114 West Chestnut street, and was well attended. At St. John's church, North Chelmsford, at 9 o'clock a high mass of requiem was sung by Rev. John Heaney, priest, in the family lot in St. Patrick's cemetery, Lowell, in charge of Undertakers M. H. McDonough Sons.

DEATHS

McGILLAM—Mrs. Maud Lillian McGillam died Wednesday at her home, 52 Auburn street, aged 22 years. She leaves her husband, Wilbur, a mother, Florence May, two sisters, Florence and Alice Lamphier, and a brother, Clarence Lamphier.

DOBBS—Robert Stanley Dobbs died yesterday at his home in East Tewksbury, aged 60 years.

CASSIN—William Cassin, a well known and highly respected resident of this city, died early this morning at his late home, 17 Swift street, aged 78 years. He leaves to mourn his loss a wife, Mary J.; two daughters, Mrs. Michael A. Qualey and Miss Mary Cassin; seven sons, William M., Samuel W., George W., Joseph E., Francis J. and Thomas J.; and a brother and sister in Ireland and two grandchildren. He was a member of Court City of Lowell, Foresters, and other fraternal organizations of the Holy Name society of St. Peter's church.

FANNING—The funeral of John J. Fanning took place this morning at 8:30 o'clock from the funeral parlors of Undertakers M. H. McDonough Sons, and was well attended. At St. Peter's church at 9 o'clock a high mass of requiem was sung by Rev. Patrick Crayton. Among the floral offerings was a pillow inscribed "Father" from the family and sprays from Miss Della McGlinchey and William McLean. The bearers were Patrick Shanahan, John Delmore, Joseph Amey and John Delmore. Burial was in the family lot in St. Patrick's cemetery, where the communal prayers were read by Rev. Fr. Crayton. Undertakers M. H. McDonough Sons had charge of the funeral arrangements.

PARKER—Bernice Parker died this morning at 8 o'clock, aged 65 years. She leaves two sons, George N. and Henry B. Parker, both of Braintree. He was a member of the Braintree Congregational church. Funeral notice later.

FULLER—Miss Lillian Esther Fuller, an accomplished young woman of the Immaculate Conception parish, died this morning after a brief illness at the home of her parents, Reuben and Rebecca Fuller, 334 Concord street, aged 17 years, 3 months, 10 days. She leaves besides her parents three brothers, Carroll, Edward, and Clifford Fuller, and three sisters, the Misses Katherine, Grace, and Mildred Fuller. Deceased was a member of the children of Mary sodality of the Immaculate Conception church.

FOYE—Edward H. Foye, Jr., son of Purchasing Agent Edward H. Foye died this morning at 8 o'clock, aged 1 year, 8 months. Owing to the cause of death (diphtheria) the funeral was private and took place this afternoon at 8 o'clock. Burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery in charge of Undertakers James F. O'Donnell & Sons.

BIGGEST PARK FOR YANKEES
CHICAGO, Nov. 24.—News that the New York American League baseball club has laid plans to build the greatest baseball park in the country, with a double-deck grandstand to hold 28,000 and bleachers and pavilion to make a total capacity of 50,000 persons, was given out here last night by B. B. Johnson, president of the American league.

The arrangements contemplated will exceed the capacity of the Boston National League park by about $800, it was said. The outlay will be over $1,000,000.

DELIGHTFUL RECITAL BY HELEN A. OSGOOD

One of the most original, refreshing and wholly delightful recitals which the Lowell public has been privileged to enjoy for a long time was given in Colonial hall last evening by Miss Helen A. Osgood who, though but starting her career as a reader and vocalist, has already given great promise for the future. Miss Osgood divided her program about equally between dramatic and song numbers and in both proved that study has so developed her natural ability that she is now an accomplished artist.

Despite the very unfavorable weather which prevented many who had secured tickets from attending, there was a large audience, and it was as appreciative and enthusiastic as any audience that has greeted the most famous entertainers who have come here during the past few years. Miss Osgood was aided by Simeon Muscato, who played the accompaniments in a finished manner and gave beautiful interpretations of Chopin's Valse, A Flat, and the Caprice Espagnol of Moszkowski.

Following was the program:

Act I—"We Are Seven".....Gates
"Un Bel Di Vedremo" (Madame Butterfly).....Puccini Act IV, Scene III—"Romeo and Juliet".....Shakespeare
(a) Valse, A Flat.....Chopin
(b) Caprice Espagnol.....Moszkowski
Mr. Muscato
Charmant Oiseau, La Perle du Bresil.....David
Scene from "Romance".....Sheldon
(a) "The Lass With the Delicate Air".....MacDowell
(b) "Thy Beaming Eyes".....MacDowell
(c) "Will o' the Wisp".....Spross
Original Monologues.....
(a) "In a Restaurant".....
(b) "After the Wedding" (Man's Version).....

There is no need to comment on Miss Osgood's personal charm or ease of manner, as they are already known to a wide circle of friends and admirers.

MOTHER OF FOUR CHILDREN

How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Kept Her Well and Strong.

Lincoln, Illinois.—"I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for ten years with good results and I have four healthy children. This summer I was in a very run down condition and the very hot weather seemed more than I could stand, but I commenced taking your Compound in June and from then until September 25th, when my last baby was born, I got along much better than I had before. My baby was a girl and weighed 14 pounds at birth, and I recovered very rapidly which I am sure was due to your medicine. I am well and strong now, nurse my baby and do all my work. I had the same good results with your medicine when needed before my other children came and they are all healthy. My mother has taken your medicine with equal satisfaction. She had her last child when nearly 44 years old and feels confident she never would have carried him through without your help, as her health was very poor."—Mrs. T. F. Cloyd, 1356 North Gulick Ave, Decatur, Ill.

Expectant mothers should profit by Mrs. Cloyd's experience, and trust to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Every year adds to the army of women who have profited by this advice.

She has an atmosphere of youth and buoyancy that gives distinction to everything she does, and she has not a trace of the mannerisms or affectations that young artists too often cultivate. In her readings she appears as the beautiful girl who seems to enjoy the part to a greater extent even than her audience.

The first selection on the program, "We Are Seven," by Gates, is a cleverly written sketch with the characters well defined and distinct. Miss Osgood played the impulsive, modern school-girl with natural grace, and just as readily took the part of the fretful aunt of the olden time with the ideas of a dying generation. "Twas a foregone conclusion that the new girl triumphed. The scene from "Romeo and Juliet" was given with dignity, expression and a fine sense of tragedy, and the scene from "Romeo and Juliet" was given in an arch way that would shame many a professional.

Probably the most popular numbers on the program were the two original monologues—"In a Restaurant" and "After the Wedding" (Man's Version) which Miss Osgood read with great feeling and made a brilliant impression in "Charmant Oiseau, La Perle du Bresil." The three songs in English were well suited to her voice, especially the light and airy "Will o' the Wisp." There are few artists who can so readily assume the part of the operative role as the case may be, and the future ought to assure rare success to an accomplished, beautiful and ambitious girl.

The vocal numbers were sung with great artistry. Miss Osgood having trained a naturally rich voice so as to give very exacting selections. She sang the Puccini number with great feeling and made a brilliant impression in "Charmant Oiseau, La Perle du Bresil." The three songs in English were well suited to her voice, especially the light and airy "Will o' the Wisp." There are few artists who can so readily assume the part of the operative role as the case may be, and the future ought to assure rare success to an accomplished, beautiful and ambitious girl.

The following served as ushers and presented Miss Osgood with the grand clusters of flowers sent by her friends: Misses Harriette Morse, Gladys Jewett, Anna Kelley, Helen Jackson, Dorothy Hurd, Estelle Drury and Marion Lee.

MISS MAILHOT WINS POPULARITY CONTEST

The members of St. Joseph's College alumni scored another big success last evening when they conducted a whist and social for the benefit of the organization, the affair being held in the college hall in Merrimack street. Despite the inclement weather the attendance numbered over 300 and all were much pleased with the manner in which the evening's program was carried out.

Wolfe D. Caffee, Jr., president of the alumni, presided over the evening's program and under his direction everything went along smoothly. Several deals of whist were played and at the close of the card game, while the points were being counted by Rev. Dr. J. H. Racette, O.M.I., Arthur St. Hilare and Louis St. Jean, who acted as judges, musical numbers were given by L. Guilberty, Alfred Renaud, Sylvio Nadeau, Misses Alice Bonin, Antoinette Alexander, Georgiana Desrosiers, Raymond Mailhot and others.

Suitable prizes were awarded the winners at whist and the popularity contest between Misses Irene Mailhot and Melvina Renaud was brought to a close, the prize being awarded Miss Mailhot. The winner of the five dollar gold piece offered to the holder of the lucky coupon was Miss Lacombe, Clinton street, South Lowell.

The scores for the evening were: Misses M. Redard, Marie Dubé, Rose Desnoes, Blanche Bisailion, Marie Renaud, Helene Levesque, Delima and Julia Renaud, Rose St. Jean, Claire Gagnon, L. Coderre, O. Martin and others.

The committee in charge of the event consisted of J. H. Racette, chairman; E. S. Desmarais, Arthur Gaudette, E. N. Foley and A. H. Giguere.

DEMAND FOR VESSELS
BUENOS AIRES, Argentina, November 23.—While waiting away of the Argentine merchant marine, freighters, passenger boats and fishing fleet, continues rapidly, owing to the foreign demand for vessels. The best known of the shipping companies in the River Plate has parted with passenger and cargo steamers without, it appears, any immediate intention of replacing them. The sale of two large river boats is announced, the purchasers being European firms who have paid 100,000 pounds sterling for them. Two modern tugs have also been disposed of for 30,000 pounds the pair.

HOWARD COOPER VERY BADLY INJURED

Howard Cooper of Humphrey street, a clerk employed at the Union National bank, is at St. John's hospital with a possible fractured skull as a result of falling from a train at the Middlesex street station, about 8:30 o'clock last evening. He was reported today to be resting quite comfortably.

Just how the accident occurred is not known. The young man was found lying across the tracks by Engineer Webber just after the 8:38 train from Boston to Lowell had passed. A freight was approaching and had Cooper remained on the track a few minutes longer, he would have undoubtedly been run over. The freight was flagged until after he was removed.

Mr. Demers, who is a clever magician, also entertained with sleight-of-hand feats. Other numbers included musical selections by Jackson Palmer, Frank Delgum, Donald Hanson and G. Faulkner. 1441 HIT TRAIL AT BILLY SUNDAY'S FIRST CALL

BOSTON, Nov. 24.—Boston has given Billy Sunday the largest number of "trail hitters" he has ever won in a single meeting during his nationwide campaign for converts to Christianity. In an encircling avalanche of humanity, 1441 men last evening took their stand in response to the challenge to the members of Boston that came from the lips of the former ball player, who, standing upon his pulpit, dared the men of the Greater Boston Bible classes to make a public confession of their belief.

Asks Aid in Boonze Fight
Although looking after two lines of eager converts might have taxed the strength of even as resolute a man as Sunday, he did not confine his attention to those who were passing before him. Pausing a moment in his handshaking, and holding the hands of the two men before him, Sunday repeatedly looked out over his vast, noisy audience and shouted anew the challenge to join him in his fight for a dry Boston and in the struggle for an improved national morality.

Sunday at times seemed overcome from the exertion, but the cause to which he was most indebted, and the famous Sunday smile did not leave his face during the 20 minutes that the trail-hitting continued.

Men came in groups, and they came alone. Several of the Bible classes had men leave in twos and threes and fours, and at times upon seeing the colored badges, Billy would ask the name of their class.

Every revival has given proof of the moving power of sacred music, and the Boston audience on the first "trail-hitting" night attended once again to the persuasiveness of the songs by a rapturous chorus. "Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus" could not be sung sitting, and if the men's mind was not fully made up, "Hold the Fort for I Am Coming" following as it did a sermon on Christian aggressiveness, was in many cases enough to send him

Three big college football games—Brown, Princeton and Virginia—have met both Harvard and Yale this season. Two of the head coaches, Eddie Robinson of Brown and P. R. Evans of Virginia, have given their views on the probable outcome of tomorrow's Harvard-Yale game. Speedy Rush of Princeton refused to discuss the game. Sol Metzger of Washington and Jefferson who has also seen both teams on the gridiron this year, also sized up the situation. The views of the coaches follow:

E. N. Robinson, Brown—The Harvard-Yale game looks like a fifty-fifty proposition to me, with the breaks likely to decide. Yale has unquestionably the better material and with that inspiration which comes from the victory over Princeton and the home crowd should have a little the better of it. Le Gore, who is a wonderful player, will be in his last game, and I am very sure that he will surpass anything Harvard can offer.

Sol Metzger, Washington and Jefferson—I think Harvard will defeat Yale because of a more versatile attack, a better knowledge of a defense against the Yale offense than Yale has for the Crimson attack, and

KIMBALLS TAKE
LEAGUE

The Kimball System has taken the lead in the City Bowling League, hoisting the White Ways out of the lofty position for the first time this season. The Newton Mfg. Co. and the Crescents are tied in points for third place though the former five has a slight advantage in pinfall.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 24.—Harvard and Yale will complete their long grind of training in preparation for their annual football game here tomorrow.

Yale plans to run through signals behind closed gates at old Yale field, while the Harvard squad, which has been at New London since last night, will limber up on the baseball field in that city. From the rival camps comes the word that both teams are confident and in good physical condition.

It is probable that the gridiron in the Bowl will be somewhat heavy and slippery. This means a slowing up of the attack and a handicap to such shifty runners as Casey of the Crimson and Legore of the Blue. Yesterday's heavy rain drenched the field thoroughly. Workmen were busy all day rolling the turf and otherwise doing everything possible to have the gridiron in the best shape possible.

The rain also handicapped the carpenters who have been erecting extra seats but it was stated today the seats will be in readiness by Saturday morning at the latest. There has been little hitting here so far. The Yale men are demanding odds of 10 to 3.

NEW ORLEANS FOR INDIANS

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 24.—Cleveland will train in New Orleans from March 10 to April 2, according to announcement of Robert McRoy and Lee Fohl made here last night.

There were rumors of their coming to arrangements with Heinemann here, but it was an eleven-hour deal that made Cleveland come here to train again. They will not go to Texas, but directly north after leaving New Orleans.

Hundreds of active and retired officers of the army and navy thronged the hotels today and with the congestion caused by an abnormal number of civilian visitors nearly every leading hotel in the city was reported filled to capacity.

The Army and Navy football squads arrived here today and took up their quarters at different hotels.

INDIANS VS. ORIENTS

The Indians of Lowell and the Orients of Boston, two of the fastest football teams in the state, will meet at Bunting park tomorrow afternoon, to determine the championship of the state. Both teams have set up great records this season, the Orients having a clean slate, while the Indians have been defeated but once and that time by the Orients. The visitors will endeavor to wind up the season, with a record of not allowing a team to score on them in two years, while the local boys will attempt to turn the tables and win the title. Both elevens will present their strongest lineups.

TWO GAMES ROLLED IN BRIDGE ST. LEAGUE

The Hillside triumphed over the Bowways in the Bridge Street League last evening, taking all four points. McCormack of the winning team was the star with a total of 304. The Mysteries also won everything in slight from the Bowways. The Reds and the Ramblers won their games in the Broadway League rolled on the Merrimack Alleys. There were also games in the Les Miserables League and a match on the Spindle City Alleys in the Centralville Minor League.

NEBES READY TO ACCEPT BURKE'S CHALLENGE

NEBES READY TO ACCEPT BURKE'S
CHALLENGE

Albert Nebes, the Lowell roller skater, dropped into The Sun office today, and stated that he would gladly accept the challenge of Harry Burke of Bridgeport, which appeared in this paper on Wednesday night. Nebes said that nothing would please him better than to tackle the Bridgeport flyer, and the fact that the challenger announced he was ready to post a side bet of $250 is very agreeable to the Lowell champion.

Nebes said: "While I think Manager Moore of the Crescent rink would back me for a race with Burke, I prefer to be my own backer if the Bridgeport man will put up the money. I have been very anxious to meet Burke, for several managers told me that if I could defeat him decisively, I could be the world's champion, would be obliged to give me a match. While that is incentive enough, the fact that he will put up a side bet is another big reason why I want to skate him. I have sent a letter to Bridgeport accepting Burke's defy, and now am anxiously awaiting an answer."

The Worcester Telegram of Monday prints the following:

"Albert E. Nebes, Lowell, posted a $25 forfeit yesterday with The Telegram to bind a roller skating match with Billy Moffett, a Worcester boy. Nebes desires that the race be Thursday, Friday or Saturday of next week on the Pastime rink in Marlboro, at any distance from three miles up."

Nebes says he is confident of his ability to beat Moffett, and that he will cover any side bet the latter desires to make. He stipulates that Moffett cover his forfeit money at The Telegram office by Saturday.

Nebes claims the eastern and New England roller skating championship, winning of the eastern championship from Willie Blackburn in a series of eight races from 3 to 50 miles. He defeated Blackburn in the championship race, June 18, which carried a side bet of $200. Nebes beat Billy Yale in a race for the New England championship in May.

Manager Moore said today that if the skaters can reach an agreement he will put the race on Dec. 7, 8 and 9.

The clubs were represented as follows: Whit—C.M.A.C., Joseph Arthur, R. Simard, Alphonse and Ernest Vallerand, Joseph Payette, H. Gelinas, Oliva Brunelle and Joseph Sawyer; C.F. Am. Z. AVIATOR STUDIES BIRDS
PARIS, Nov. 24. — A French army aviator, Captain G., when not directing the squadron he commands, gives his attention to the ways of certain birds in the air.

He has observed that swallows when migrating fly at an elevation of about 300 yards, while wild ducks, at a similar period, fly as high as 2000 yards. The green-necked species, he noted, flew at about 55 miles an hour when mounting and about 35 miles when in horizontal flight. Lappings were seen by the aviator at over a mile and a half high.

ELAN NA GAEL MEETING APPEALS FOR FUNDS
BOSTON, Nov. 24. — Speakers who asked for funds to support another revolution in Ireland, asserting that "the Dublin rebels are going to fight again and fight very soon," obtained subscriptions at a meeting here last night. The money, it was said, will be used to purchase rifles, so that "when the next rebellion breaks, the rebels will have modern guns instead of clubs and pitchforks."

The meeting at which tribute was paid to Irish patriots of other years, was addressed by Peter Golden of New York and Luke Dillon of Philadelphia, who were under the auspices of the Clan Na Gall.

AUSTRIA'S NEW EMPEROR
"SNAPPED" DECORATING SOLDIER

Illustration shows, at left, Emperor Charles Francis Joseph of Austria-Hungary, who has just succeeded the late Emperor Francis Joseph, decorating an Austrian soldier for valor in the war.

An Austrian writer refers to the new emperor as elegant, cheerful and full of temperament, and in a work devoted chiefly to the psychological needs of the dual monarchy, speaks of his influence as likely to come into his people, "with the freshness of love at first sight." He remarks that the archduke seemed to inherit the interest in military affairs of his father, the late Archduke Otto, who was constantly in the company of officers and was generally popular in the army; but other evidence has been presented to show that soldiering is one of the things the new emperor likes least. He has been reported with what credulity hard to say—as having seen "The Merry Widow" fifty times in fifty days. He was until called away by the critical condition of Francis Joseph in nominal command of the Teutonic armies operating on the Transylvanian front in Rumania.

Aside from this, since the war began, Charles Francis has been undergoing a course of intensive training for his prospective duties as emperor.

you have got to have every nerve in your body tuned to the minute." "I'll never forget the first time they got close to me," declared "Boy" Tyne, "My only thought was that I would never shoot a pheasant again. I knew exactly how a bird must feel when a hunter opens fire."

Brennan was wings upon his left elbow, the gold stripe of the wound. "Gill" had been on the official list of the killed in action some weeks ago, but somehow or other came back to life. Brennan was "hit" and finally came down safely within his own lines, it was found there were no less than 80 perforations in his wings.

"I was so interested in looking over their trenches I guess I got a little too low," he explained.

There is nothing more interesting in all London than to sit through a long autumn evening talking to the youngsters of the wonderful aviation service Great Britain has almost miraculously built up since the war began.

"We've got the Germans now where they have to fly blindly or shoot by the map," these intrepid men of the air will tell you. "Of what use are their wonderful guns if they don't know what they are shooting at? They don't even dare approach. The minute they show themselves we have an overwhelming number of machines to send after them and they beat it for home again as fast as they can go. They can't take a photograph

VIDAL OF THE ARMY ELEVEN
IS A WONDERFUL PLAYER

WEST POINT, Nov. 24.—Army football experts boast of the fact that they have two of the best backs of the season in Oliphant and Vidal. These men are also star all-around athletes. With Oliphant behind the army line is one of the football sensations of the season. Vidal, the runner from South Dakota, is one of the fastest and trickiest of the running backs who have been uncovered this year. He is a ten second man in the hundred, a javelin thrower and an all-around track and field man. Once past the first line Vidal is dangerous. He is as elusive in a broken field as any of the backs. He has a tricky way of sweeping and melting through the clutches of the tacklers. In addition he is perhaps one of the best drop kickers of the year. He can shoot them from a bad angle on the fifty yard line, and they go true between the posts with terrific force. A smooth kicker in every department is Gene Vidal. Photo shows Vidal starting one of his runs.

HIGH SCHOOL CONTRACTS TO BE DISCUSSED AT PUBLIC MEETING

Speaking on the purpose of the meeting which will be held this evening at city hall at 8 o'clock and at which local contractors and builders will discuss the high school contracts and labor Mayor O'Donnell said this morning:

"There seems to be some misapprehension among the public as to the object of the meeting and the attitude of the municipal council. The meeting tonight shall not be for the purpose of deciding whether the bids for the high school shall be split up or whether the contract as a whole shall be awarded to anybody in particular. At one of its first meetings the advisory board favored the one-contract plan, but two methods are open to us, one of which would, I think, be acceptable to Lowell contractors while providing for efficiency and economy.

TEST CASE OF ADAMSON LAW

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 24.—A tentative agreement on a test case of the Adamson law has been reached by the attorneys of the railroads and the government who have been in conference here yesterday and today. The agreement has been forwarded to Attorney General Gregory at Washington, and the conference here will await his action upon it.

DELAY PROSECUTIONS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Under a tentative agreement, said today to have been arranged between department of justice officials and railroad attorneys the government will not insist on railroads putting into effect provisions of the Adamson act until the supreme court has determined if the law's constitutionality. The measure becomes effective Jan. 1, but prosecutions for violations would be withheld. The agreement is conditional on the ability of counsel for the government and railroads who are in Kansas City today to appear before the federal court there in Santa Fe suit to decide on what case should be appealed to the supreme court for the test.

The agreement also would provide that railroads should not file new suits attacking the Adamson law pending the supreme decision, and should not institute further actions if the law be held valid. It would not seek to prevent effort to obtain legislation amending the Adamson act, however.

The joint congressional investigating committee at today's session heard Alfred P. Thom, counsel for the railroads, and a congressional committee, continue his presentation of the railroads' ideas of legislative reforms needed to better transportation conditions.

But when we wish clothing we shop right at home.
We go down to Chalifoux's right on the square.
A charm for small pocketbooks seems to lurk there,
You have not far to seek it, it's right on the square.

We've a stock of shoes, that is stylish and neat.
They always wear well, we can fit any feet.

We have suits for the ladies and suits for the men.
And socks that will look well and you won't have to mend.
Come in and look them over, I'm sure you will find them.

DIVORCE LIBEL IS FILED AGAINST
LOWELL MAN

A divorce libel has been filed in the superior court at Taunton by Emilia Jourdain against Louis Jourdain of Lowell. Mrs. Jourdain set forth that they were married in Nov., 1891, at Taftville, Conn., and resided together in North Adams. She alleges that her husband deserted her Feb. 7, 1896. She also asks permission to resume the maiden name of Emilia Lavale.

POSTAL SAVINGS BANK SUCCESS
IN LOWELL

In a report recently issued by the postoffice department showing that the deposits in the Postal Savings banks in this country now total $104,200,000 Lowell is mentioned as one of the industrial centres which show large deposits. Other cities in line with Lowell are Passaic, Paterson, Rochester, Baltimore, Bayonne, Springfield, Manchester, Providence, Buffalo, Newark, Cleveland, Chicago, Philadelphia and New York.

This, according to the economists and labor leaders, reflects the prosperous condition of the wage earning class despite the high cost of living. In view of the fact that the majority of the 850,000 depositors, according to the report, are enrolled in the wage earning class and deposits have increased by leaps and bounds in industrial centres throughout the country during the last few months it is evident that the laboring class is now enjoying an unprecedented era of prosperity.

During the last four months the deposits in the Postal Savings banks have increased over $17,000,000 and the increase for the month of October alone aggregated $4,700,000 with the deposits in the mill centres showing the largest increase. The increases for the last quarter almost equal the increases for the year ending June 30, 1916.

ANOTHER BIG BRITISH HOSPITAL STEAMER
SUNK; ALL SAVED

LONDON, Nov. 24, 1 p. m.—The British hospital ship Braemar Castle of 6280 tons gross, bound from Saloniki to Malta with wounded, has been mined or torpedoed in the Aegean sea. It was officially announced today. All on board were saved.

The disaster occurred in the Mykonos channel, the announcement states. Mykonos is an island in the Aegean sea, about 100 miles from Piraeus, the port of Athens. A comparatively narrow passage separates Mykonos from the island of Tino to the northwest.

BRITANNIC NOT TORPEDOED

LONDON, Nov. 24.—A virtual disavowal that a German submarine had anything to do with the sinking of the British hospital ship Britannic in the Aegean sea is contained in a wireless despatch received today from Berlin, which reads as follows:

"According to the reports so far at my in this direction the large number hand the Britannic was proceeding from England to Saloniki. For a four of persons on board was extraordinarily striking and justifies a strong suspicion of the misuse of a hospital ship for transport purposes.

"Inasmuch as the ship bore the distinguishing marks of a hospital ship in accordance with regulations, there naturally can be no question of a German submarine in connection with the sinking."

WAS TORPEDOED

LONDON, Nov. 24.—A Reuter despatch from Athens says the Braemar Castle was torpedoed.

WAS FOUND NOT GUILTY

Hercule A. Toupin of this city, who was charged with illegally keeping liquor at his premises in Cheever street, was tried before a jury at the criminal session of the superior court in East Cambridge yesterday and found not guilty.

The case was tried before Judge Enright in the Lowell police court about two months ago, and at that time Toupin was found guilty and fined $100 and ordered to serve three months in jail. An appeal was taken with the result that in the higher court Toupin was discharged. Frederick W. Mansfield, candidate for governor at the recent state election, appeared for the defendant. After disposing of this case the criminal session of the superior court adjourned until next January.

COMMAND OF FORCES

TAKES CHARGE IN SECTION FORMERLY COMMANDED BY THE NEW EMPEROR CHARLES

BERLIN, Nov. 23, via wireless to the Associated Press, via Sayville.—Archduke Joseph, holding the rank of colonel general in the Austrian army, has assumed command of the section of the eastern battle front formerly commanded by the new Emperor Charles. Joseph is called the "Hungarian archduke," having chosen Hungary as his residence. Heretofore he has commanded an army corps with success.

Archduke Joseph should not be confused with Archduke Joseph Ferdinand, who formerly commanded an army in Volhynia.

STURMER OUT; TREPOFF
NEW RUSSIAN PREMIER

LONDON, Nov. 24.—Alexander Trepoft, Russian minister of railways, has been appointed premier, according to a Reuter despatch from Petrograd.

The retiring premier, M. Sturmer by an imperial ukase, has been appointed grand chamberlain of the imperial court, retaining his functions as a member of the council of the empire. Petrograd newspapers say that the appointment of M. Trepoft as premier implies the necessity that the government make a communication to parliament explaining the impending problems connected with the work of the government.

R.R. NEED $1,250,000,000
FOR DEVELOPMENT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Railroads will need $1,250,000,000 additional capital annually for the next 10 or 12 years to increase their facilities to handle the country's growing commerce. Alfred P. Thom, counsel for the railway executives advisory committee told the congressional railroad investigating committee today, continuing his statement on behalf of the railroads begun yesterday. About $350,000,000 a year additional will be required, he said, to refund maturing indebtedness.

To attract investors, Mr. Thom suggested that federal regulation should replace the present system of authority divided between the states and the central government.

Referring to the need of additional railroad facilities, Mr. Thom said:

"It has been found that the wealth of the country has been increasing at the rate of 8 or 9 per cent a year and the same rate of increase has held good as to demand for transportation. As the forces which have affected the growth and development of the past apparently still continue in full operation and may reasonably be expected to continue for the next 10 or 15 years at least, the investment in railroad facilities to meet the larger requirements of the future must consequently grow at a corresponding annual rate of increase." The estimate of $1,250,000,000 for additional transportation facilities includes nothing for extensions into new territory, he added.

"Where is this money or any sum approximating it to come from?" asked Mr. Thom. "This problem is of vital interest to the public because on its successful solution depends the commercial facilities of the country. Would it do to confront the investor, when asking for this great investment, with a situation where revenues of the railroads are not subject to the control of the investors, but are fixed and limited not only by governmental authority, but by many unco-ordinated state authorities in no way responsible to each other and where the railroads cannot control and the government cannot and does not limit the expense account?"

Mr. Thom referred to the recent case in which the New York central, which has not over 20 miles of line in Illinois, was taxed $600,000 by the state of Illinois as a condition of the consent of that state to the issue of certain securities. He asked why the states of New York, Ohio, and the others, through which the road runs could not with as much reason exercise the same right.

"If they did," he continued, "commerce as a whole would be most onerously burdened. If they did not, then their own commerce must help to bear the burden of this tax placed upon the road by the state of Illinois, contrary to their views of the justice of such a tax."

"As another illustration of the conflict of state action, the New York, New Haven & Hartford in the summer of 1913 arranged for the sale of $7,000,000 of convertible bonds. The states of Rhode Island and Connecticut gave their approval, but the approval of Massachusetts could not be obtained. The result was that the issue failed and the consequent inability of the road to furnish the proposed new facilities in the way of new equipment and enlarged terminals is largely responsible for the great congestion of business and interruption of commerce throughout the whole of New England and surrounding regions."

Mr. Thom devoted most of his time to a discussion of state and federal regulation of interstate carriers and said the railroads now asked that the power over interstate commerce be put in federal hands to protect and not to invade the rights of the states.

"We do not ask," he concluded, "that you disregard states' rights but that you enforce states' rights."

He will continue his argument when the committee meets again tomorrow.

SAYS HE KILLED
JUDGE IN SELF DEFENSE

HUNTSVILLE, Ala., Nov. 24.—David D. Overton, former clerk of the Madison county circuit court, took the stand today at his trial for the murder of Judge W. T. Lawler, his political opponent, and testified that he killed the jurist in self-defense. Lawler's body was found in the river last June and until Overton spoke today the manner of his death was unknown.

FUNERAL OF EDWARD A. BARNES TOOK PLACE THIS AFTERNOON—SERVICES AT CENTRAL M. E.

Accompanied by full military honors by General Adelbert camp, U.S.W.V., the funeral of Edward A. (Ted) Barnes, a veteran of the Spanish war, was held this afternoon. Services took place from his late home at 172 Andover street and were conducted by Rev. William F. English, pastor of the Central M. E. church. Escorted by members of Adelbert Ames camp, Spanish war veterans, the cortege proceeded to the Central M. E. church in John street which was filled with sorrowing relatives and friends. Here prayer was also offered by Rev. Mr. English and there were selections by the church quartet. The bearers were Comrades Gen. Gardner W. Pearson, Major Colby T. Kittredge, John H. Kellogg, W. H. Chandler, Carl E. Phil and William M. Prescott. The ushers were Comrades Frank A. Boyle, James F. Crowley and Victor I. Turnquist. Honorary Member Arthur F. Salmon had charge of the ushers. The services were under the direction of Commander Alexander D. Mitchell.

Burial was in the Edison cemetery, where military services were held. Those who lead the services were Commander Mitchell, Chaplain F. A. Boyle, Past Commanders Frank Dodge, James N. Greig and Officer of the Day James F. Crowley. The firing squad was from Company C, Sixth regiment, under command of Lieut. Charles J. Duffy, the only member of the company who served in 1898. The other organizations represented were Lowell aerie, No. 223, Fraternal Order of Eagles; Wameest Lodge, No. 25, Knights of Pythias; Highland council No. 370, Royal Arcanum, and Columbia council, No. 33, United Order of American Mechanics. The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful. George W. Healey was the undertaker.

TO PER CENT INCREASE
PITTSFIELD, Nov. 24.—Wage increases of 10 per cent have been announced at Taconic, Pontiac, Russels, Tillotson and Berkshire woolen mills in this city, the Sawyer-Regan mill in Dalton and the Hingsdale woolen mill at Hinsdale. About 2500 employees are affected by the increases. During the year the wage increases have totalled 25 per cent, for general mill help and 35 per cent for mill laborers.

WOMAN'S PLACE NOT IN STATE OR MUNICIPAL HOME IN WAR TIME REGULATION OF WAGES

3219,000 EMPLOYED OUTSIDE THEIR OWN HOMES IN BRITISH ISLES

LONDON, Nov. 24.—The saying that woman's place is in the home has little application in war time. There are now in the British isles 3,219,000 women employed outside their own homes. It is generally recognized that their rally to work "in the national interest" is going to make it difficult for parliament to refuse the demand for suffrage which will be renewed when hostilities end.

During the first two years of war the increase of women workers exclusive of purely feminine occupations was $66,000. Of these 75,000, however, more than three-quarters of a million women left their homes to release that number of men for military service. In most instances the women went into the munition plants, where a considerable number of them have given up their lives in "doing their bit."

There seems to be no limit to the class of work women can do. At first it seemed strange to see girl conductors on the buses, girl window-cleaners, van drivers and messengers. But as the war progressed the field broadened and now even in building, mining and quarrying scores of women are employed. The metal trades also have claimed their share of the new industrial army. It must be understood that this is not an army in skirts. As a matter of fact skirts are worn for the most part only in those occupations which are exclusively feminine, such as the tailoring and dressmaking trades. In most of the factories and shops, the breweries and the railway yards, jumpers and regulation overalls are the approved costume. The bus and tram conductors, or "conductresses," are jaunty in neat blue tunics and skirts which just below the knees—low enough to overlap close fitting black leather puttees. There is seldom a glimpse of stocking. The bus companies issued an order recently that no silk hosiery should be worn.

It is stated that probably 100,000 of the women "war workers" have been recruited from those formerly engaged in purely feminine occupations—domestics, dressmakers, milliners, etc. The servant problem is becoming more and more acute, for the demand for munition workers is increasing day by day, and the wages offered are far beyond the dreams of avarice to a majority of the English domestics.

The number of women employed in railway work has increased more than 200 per cent. Ordinarily the only railway posts open to women were clerical and carriage-cleaning tasks. Now there are women ticket collectors, porters, engine cleaners and workshop laborers. In Glasgow and some other cities women are being tried out as tram drivers or motor-women.

Interesting statistics regarding woman's part in war work have been collected by the employment bureau of the board of trade. The number of women recruited to industrial occupations between July, 1914, and July, 1916, was 362,000. Of this number, 263,000 directly replaced men in commercial occupations, the increase in the number of women workers was 198,000, while the number of women replacing men in this class was 201,000. This apparent discrepancy is accounted for by the transfer of women from the feminine side to the male side of the establishments. The increase in women clerks amounts to only 45,000, all of whom, however, have replaced men.

The increase of woman workers in hotels and places of entertainment is only 19,000, yet the number of men replaced in these establishments is 31,000, many of the old female employees now doing the work of men.

There has been much more discussion lately as to whether the city woman is a success on the farm and the point is far from being settled. Nevertheless, 56,000 more women are working steadily at agriculture today than in July, 1914. In 1914 there were only 2,000 women employed in government arsenals and dockyards. Now there are over 10,000. The English breweries formerly employed 3000 women. Now they have 18,000. And so it goes through all the industries. As a whole the industrial post-war problems are going to offer much food for reflection, and, to be amicably solved, will require an intelligent skill of direction and "square dealing" equal to the best thought and energy put forward in the war itself.

BOSTON CARMEN IN HOT FIGHT FOR OFFICE

BOSTON, Nov. 24.—Charges of discrimination and steam roller tactics were hurled at the meeting of the Boston Street Carmen's union at 724 Washington street, last evening, when a number of aspirants for some of the 100 offices found that success was not so easily won as they had hoped. The meeting was for the purpose of passing in nomination officers for the annual primary and election.

During the discussion, telegrams were despatched to William H. McLean of Detroit, president of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees of America, urging him to come on to Boston at once, or in the event of his inability to leave Detroit at this time, to forward instructions relative to the legality of a ruling of the international that "candidates for office must be in good standing for at least two successive years prior to being placed on the nomination list."

The putting into practice of this rule and the removal of the name of certain candidates declared not eligible under this law of the international led to the above charges and excitement. In consequence, the holding of the scheduled primary next Monday and the annual election Monday, Dec. 4, may be postponed to a later date. The meeting was still in session at a late hour last night and the officers of the union were unable to give out the names of the candidates for the principal offices.

FIREMAN HURLED FROM ENGINE
BOSTON, Nov. 24.—A $10 fine in less than 10 minutes last night, caused by a certain blowing in the breeze, came near costing the life of John E. Foley of Engine 3, Bristol street and Harrison avenue. Foley is in a serious condition at the City hospital.

The fireman was thrown from the engine as it turned Waltham street into Tremont. He continued his way to the fire only to fall unconscious upon his back to the engine house.

D. F. WILCOX DISCUSSES PLAN FOR PAYMENT OF PUBLIC UTILITY EMPLOYEES

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Nov. 24.—State or municipal regulation of wages, hours and conditions of employment of public utility employees, was discussed in a report presented today to the National Municipal League convention.

by Delos F. Wilcox, chairman of the committee on franchisees, who was for several years chief of the bureau of franchises of the New York state public service commission for the first district.

The interest of the public in the continuity of operation of public utilities is sufficient, says the report, to warrant the employment of legal measures to prevent strikes, especially on street railway and telephone systems. But the committee recognizes that the right to strike cannot be taken away from such employees, until the public in some way guarantees that the employees' interests as to wages, hours of labor and conditions of work will be conserved.

Discussing the right of corporations to earn a fair return, the committee points out that in most cases, public utility services are worth more than the consumers have to pay for them, and that the public might well afford to pay higher rates, if revenues at existing rates were insufficient to afford the employee a living wage and the corporation a living income.

The committee was in favor of inserting certain general clauses in franchise grants, not determining specific schedules of wages and hours, but establishing a definite method for the settlement of labor disputes as they may arise.

The report continues:

"The committee does not favor the principle of fixing wages and hours of labor in specific cases by legislative action without investigation. Legislative action, like franchise contracts, should

Besides Dr. Wilcox, the signers of the report are Prof. William M. Lelerson, head of the public service bureau of Toledo university; Robert Treat Paine, of Boston; Dr. Horatio M. Pollock, of Albany; Charles Richardson, of Philadelphia; and Clinton Rogers Woodruff, also of Philadelphia, who for more than twenty years has been secretary of the National Municipal League.

PRES. WILSON ILL

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—President Wilson cancelled several engagements yesterday and spent the afternoon and evening in his bedroom because of a slight cold caught several days ago. Senator-elect Gerry of Rhode Island was among the dozen who were to have seen him.

WOMAN BURNED TO DEATH

YORK VILLAGE, Me., Nov. 24.—Mrs. Carrie Whitten, 42, who was horribly burned yesterday at her home near Elder Hill, died two hours later in the York hospital. Mrs. Whitten ran from her chamber to answer a telephone call, her dress caught in an oil stove, and in a few seconds her body was wrapped in flames.

Unable to free herself from the blazing heater she dragged it down the full length of stairs and fell at the bottom with the stove on her body. Bradford Kimball, a small boy who was in the house at the time, ran to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. David Young, who hurried back and found the charred body of the woman and the house afire. They battled with the flames and finally got the body into the yard. Mr. and Mrs. Young were both severely burned.

SAYS WOMEN INSULTED IN RECENT CAMPAIGN

MRS. LAIDLAW SAYS CANDIDATES
"DUCKED" ISSUE WHEN EAST OF
MISSISSIPPI

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 24.—To the women of the east who are working for equal suffrage a "certain sense of insult" was brought out in the recent political campaigns, Mrs. James Lees Laidlaw said last night, speaking here at an open meeting in connection with the annual convention of the New York state woman suffrage party. Presidential candidates were guilty of "careful, geographical distribution of their utterances," Mrs. Laidlaw asserted, as they favored woman suffrage when on woman suffrage soil but maintained silence when campaigning east of the Mississippi.

"Republican and democratic political organizations in many unfranchised states have endeavored practically to repudiate the national platform," the speaker said. "The most cavalier way they have adopted state platforms, after the national conventions, with utter disregard for the pro-suffrage principles announced in the national platforms of their own party."

"When it has come to the declaration of their woman suffrage convictions presidential candidates have shown a discrimination unparalleled in their treatment of their utterances of campaign principles. East of the Mississippi they were smitten with a strange forgetfulness not to say outwittedness of their utterances on this question. In view of their blank silence on suffrage questions in our eastern states the whole-hearted enthusiasm of the utterances which burst spontaneously from their lips as soon as they set foot on truly free American soil of woman suffrage states is one of the most picturesque phenomena in our political history."

"Naturally this brought a glow of pride and a sense of dignified responsibility to the hearts of the enfranchised women to feel that their prospective national executives were so quickly responsive to the interests of womanhood, childhood and the home, that big business of the United States. But how could any unfranchised American woman with a drop of red blood in her veins, with an atom of self-respect, fail to realize the humiliation of such a position. The women of the east simply do not count, they are not a consideration, they are practically negligible."

Mrs. Laidlaw asserted that the suffrage cause has become so strong however, that "never again in the history of our country will any national party meet in convention without endorsing it and that never again would it be possible for a presidential candidate to omit speaking of it 'in terms of noble conviction.' She said that with 'the political power that women now have, the political recognition that voting has brought of necessity gained, the New York state campaign can move forward with a greater certainty of success than ever before."

Ruddy Checks—Sparkling Eyes—
Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known
Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, you will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-go feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

COST OF SOMME DRIVE IN MEN ENORMOUS

We may say, then, that the Somme offensive, now in its fourth month, is being pressed with greater vigor and more success than in the period following the first days. This is in strong contrast to the Verdun operation of the Germans, which never showed any great driving power after the first great rush in the last week of February.

As it stands, the Somme drive has resulted in a gain of twice as much ground and the capture of twice as many prisoners and more than twice as many guns (200, to quote official figures) as the Verdun attack, while it is still to run some weeks before it equals the Lorraine contest in time.

In the past month many assertions, patently extravagant, have been put forth on both sides to prove the cost of the Somme battle. The Germans allege that the cost to the allies has been a round million. French and British figures claim a total German loss of around 600,000, including nearly 100,000 prisoners. Now we know that the French concede a loss of 250,000 at Verdun, while the Germans admit a casualty list a little larger, and about half that mentioned in French official estimates of German loss at Verdun. Finally the British officially admit a loss in three months of fighting, mainly at the Somme, of above 500,000.

If the French and German losses were equal at Verdun, then there is no reason why, in a similar operation on the Somme, there should be any striking difference between the cost of attack and defense. But there is no escape from the conclusion, the Germans have underestimated their Verdun losses, and neutral observers agree that the total Teutonic casualties at Verdun were not less than 800,000 or at a ratio of two to one, compared with the French.

Accepting this estimate as a basis of computation, it is reasonable to conclude that the Germans have not lost more than half as many men as the allies at the Somme. An the British have lost 300,000 on their own statement in three months, they will hardly have lost less than 400,000 at the end of this month. The French loss has been very much smaller, probably not more than 100,000. As against this the German loss has been, at the very least, 250,000. If the capture of Germans continues at its present rate to the end of the month, there will be a total bag of above 80,000, or more than twice as many as the Germans took at Verdun. Conceivably, therefore, the German loss at the end of the month will be around 500,000, as contrasted with a British loss of 400,000 and a French loss of more than 100,000.

Now, putting the Somme and the Verdun figures together, it will be seen that in the west the Germans have lost in the two chief engagements between 750,000 and 800,000 men, the British have lost 400,000, and the French between 250,000 and 400,000. But the noteworthy thing is that while the total losses on either side have been approximately equal, which might be expected, the whole loss on one side has been borne by the Germans, while it has been about equally divided on the other. And allowing for German losses in the east, where the fighting has been very severe, it is hard to see how the total losses of Germany in the present year can be figured at less than 1,000,000.

If you say that while the British have been losing 400,000 men, the French 400,000 men, the Russians something less than 400,000—that is, the Russian armies fighting Germans—the Germans have alone lost a million, you will say what the allied critics are saying, when they talk about the effect of a war of attrition upon Germany.

Now, turning to Austria, we have Russian official statements to prove that 420,000 prisoners, almost all Austrian, have been taken in the east, while the Italians announce 30,000 prisoners since they began their Goria drive, all of them Austrian; and even the Rumanians count 15,000 prisoners, chiefly Austrian. We may say that Austria has lost 350,000 men by capture, her Trentino and Gorizia defeats cost her at least another 100,000, and her casualties, due to death and wounds in Galicia and Volhynia, must have amounted to 500,000. In sum Austria must have lost not less than 750,000 men since Jan. 1. As against this stands the German statement that Russia has lost 1,000,000 in her offensive since June 1. As we set down 400,000 to the German score, we may put the remaining 600,000 against the Austrian. Italian losses in the same time must have been at least 150,000. The losses of Austria in battle with the Italians and Russians was thus 750,000, and the losses of the Russians and Italians combined equally large, but divided between two nations.

Now if you look at the population of Russia, France, Britain, and Italy on the one hand, and of Germany and Austria on the other, you can easily discover why the loss of 1,750,000 to the latter alliance is more serious than the loss of a large number divided as we have divided it—400,000 British, 400,000 French, 1,000,000 Russian, and 150,000 Italian—is to the opposing alliance. And the Austro-German alliance has suffered a greater permanent loss because of its casualties nearly one-third, 500,000, to be exact, have been in prisoners, while the allied loss in prisoners has not been more than a quarter as large, including the first Verdun bag.

TAFT TALKS ON PREPAREDNESS

BOSTON, Nov. 24.—Former President Taft last evening delivered his lecture on "Our World Relations," before a gathering of people at the Central Congregational church, Newtonville, under the auspices of the Newtonville Women's Guild.

Mr. Taft advocated preparedness for war and preparedness for the industrial strife that is certain, he said, to follow the end of the present war.

INCREASE IN WAGES IN THE LOWELL MILLS

The cotton mills of Lowell will grant a general increase in wages to all their operatives, the increase to take effect from Dec. 4. This announcement came yesterday afternoon from officials of the local mills. The amount of the increase has not yet been decided, but it will be understood, however, that it will be in keeping with the ten per cent increase granted in other mill cities. Notices announcing the increase have been posted in all of the mills. The seven large corporations affected by the increase are as follows: Appleton Co., Boot Mills, Hamilton Mfg. Co., Lawrence Mfg. Co., Massachusetts Cotton Mills, Merrimack Mfg. Co. and Tremont & Suffolk mills. In the above mentioned mills, workers of the factory were posted yesterday afternoon. The United States Worsted Co. at the Merrimack and Appleton plants also posted notices of an increase yesterday afternoon, while today similar notices were posted in the plant of the Lowell Bleachery Co.

It is believed that the amount of money to be paid will range from a few cents to about $1.00 a week extra, and this will bring Lowell's yearly payroll including all classes of industry up to about $35,000,000. It is stated that other local mills which have not yet granted an increase are contemplating a similar advance in wages.

INCREASE IN NEW HAMPSHIRE
MANCHESTER, N. H., Nov. 24.—The International Cotton Mills company announced an increase in the wages of its operatives.

The wooden cloth mill of M. T. Stevens & Sons in Franklin, employing 300 men, announced a similar advance. The company has other plants in New-Rhine, Mass., and North Andover, Mass.

$800 GIVEN INCREASE
WESTER, Nov. 24.—More than 800 operatives employed in the East, North and South Village mills of the S. Sater & Sons, Inc., the Dudley plant of the Chaseville wooden mill, and the Dudley plant of the Stephens and works, yesterday were informed that on and after Monday, Dec. 4, their wages will be increased 10 per cent. The local plants manufacture wooden, cotton, combine and iron goods. The high cost of living is shown in the recent rise in the price of food.

AMOSKEAG CO. RAISES WAGES
MANCHESTER, N. H., Nov. 24.—The Amoskeag Manufacturing company, whose cotton plant, employing 1,000, is said to be the largest in the world, last night announced a raise in wages "substantially" the same in amount as given in other textile cities in New England, to take effect on Dec. 4.

This is the third increase granted by the Amoskeag company in the calendar year.

BILL FOR MOBILIZATION OF LABOR IN GERMANY

AUXILIARY SERVICE BILL SUB-PASSES ALL WAR MEASURES, SAYS VON LOEBELL

LONDON, Nov. 24.—The German auxiliary service bill is considered by Secretary of the Interior von Loebell as surpassing in importance all previous war measures, according to an Amsterdam dispatch to Reuters' deploring the debate on the bill before the main committee of the Reichstag.

Secretary von Loebell opened the debate on the bill, which provides for the services of all men from 17 to 65. He said that besides the millions whom it would render liable to service, the bill would also call upon others to be called upon for other services in this war which "is not only a war of armies but a war of political economy, a war of nations." Explaining that the object of the bill was the mobilization of labor, the minister declared that instead of the lack of employment which prevailed at the beginning of the war, there was now a positive lack of labor, especially in the manufacture of munitions and war material of all kinds. He said the bill is intended to assure the sustenance of the laboring population and that compulsion would only be used as a last resort and was not needed for women. "The bill must prove to the whole world," he said, "Germany's determination to fight with all her forces to the uttermost." Gen. Groener pointed out that the exertions of the British minister of munitions necessitated a considerable increase in the manufacture of munitions in Germany. He explained that the bill proposed to add to the army all men liable for service who had hitherto been regarded as indispensable at home.

LOWELL MEN MADE HIT IN ORIGINAL PLAY

An event of importance to local theatregoers took place in Boston last Wednesday when Claude (Zeke) Lohman and John Y. Myers were given their professional try-out at the Puritan theatre. Friends of both have been urging them for some time to get up an original act, and the result is the western spectacular playlet, "Cowboy and Indian Chief," written by the local baseball hero, who takes the part of the cowboy in the production.

A group of Lowell friends were in the audience at the Puritan on Wednesday when the act was given its first try-out by a booking agency and they were very pleased at the enthusiastic reception it received. Present indications are that local friends of Messrs. Lohman and Myers will be able to enjoy the act on the Keith circuit early in the present season.

Freed from Worms

Familiar signs of worms in children are, Peranged stomach, swollen upper lip, sour stomach, offensive breath, and full belly with occasional griping pains and worms about the navel, pale face of leaden tint, eyes heavy and dull, twitching eyelids, itching of the nose, itching of the rectum, short dry cough, grinding of the teeth, little red points sticking out on tongue, starting, during sleep, slow movements, if your child shows any of these symptoms, start using Dr. Tru's Worm Expeller, at once.

FURTHER EXAMINATION OF EXEMPTED MEN

THOSE MUSTERED OUT IN FRANCE AS UNFIT WILL BE EXAMINED AGAIN

PARIS, Nov. 24.—The minister of war has introduced a bill in the chamber of deputies by which all persons exempted from military service or mustered out as physically unfit, prior to April 1, 1915, must submit to a further medical examination. During the first period of the war the main object in recruiting was not to overcrowd the depots and consequently only the strongest men were taken. The minister believes that of several hundred thousand men thus exempted an appreciable number will be found, on a less perfunctory medical examination, to be capable of enrollment for non-combatant services at least. Certain defects hitherto considered inhibitive are not incompatible with service in the artillery or even the fighting rank.

BRITANNIC SUNK BY MINE
NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—The officers of the White Star Line have been advised by the British admiralty that the Britannic was sunk by a mine.

The officials of the line here stated yesterday that the following message had been received from the head office in London:

"Regret exceedingly to inform you Britannic sunk by mine Aegean Sea. Loss of life not exceeding 50."

A later message stated that the captain, all the officers and the engineers were safe, but that there were 21 dead. The officials said that the information contained in these messages came from the British admiralty.

CRUSHING DEFEAT FOR VILLA AT CHIHUAHUA

EL PASO, Tex., Nov. 24.—Francisco Villa withdrew his surviving forces in defeat from Chihuahua City at 6:30 o'clock last night after a battle of seven hours, during which he made fruitless attempts to carry Gen. Treviño's protection works by assault, according to reports from Juarez.

This report was received from Chihuahua by Carranza officials in Juarez last night, who added that government troops were actively pursuing the retreating bandits. The telegraph operator in Chihuahua said that the firing could still be heard clearly, but was becoming more distant. A small party of bandits engaged in a skirmish with a Carranza outpost near Chihuahua Wednesday evening, according to reports of officials, who added that the military authorities there were undecided at that time as to whether it was only a re-

ing band or an advance part of Villa's column.

Made Three Attacks

Three times Villa attacked the first line trenches which defend the city, and each time he was repulsed, leaving his dead and wounded on the plains outside the city to the south, reports to military headquarters received by Carranza officials here from the besieged city said.

At 11 o'clock a. m. today (mountain time) the high crowned hats of the bandits were seen to the south, along the Mexican Central main line, according to these messages. The battle was opened a few minutes later with salvoes from cannon on Santa Rosa hill, the key to the state capital. The first and second line trenches, protected by barbed wire entanglements, took up the fighting and by noon a general engagement was in progress along the entire southern line, which continued the entire afternoon. At that time the booming of large calibre guns on Santa Rosa hill and other artillery stationed along the first line trenches was so deafening that it was almost impossible to hear the click of the telegraph instruments, the military operator in Chihuahua City told the military operator in Juarez.

Villa Had 3500 Men

At 2 o'clock the battle was still raging, the apparent advantage being with the government forces. Villa is reported by Gen. Gonzalez to have at least 3500 men, nearly all of whom are armed and mounted. He is also believed to have machine guns, but no heavy artillery. Over this reason the 20 or more heavy field guns of Gen. Treviño's command were able to make the advancing lines of Villa bandits, the message from the state capital said.

The field was covered with dead and dying men, one message said. A sortie by Carranza cavalry, supported by artillery, resulted in the capture of many Villa prisoners who were without ammunition and had gone since morning without food or water, another message declared.

The only cause of worry to Carranza officials is the fact that Gen. Treviño's ammunition supply for small arms and machine guns is limited. All the available ammunition has been sent from here and it is reported that a request has been made to American officials to permit ammunition to be sent through the El Paso-Juarez port for Gen. Treviño's forces.

Villa Leads Troops

Villa in person was leading his forces against the Carranza troops, according to reports received at the Juarez military headquarters from Chihuahua City.

Do you want a clear skin?

If your skin is not fresh, smooth and glowing, or has suffered from an unwise use of cosmetics, here is an easy, inexpensive way to clear it.

Spread on a little Resinol Ointment, letting it remain for ten minutes. Then wash off with Resinol Soap and hot water. Finish with a dash of clear, cold water to close the pores. Do this regularly, once a day, and see if it does not quickly soothe and cleanse the pores, lessen the tendency to pimples, and leave the complexion clear, fresh and velvety.

Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment are sold by all druggists. For samples of each, free, write to Dept. S.R., Resinol, Baltimore, Md.

FAREWELL WORDS OF AUSTRIAN EMPEROR

LONDON, Nov. 24.—A special edition of the Wiener Zeitung has published the following farewell words of Emperor Francis Joseph to his people and the army and navy, according to a Vienna despatch to Reuters by way of Amsterdam:

"To my beloved peoples I express my heartfelt thanks for their loyalty toward me and my house, in happy days as well as in times of distress. The consciousness of this attachment has done me good and strengthened me in fulfilling my imperial duties. May they continue to observe the same patriotic feelings toward my successor."

"My army and navy I remember with feelings of deepest thanks for their bravery, loyalty and devotion. Their victories gave me joyful pride and their unmerited mishaps painful sorrow. The excellent spirit which at all times has animated my army and fleet and both my landwehrs gives me confidence that my successor can also count on them not less than I did."

EMPEROR CHARLES SENDS IMPERIAL RESCRIPT TO PREMIER

LONDON, Nov. 24.—Emperor Charles of Austria has addressed the following rescript to Premier Koerber, according to a Vienna despatch to Reuters by way of Amsterdam, quoting the Wiener Zeitung:

"Dear Dr. von Koerber: Bearing in mind my constitutional duty to take the oath and exercise the executive powers of government, according to article VIII of the constitution of Sept. 29, 1867, I await from you proposals tending to the fulfillment of this situation."

"Dated Vienna, Nov. 23, 1916. 'Charles.'"

EMPEROR CHARLES CONFIRMS PREMIER AND HUNGARIAN MINISTERS

LONDON, Nov. 24.—Emperor Charles of Austria has sent an autograph letter to Premier Tisza of Hungary, confirming him and the Hungarian ministers in their posts, according to a Budapest despatch to Reuters by way of Amsterdam.

Army headquarters from Chihuahua City given out by Carranza officers. The banit leader was said to be riding horseback with his crutch strapped to his saddle. He was said by the de facto authorities to have approximately 3500 men in his main column. As he is reported to have more than 1000 troops under his command, the remainder of the bandits are believed to be advancing to reinforce their chief. It was learned from Chihuahua City late yesterday that Gen. Murguia, who is advancing north from the Jimenez region, was still in the vicinity of Santa Rosa with his main column of several thousand men.

In addition to the heavy artillery bombardment the rain of shell fire was said to be constant.

The only cause of the local government officers have is that Gen. Treviño's ammunition will not last until Gen. Murguia arrives from the south with his relieving division. There is said to be a plentiful supply of artillery ammunition but a shortage of rifle and machine gun cartridges, due to the embargo at El Paso, which has never been lifted.

PAWN BROKERS FINED FOR VIOLATION

LAWRENCE, Nov. 24.—Joseph O. Gagnon, proprietor of the Lowell Loan company and Charles Daggett, employed as a clerk at the pawnshop, were convicted in district court yesterday morning before Associate Justice F. N. Chandler for a violation of the city ordinance, to wit, purchasing second hand articles from minors. Fines of $20 each were imposed on the defendants but they appealed and were ordered to furnish $100 bonds for their appearance in superior court. The conviction of the pawn brokers was brought about through the arrest of Edward Boubin, aged 15 years, on an idle and disorderly charge. Boubin was sent to the Concord Reformatory, but sentence was suspended for three months pending his good behavior.

Boubin was arrested yesterday by Inspector Morrissey who observed the youth at the Lowell Loan company endeavoring to dispose of a watch. He claimed Inspector Morrissey alleged that he had observed Boubin loitering about the pawn shop district and said he apparently did little or no work for the past several months. An investigation of the records of the pawn shop showed that Boubin had disposed of watches, rings, field glasses, a manure set, safety razor and violin to Gagnon and Daggett on different occasions covering a period of time from September until the present month. In two specific instances the commonwealth showed that both defendants had bargained or exchanged articles with Boubin, a minor, in violation of the city ordinance. Boubin disposed of the articles under the name of "E. Marsden." It was stated.

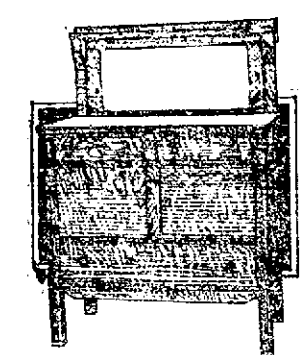

Both defendants admitted having dealings with the youth but both claimed he told them he was 22 years old. Boubin claimed to have purchased the articles which he disposed of at the pawn shop from various sources. Atty. Monette appeared for Gagnon and Daggett.

MRS. DELARONDE OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Delaronde of 128 Lilley avenue are today observing the 25th anniversary of their marriage and many friends and relatives called during the day to offer their congratulations and best wishes.

Mr. Delaronde was born at Malone, N. Y., April 22, 1871, and after receiving his education at the Franklin academy in his home city he came to Lowell.

On Nov. 21, 1887, he was united in marriage to Miss Annetta Delaronde, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Delaronde, formerly of this city, and now of St. Marc des Carrières, Que., the ceremony being performed at St. Joseph's church, this city, by Rev. Antoine Angier, O.M.I.

His children were born to the couple, four of whom are living. Bourree A., a graduate of the high school and Lowell New England Conservatory of Music; Ruth B., a captain in the girls' regiment at the high school; Gertrude and Doris.

Mr. Delaronde was elected a member of the municipal council in 1915 from ward six and served one year. He has under the old form of government. He is holding the position of buyer in the white and wash goods department of the A. G. Pollard Co., store, having been in the employ of the company for the past 21 years, at which time he has been at the head of a department. Mr. Delaronde is a prominent member of Club Lafayette, former president of the A. G. Pollard Co. Employees' Savings and Loan association, as well as a director of the Modern Investment Co.

Mrs. Delaronde was born at St. Albans, Que., now St. Marc des Carrières, Nov. 26, 1874. For a number of years she conducted a variety store in Moody street and recently she opened a dry goods and haberdashery store in 128 Lilley avenue. The couple own a handsome home at 128 Lilley avenue as well as a fine summer home at Willowdale. Mr. Delaronde is a connoisseur of wide reputation and for a number of years he was connected with the Sixth Regiment band, being house secretary and treasurer of the Lowell Musical association. The couple are held in the highest esteem by their large number of acquaintances, who wish them many more happy anniversaries.

EVELYN'S BIRTHDAY
Over 20 young people gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Kennedy, 475 Lawrence street, last yesterday afternoon to offer their congratulations and best wishes to their daughter, Miss Evelyn Kennedy, who was observing her eighth birthday anniversary. The young people enjoyed themselves in their heart's content from 5 until 8 o'clock, during which time a very appetizing and well prepared luncheon was served.

Shortly after their arrival at the Kennedy home the boys and girls showered their little best-wishes with numerous gifts, among which was a gold pocket and chain, donated by the parents, the presentation address being read by little Miss Anna Bowers Games. were played and a literary and musical program was given, these taking part being Alice and Francis Horne, Dorothy Kennedy, Marion McElhenny, Anna Bowers, Dorothy Kennedy and others. The accompanist for the evening was William Horne. At 8 o'clock the party broke up and all present extended their best wishes to little Miss Evelyn Kennedy, and their thanks to her parents for their cordial hospitality.

Director of Food Bureau Says Free Lunch Article Is Made from Skimmed Milk
NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—Schools have been told to stop serving "saloon cheese" as a purely descriptive title, but is the trade name for a grade of cheese made out of skimmed milk and sold only to schools for free lunch count. It contains little or no butter fat, which is the nutritious element of milk and other kinds of cheese, according to the testimony of Dr. William H. Hallowell, director of the bureau of laboratories of the city health department, testified that by the use of pasteurized milk bovine tuberculosis in children under three years old has virtually been eradicated in the last four years, and that the typhoid rate has dropped faster in New York city than in any other part of the country.

WHAT HORTENSE TOLD ME

High pillows and double chins go hand in hand, says Hortense. Use a very flat pillow if you have to have any. The following exercise, if persisted in, will banish a double chin and strengthen the muscles of the neck. Three or four times a day drop your chin on one shoulder and turn your head until it touches the other shoulder; letting it rest on the upper part of the chest all the way.

At night, after you have washed your neck with warm water and soap and applied a good massage cream, place your fingers behind your ears and draw them down to the base of your neck, repeating ten times. Then, with a rotary motion, work over the entire portion of flesh from your ears to the hollow of your throat. If you do this regularly and wear a chin strap at night, you will soon get very satisfactory results.

The best remedy for brittle nails is oil and plenty of it, says Hortense. Soak the finger tips for five or ten minutes every night in warmed sweet almond oil.

When the surface of the nail shows ridges and there is a general appearance of coarseness, apply grease about the edges whenever possible. Cleanse the nails with grease instead of using soap or nail brush. It will produce a satin like appearance and the tinge of pink that is so desirable.

Many women use cold cream about their nails, but vasoline is better. After soaking the finger tips in the almond oil, take a cotton stick and rub the cuticle with vasoline. The superfluous grease must be removed with a piece of cambric or absorbent cotton.

Hortense advises, when bathing the face, to treat yourself to a little gentle massage. Dip your hands in the water and rub the cheeks with the flattened palms, being careful to give an upward pressure and to be very light with the downward strokes.

Place the thumbs under the chin and from out toward the ears with the bended first fingers. Clasp the back of the neck with both hands so that the fingers touch in front. Never dry the face with a rough towel, but use soft linen if possible. The soap must be carefully removed with clear water. Always, after using soap and water on the face, anoint with orange flower skin food, which will do wonders toward keeping the touch of youth in your cheeks.

A few drops of plain lemon juice is an excellent and economical tooth wash, as it not only removes the tartar but sweetens the breath, says Hortense. We all know that lemon rind is a skin whitener and bleacher, but few know that a splendid manicure acid may be made by adding a teaspoon of lemon juice to a cup of warm water. This loosens stains from the nails and loosens the cuticle more satisfactorily than instruments.

For scrawny, wrinkled hands, try massaging with olive oil. Warm half a cup of pure oil in an enameled dish and set it in a larger one of hot water. Wash your hands in soap and water, then soak in clear water for twenty minutes. Then put the hands nearly dry, drop a little of the warm oil into one hand and massage the other. Alternate until the hands refuse to absorb any more. Wipe them dry with a soft cloth, but do not wash them.

Now that the slouch fashion of standing and walking has gone, Hortense hopes never to return, correct that faulty pose and regain a healthful pose by remembering the following under all circumstances.

When leaning forward in a sitting position, the action should be from the hips and not from the waist. When sitting, the body should recline backward in such a position that the chest is kept open and broad.

Women should learn to stand with equally balanced hips. Pointed toes and high heels should not be used when walking any distance. The experts say that coats should not be made so high in the neck that the head is pushed forward.

To get rid of blackheads, says Hortense, scrub and steam the face thoroughly, as the little black pitheads are nothing more than dirt imbedded in the pores of the skin. The practice of pressing them out between the finger nails is very harmful. Where cases are extremely obstinate, after steaming the face, it should be anointed with cold cream and so remain for at least fifteen minutes before scrubbing. This will help much to soften the particles, as some of the little black spots seem almost rooted. After they are out, an astringent lotion should be used to contract the pores.

When a woman has taken means to reduce her weight and finds that her skin is left flabby by the following hardening pomade may be used and should be put to use cold water after bath whenever she bathes the flabby parts. The pomade should be applied after a massage. Oil of sweet almonds six ounces, white wax three ounces, tincture of benzoin one and a half ounces, rosewater four ounces, and pulverized tannin six drams.

For chapped lips, so prevalent this winter, the following is said by Hortense to be good and perfectly harmless: Spermaceti three ounces, white wax four ounces, oil of almonds eight ounces, camphor four ounces, oil of eucalyptus forty drops, oil of lemon three drams.

Many women, while they do not need glasses, do not take proper care of the eyes after they have been strained from long reading or after a shopping trip filled with the excitement of goods in the shops. It is well, after getting home, if your eyes burn, to bathe with a lotion made as follows, says Hortense: Boric acid one ounce, boiling water one pint. Put the boric acid in a basin and pour on the hot water and allow to dissolve before bottling.

There is no better way to remove a foreign substance from the eye than to make this same mixture, spread it on a cloth and lay it over the eye. For inflamed eyes the white of an egg beaten to a froth is soothing.

The most intelligent people and the most beautiful are those who see things and get all possible pleasure out of them. An exhibition of indifference to things about you is not an evidence of intelligence. Intelligent people are those whose eyes are open and that is the way to become intelligent. Such people, also, are the most interesting, sometimes so much so, that even though they lack physical beauty, that is forgotten in admiration for their intellect.

The victim of indifference victimizes all about her. Her friends may look upon her and admire her beauty, but if she is decidedly uninteresting, even a little of her society is generally an overdose.

A double chin is not a pretty feature. To help reduce it, Hortense says to practise the following exercises: Stand erect in military position, placing the hands lightly on the hips, fingers forward. Drop the chin slowly on the collarbone, then throw the head back with a quick, even movement that is not a jerk but yet puts all the muscles into quick play. Repeat ten times.

Turn the head quickly to the right until the chin is just over the right shoulder, then turn it back again. Repeat ten times, then turn the head to the left and repeat. Do not tire the muscles of the neck, but gradually increase the number of movements daily until you can do it fifty times without after discomfort. Daily massage will help, too. From the point of the chin with the open hand, press backward at the same time. Rub the chin and throat frequently with cold water.

For the woman over forty who wishes to retain her beauty of face and form, Hortense advises that she avoid eating too much. Cut down on meat particularly. A certain amount of tissue building food is necessary to repair and replace worn-out tissues, but one can get along with less than most of us think. Here is a good diet given me by Hortense for just such women.

For breakfast a large dish of oatmeal with milk and sugar, a glass of milk and two slices of bread and butter. If coffee is taken, and it can be, eat three slices of toast and butter. For luncheon take toast, fresh fruit, and a glass of milk. For dinner a soup, meat of any kind in moderation, three vegetables of any kind, a dish of prunes, two slices of bread and butter, and a glass of milk. Prunes should be eaten at least three times a week.

When the skin is very dry and cracks and peels, Hortense says to stop using soap and water for awhile. The dryness may result from a natural insufficiency of fat secretions or from using unsuitable soaps. Cleanse the face for awhile with sweet oil or almond oil. Any excess oil may be wiped off with a piece of soft linen.

Steaming the face is the best way to remove blackheads, as it opens the pores widely and the pests can then be pressed out easily. After removing massage well with a cleansing cream and finish with a grease cream. Either lemon juice or a little vinegar are good astringents to close the pores again.

J. ALLAN DUNN HAS JACK LONDON'S LAST LETTER

PITTSFIELD, Nov. 24.—J. Allan Dunn, the short story writer, who is living at "Homeland," in Lanesboro, received a letter from Jack London Wednesday, probably the last that the author wrote before his death, in which London told of plans to visit Mr. Dunn for Thanksgiving in the Berkshires.

Dunn and Jack London were intimate friends. "I never heard London speak harshly of anybody," said Mr. Dunn. "While on the other hand he was helpful to thousands. I have lost one of my best and dearest friends."

MOTHER NOT TOLD OF DEATH. GLEN ELLEN, Cal., Nov. 24.—Mrs. Flora London, mother of Jack London, is seriously ill at her home in Oakland, Cal., and has not yet been told of her son's death.

Messages of condolence reached the widow yesterday from noted writers and intimates of the author from all sections of the country.

PRINTS STORY "ROOSEVELT HAS STARTED REVOLUTION AGAINST PRESIDENT WILSON"

EL PASO, Texas, Nov. 24.—Roosevelt has started a revolution against President Wilson, according to a despatch printed in El Pasador, the leading newspaper of Chihuahua City, which,

however, qualified the report by printing a question mark in the heading.

The despatch, which appears in the issue of the 22d of this month, is placed under a Mexico City date. It reads as follows:

"Alarming rumors have been circulating in this city which say that Col. Theodore Roosevelt heads a revolution that has broken out in several states of the American Union, with the object of overthrowing President Wilson who, Roosevelt claims, authorized various electoral frauds in order to triumph in the past election.

"High officials in this city and some of the diplomats state with confidence that this rumor is a canard of the American yellow press, which is hostile to Wilson. The American ambassador already has telegraphed to Washington in order to inform himself as to the truth of the report."

KILLED BY DEER'S ATTACK.

LEWISTON, Me., Nov. 24.—John F. Stanley, superintendent of the fish hatchery, at Auburn, died yesterday from the effects of injuries received when he was attacked by a buck deer which he had cared for during the past four years. He was born at Dixfield 78 years ago. He had been in charge of the hatchery about 20 years.

FORMER QUEEN OF HAWAII IS CRITICALLY ILL

HONOLULU, November—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.) The condition of Liliuokalani, the 78-year-old former queen of Hawaii, continues to cause her friends grave concern. The illness began with a cold some time ago, and she has been weakened so by its attacks that her attendants fear she may never fully recover. Though now seen occasionally in her carriage, she is easily exhausted and often falls to sleep along the drive.

Possessed of no more annual sovereignty now than the poorest Hawaiian stewardess, she is still accorded all the deference of royalty. On state occasions at her own home she is accompanied by ladies in waiting who wave peacock fans over her, while kahili-bearers stand motionless at her side holding the royal kahili—four-topped standards. No person is permitted to pass behind "her Majesty" nor must the shadow of any human being fall upon her.

In the years immediately following the overthrow of her monarchy, Queen Liliuokalani struggled bitterly against the fate that had befallen her. Her attitude toward Americans was hostile. But age has healed these wounds and today her constant advice to her people is that they be loyal to the country that has adopted them.

The former queen has in recent years occupied herself largely with literary labors. She is the author of both the words and music of "Aloha Oe," the Hawaiian song that is now well known in the United States. She wrote it as a farewell tribute to her brother, King Kalahele, and it is a matter of grief to her that the song is being snatched and played irreverently as dance music on the mainland. Most recently Liliuokalani has been assisting the Rev. Henry Parker, a native minister, in compiling a dictionary of the Hawaiian language, for which an appropriation was made by the territorial legislature. They already have collected about 15,000 words, several thousand of which Liliuokalani has defined in English and Hawaiian, with all the finer shades of meaning and accentuation. The difficulty of the work is that many Hawaiian words have a dozen different meanings, dependent upon their juxtaposition to other words and upon gestures and inflections.

1500 BOTTLES OF WINE POURED INTO GROUND

LONDON, November—The action of Rosalind, Countess of Carlisle, in pouring away into the ground about 1500 bottles of wine, as evidence of her strong temperance views, has aroused a storm of criticism in letters to the newspapers. The countess is president of the British Women's Temperance association. She has been a lifelong total abstainer and temperance advocate.

The wine was of old vintage and was stored in the cellars of Castle Howard, the Yorkshire estate, she owned. She inherited the stock, but is said to have kept the cellars sealed for the last 30 years. A few days ago the wine cellars were opened, a large hole was dug near the countess' mansion and the caretaker poured the contents of the bottles into it. The countess has been criticized on the ground that while it is consistent with her principles, this wine would be very acceptable in military hospitals for the use of convalescing soldiers.

ORDER OF MOOSE

Lowell Lodge Conducts Annual Concert and Dancing Party in Associate Hall—Fine Entertainment

Lowell Lodge, 618, Order of Moose, conducted its annual concert and dancing party in Associate hall last evening and in spite of the inclement weather there was a large attendance of members and friends of the lodge. The entertainment consisted of "A Night at the Club" presented by the 29th Century Bachelor club. The program was rendered in a pleasing style and the various contributors were obliged to give many encores. Charles D. Slattery was director of the entertainment and performed in his usual efficient manner.

The program was as follows: Opening chorus, company; "The Long, Long Trail," Thomas Delmore; "See Dixie First," Richard Donohue; "Time Will Tell," John Davlin; "Turn Back the Tides and Give Me Yesterday," Frank Connor; "Just One Day," James Roane; "Can't You Hear Me Calling, Caroline," Andrew McCarthy; "Oh, How She Could Yaek! Haek! Wick! Waek! Woe!" Walter Davis; "Answer," John Dalton; "Goodbye, Bachelor Days," John Gleason; Musical director, George Smith. General dancing was enjoyed during the latter part of the evening, with the following officers in charge: General manager, Edward St. Leary; assistant general manager, William Riley; floor director, George A. Terrell; assistant floor director, John H. MacCallum; chief of the popular line, Gordon; side, David Harmon; Ernest Parsons; Walter T. Powers; Walter Bailey; secretary, Harry N. Norris; treasurer, John M. Hogan.

BACHELOR GIRLS

A pretty dancing party was conducted in Lincoln hall last evening by the Bachelor Girls' popular line organization. Music for a well arranged dance order was furnished by Miners-Davis's orchestra. The officers in charge were as follows: General manager, Miss Mary T. Gallagher; assistant general manager, Miss Mollie Peterson; chief aid, Miss Anna Nicholson; floor director, Miss Isabelle Purdy; assistant floor director, Miss Rose Nicholson; aids, Misses Julia Bolan, Madeline Bolan, Mary Griffin, Mae King, Mae Flynn, Mae Melloy, Margaret Tobin and Genevieve Winn. The club officers are: President, Mary T. Gallagher; vice president, Julia Bolan; secretary, Mae King; treasurer, Rose Nicholson.

DISCOVERS NEW COMET

BOSTON, Nov. 21—The discovery of a new comet by the Rev. J. H. Metcalf of Winchester was announced by the Harvard college observatory yesterday. The minister-astronomer now has four new comets to his credit, a record equaled by few, it is said.

The comet, so faint that it was discovered only by photography, was first seen by Mr. Metcalf on Nov. 21. In its official report on the discovery, the observatory stated it was made on "Nov. 21, 1916, the epoch mean time, right ascension, 22 hours, 28 minutes, 45 seconds; declination, plus 18 degrees, 32 minutes, 50 seconds." The daily motion was stated as 115 minutes of time, west; 5.4 minutes arc, south.

SIR HIRAM MAXIM THE INVENTOR IS DEAD

LONDON, Nov. 24.—Sir Hiram Maxim, inventor of the automatic system of firearms, died at his home here early today.

Born in America

Sir Hiram Stevens Maxim, American-born, was one of the most famous inventors, civil, mechanical and electrical engineers of Great Britain. He was most widely known as the inventor of the Maxim machine gun, which makes the recoil of the weapon serve as the power for reloading, and which is the weapon largely used in the European war today.

He was born in Sangerville, Me., February 5, 1840, the son of Isaac Weston and Harriet M. Maxim, and received only a common school education, but he acquired scientific knowledge by reading and attending lectures. He went to England in 1861, and had resided there ever since. He was knighted by Queen Victoria in 1901.

His son, Hiram Percy Maxim, is a well known inventor in the United States, known particularly as the inventor of the Maxim silencer.

For many years Sir Hiram was a director in the firm of Vickers Sons and Maxim, but resigned that post in 1911. For more than thirty years he experimented in aeronautics and invented flying machines. In the light of the present war, with its numerous German airship raids on England, it is remarkably interesting to recall that eight years ago, Sir Hiram took the British nation to task for its small interest in aeronautics, and pointed then, at a time when aeroplanes were in their infancy, that England was in grave danger of bombardment by airships.

"Does any one doubt for a moment," said he, "that in case we find ourselves at war with a continental power, airships will be used for bombarding English towns, both on the coast and inland? The city of London within a year's time can be attacked without our enemy needing to fear the boasted British fleet."

Following the success of the Wright biplane, Sir Hiram renewed his long continued interest in aviation and in 1910 perfected a machine which he declared had certain advantages over the Wright's. It was he who, with others, interested the British government in beginning its organization of an aerial navy, and though he was then 70 years old, he lived to see the great war bring

WORRY IS A DISEASE

The disorder which causes its victims to worry whether they have anything to worry about or not is neurasthenia.

Neurasthenia is entirely distinct from hysteria although the patient may have both diseases at the same time.

Neurasthenia often results from some nervous shock, such as the loss of a near relative, business reverses, or some severe overstrain on the nervous system. The patient is usually pale, showing that the blood is thin, and the first thing to do is to build up the blood because anything that builds up the general health helps to correct the neurasthenic condition. Rest and a good tonic is the very best treatment in most cases.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are an ideal tonic for this condition because they are non-alcoholic and neurasthenic patients should avoid alcoholic stimulants.

The Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y., has published a little book on nervous disorders, in which a chapter on neurasthenia, in which the symptoms are fully described and the correct treatment given. The booklet is free on request.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by your own druggist or will be sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50.

air fighting to pass in even greater measure, probably, than he himself had dreamed.

In addition to his gun and aeroplane, he patented many electrical inventions, including incandescent lamps, self-regulating current machines, several pieces of ordnance and a smokeless powder.

The aged inventor took a keen interest in the war, and from time to time there were unconfirmed reports of his invention of devices to meet the needs of the war, one of them being an apparatus to counteract the effects of the poisonous gases which the Germans were first to bring into use. In 1915 he was appointed a member of the inventions board of the British munitions department under Lloyd George.

Sir Hiram applied himself so strenuously to science throughout his long life that even his recreations were given by him as "reading scientific books and studying the abstract sciences." He wrote many important articles and an autobiography, "My Life," in 1913.

He was a chevalier of the Legion of Honor, a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers, the Royal Society of Arts, the British Association for the Advancement of Science and numerous other scientific bodies.

COST OF LIVING IN 1853

Beef Sold for Four Cents a Pound and Calico Brought a Shilling—Tea Was $1 a Pound

My memory of an old charcoal iron furnace on Bullion Run, Venango county, operated as early as the spring of 1853 by a Pittsburgh manufacturer, says Percy F. Smith, in the Pittsburgh Dispatch, is freshened by a glance into the pages of the old "day book," which recorded the original entries at the furnace store, some 62 years ago. Few people, indeed, knew of the existence of this furnace, as it was in such a remote part of the way place, but it was reached by boats on the Allegheny river to Scrubgrass and by drive via Butler, Parkers Landin, etc. It was a small furnace, but here the pig metal industry was carried on in its most primitive way, by water power.

I append some of the entries in the "day book," or day book, kept at the furnace store, which will be appreciated the more as the prices are contrasted with present cost of high living, or high cost of present living.

Tea sold at $1 a pound; iron, six and a half cents; coffee, 16 cents; plug tobacco, six and a quarter cents; calico, 12 1/2 cents.

Just here let me explain that the one-fourth and one-half cent meant something then, because the "penny bit," a silver coin, was worth six and one-fourth cents, while the "copper" was rated at 12 1/2 cents. Afterward, the five and 10-cent coins took their places.

Cordwood sold for 45 cents per cord; sugar, 10 cents; 22 1/2 pounds sold leather brought $5.62 1/2; beef, four cents per pound; flour, four cents per pound; coal, 14 cents per bushel. Labor was paid 50 cents a day and upward and board, although some entries show $2 per day for labor—likely skilled. Bacon brought 12 1/2 cents.

About one-half of the extras in each account was for tobacco, but there is not a single entry for alcoholic beverages.

Payment was made in various ways, very little actual money changing hands, and still business in the way of bank checks. For instance, there are credits for 2000 feet of boards, $15; 12 cords of wood, $5.40. For coffee and a shawl, charged at $5, payment was made by one hog weighing, when dressed, 125 pounds, at five cents per pound.

THANK U. S. CONSUL

LONDON, November.—The lord mayor's fund at its last meeting passed a vote of thanks to Willoughby Smith, the United States consul at Tiflis, for the great work he did in helping them, and other kindred organizations, to alleviate the distress of the Armenian refugees.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

"The Girl From Out Yonder," that brilliant play which is the offering of the Emerson Players at the Opera House this week, will be given its final performances this afternoon and tonight.

DON'T SUFFER WITH NEURALGIA

Musterole Gives Delicious Comfort

When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on the temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister.

Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bitten feet—colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable.

and tomorrow afternoon and night and record breaking crowds will witness the play.

Miss Ann O'Day is scoring a big hit as Florentine, while Ivan Miller is also making himself even more popular by his splendid work. Rose Morrison, Jas. Galloway, Gertrude Shirley, Millard Vincent, David Baker, Ernest Kead, Frank Wright and other members of the company handle their characters in a finished manner and a superb scenic production is offered with all new and special effects.

A splendid program of vaudeville and picture features will be offered at the Opera House Sunday afternoon, and evening, one of the headliners being Kendall Weston and company in the sketch entitled "The Eagle's Screen." Mr. Weston is certain of a great reception, as he is well known in this city, having been connected with the Playhouse and Square stock companies previous to the coming of the Emerson Players to Lowell.

His offering is said to be one of the biggest hits of the season in vaudeville. Three day slaters in a slugging offering, and Patsy Burke, the famous Irish comedian, are other acts on the bill that will go over "big." There will be two other fine acts and five reels of the newest releases in photoplay features which include both comedy and dramatic subjects. The same prices will be charged and seats for both performances can be secured now.

Next week, starting with a special bon-bon matinee on Monday, the Emerson Players will present "The Girl He Couldn't Buy," a powerful drama of New York life, written by Sumner Nichols, and which is now being played by five road companies in the larger cities at two dollar prices. And of particular interest to the theatregoers of this city is the fact that Mr. Nichols, the author of the play, has appeared in Lowell several times in productions and last season played an important part with the Emerson Players in "Wanted $22,000."

It is a play with a punch and a purpose and should prove one of the greatest hits of the season. Seats are now selling for the week.

R. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

In Morris Cronin's Merry Men, at the R. F. Keith theatre, this week, there are presented to Lowell audiences one of the most novel of comedy and juggling acts seen in this city in a long time. Opening up with weird electrical effects, there follow rapid fire handling of Indian clubs, the comedy boxing match of the two dwarfs and splendid manipulation of trick scenery. The act has many new things to offer, and is decidedly meritorious. "Fingers-Keeners," a brand new satirical sketch on the theme of honesty, is likewise something which holds attention. Exceptionally well written and acted it cannot fail to make a lasting impression. Tony Hunting and Corinne Francis in "Love's Blossoms" are likewise above the ordinary in drawing power. So good is the bill that it is hard to get one act above another, and the remaining turns are all applauded to the echo. They are "Forever and Aime" in a comedy; the "Three Kaitons, musicians; Rome & Kirby, boy dancers; Leonard Brown, Lowell singer; and the Pathe News. Good seats for the remaining performances may be obtained at the box office. Phone 28.

Going Up—

You hear that so often, you're used to it—But, here's one necessity that hasn't gone up!

Regan Melton Overcoats

Silk Lined

This is the same grade of Regan Melton we sold last year for $20—but this year's coat has a finer silk lining (and incidentally, costs US a dollar more).

Positively, they're the best overcoat values we know of. They're the firm finish cloth that wear for years. We like to sell them because we know every man who buys one will be pleased with the coat and grateful to us for selling it to him.

Other quality Regan Meltons at $15 and $17.50.

The new "Trench" model young men's overcoat is here in blue and gray at $20.

Other snappy models in young men's overcoats at $15 and $17.50.

Stein-Bloch overcoats for particular men at $20 to $40.

Square theatre, so the time is limited in which to see the winsome Alice Brady in the role of the pathetic little orphan in the picture dramatization of "Bought and Paid For," the play which took Broadway by storm. As this play touches in its portrayal the depths of human emotion every one within reaching distance of this theatre should strive to take it in. The other play, "The Years of the Lustrous," with Frankie Ward is alone and recent reason for attending this theatre today or tomorrow. Miss Ward in this drama of Africa and America was a tragic part which she played in her own incomparable way. The Burton Holmes travel pictures, a comedy and other plays conclude this splendid bill at the Merrimack Square theatre.

OWL THEATRE

Mabel Talliaferro, the gifted and charming little stage star, who is now appearing exclusively in Metro pictures, will be seen at the Owl theatre today and tomorrow, in "God's Half Acre," a new and pleasing photoplay from the Metro studios. The story of this new release is one of unusual charm, teeming with many situations of both comedy and pathos. There are many thrilling moments also, and a delightful love story is unfolded in a decidedly interesting manner.

"God's Half Acre" possesses every requisite for a screen masterpiece. The star is one of the foremost of either the stage or the screen. The story is unusual and of high quality; the supporting cast is exceptionally strong; the settings are wonderful; and the director, Edward Carewe, ranks among the three best directors in the country. The story of "God's Half Acre" is laid among "Rainbow's End," a home for aged people. Miss Talliaferro, in the role of Blossom, a young servant, is called by the old folks, who fairly worship her. The Angel of "Rainbow's End," as she is forever ministering to their wants and their comforts. How Blossom becomes the principle character in a novelist's book, the writer comes into the home in search of local color, how she wins his love, after several wonderful experiences equalling those of Cinderella, and how she marries him, when certain obstacles are removed, form a very pleasing story of power and fascination.

In addition to "God's Half Acre," other high-class offerings will also be presented at the Owl theatre today and tomorrow.

JEWEL THEATRE

The management of the Jewel has arranged a corking program for the remaining two days of this week. First in line comes Helen Holmes in one of a series of five-reel railroad and out-door stories—the present release being "The Manager of the B. & A.," a stirring drama of the railroads, in which many exciting adventures and dangers are encountered by the well-known leading girl. An episode of "The Crimson Saint" Mystery which stars Maurice Costello as "The Crimson Saint," a character an exceptionally clever young woman in the person of Miss Olenova, who plays a "vampire" role with wonderful effect. Then an episode of "Liberty," starring Marie Walcamp, Eddie Polo and Jack Holt, another exciting thriller at the Mexican front, and also Bull West, called Charlie Chaplin's double who will imitate the famous comedian for two reels of uproarious fun, entitled "His Married Life," a comedy which Chaplin himself could not equal. And the regular releases will top all these special features—thus the audiences who will fill this popular house during these two days, will have their money worth fully.

ROYAL THEATRE

It is a pretty guess as to which serial of "The Yellow Menace" and "Liberty" is the better. Both widely different in theme, they are, however, agreeing on the same subject—that of preparedness. Both contain highly exciting moments, and both have well-known stars in the cast. As All Singh, the yellow demon, Edwin Stevens is really the out-standing type in the "Yellow Menace," his portrayal of the demoniacal character is one that captivates with its utter wickedness and realism. No other actor could play this part so well as it is given right now. In "Liberty" honors are divided between three great favorites, namely, Marie Walcamp, a fearless woman, whose beauty and brains are a byword in Universal City, where the serial is produced, Eddie Polo, whose feats of strength are thoroughly astounding, and Jack Holt, who makes a handsome soldier-hero. Other attractions on today and tomorrow's Royal theatre program are a "Ham and Bud" comedy, and the usual daily releases. Coming Sunday, 2nd episode of "Gloria's Romance."

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

redesigning the Academy of Music and now that they have completed their work the new management of this oldest of Lowell's playhouses announces a grand reopening on Monday evening under a new policy, as a high class picture theatre which will offer exclusively the greatest film productions ever shown in this city. Only the newest of complete photo plays will be presented and two performances will be given daily at 2 and 7:30 p. m. High class Sunday concerts will also be given. The daily programs will consist of two complete high class photo plays, while there will be a complete change of program every three days. The resident manager is Mr. Henry M. Strout, who represents some of the best known men in the film world. The Academy of Music has been leased for one year and has been renovated at great expense by the lessees which indicates their intention and financial ability to promote permanently in this city.

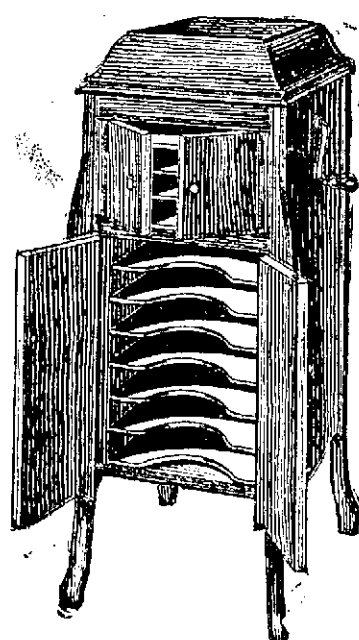

Manager Strout takes pleasure in announcing for the first three days of next week two part plays featuring

two of the most popular stars in film-dom. Viola Dana appears in "The Cuckoo Whip," a gripping story told on the screen in a faultless manner while George Pawcett will be seen in that intensely interesting story "The Country That God Forgot." Each of these productions is an entire and perfectly satisfying picture entertainment in itself for each is a complete human interest story presented by a leading dramatic star. But two complete plays at each performance, all new to Lowell at the time of their presentation is to be the policy of the Academy under the new management and the price will be but 10 and 15 cents at all times though some of the most expensive films in the world or movies will be included in its programs. Remember the opening night, next Monday night. There will be a complete change of bill on Thanksgiving Day when Edna Mayo will be seen in the "Return of Eve" and Bessie

A QUARTER CENTURY AGO

The announcement that the annual Christmas Charity show of Lowell Lodge of Elks is at hand recalls the Charity ball of years ago given by leading citizens of Lowell in aid of the Humane society. As the Elks' event is now the big charity affair of the early winter season, so was the Charity ball of long ago, and it was conducted on an elaborate scale. Huntington hall was the scene of the Charity ball. The tickets were always $2 and $3, while the boxes were auctioned to the highest bidder. The first Charity ball was held ten years ago, and the second annual ball at this time of year quarter of a century ago. Speaking of the event, the old Sun said: "The Charity ball in Huntington hall was one of the most brilliant social events held in Lowell in many years. The hall, old and dingy as it usually appears, was transformed into a veritable tower of beauty by the gorgeous decorations. The colors of the decorations were blue and white, the combination in wavy streamers, festoons and folds having a very pleasing effect. From the ceiling hung a great number of streamers, festoons of green and gold, wreaths of laurel. These wreaths were connected with a gold trimming which fell in folds below each wreath. The lower portions of the wall were almost hidden from view by pine trees and evergreens. The design in the drawing on the front of the program was similar to that on the upper walls. The proscenium was beautifully draped on the same plan, while the boxes displayed artistic adornments in the prevailing colors. The stage presented a forest scene with seats rising from front to rear, the wide aisle giving the appearance of a sylvan bower, from which the Salem Cadet band sent forth some very stirring strains during the evening. The American orchestra occupied seats in the front of the stage and furnished the music for dancing. The stage was arranged by Mr. Joseph G. Russell.

"The guests began to arrive at an early hour and the entire number present was estimated at two persons. A covered passageway was laid to the side walls and extended to the comfort of the ladies who entered in full evening dress. On either side, just upon entering the hall, the guests found a comfortable place, one for the ladies and one for the gentlemen. In the ladies' lower Russian tea was dispensed, while liquid refreshments of various kinds were provided for the gentlemen on the other side of the entrance. The floor of the hall was covered with white canvas for the convenience of the dancers. The effect of the decorations was enhanced by the glow of many tinted lights, mostly green and pink. Jackson hall, in which supper was served, was also beautifully decorated.

Will Never Be Without This Simple Laxative

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin Relieved Her Baby When Nothing Else Would.

Little Max Pendergrast is now four years old, and a fine healthy boy. When but a tiny baby, in fact almost from birth, he suffered a great deal from constipation. His mother, Mrs. Carl W. Pendergrast, Red Key, Ind., heard of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, obtained a bottle of it from the drug store, and with it was able to quickly correct this condition.

Mrs. Pendergrast says Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has saved them from calling the doctor many times, and that she will never be without a bottle of it in the house to use when needed. She found it equally effective as a laxative for herself and other members of the family.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, pleasant to the taste, mild in action and positive in effect. It does not grip or strain, and contains no opiate or narcotic drug. It is the ideal family laxative, mild and pleasant for baby, yet acting quickly on the strongest constitution.

To avoid imitations and ineffective substitutes be sure to ask for "Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin." See that a facsimile of Dr. Caldwell's signature and his portrait appear on the yellow label in which the bottle is packed. A trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. R. Caldwell, 455 Washington St., North Chicago, Illinois.

Russell and Mrs. Russell arrived, accompanied by some of the members of the governor's staff. When the governor reached the hall the ushers formed a procession and preceded him into the hall, the band playing "The Star-Spangled Banner." The ushers, Mr. A. G. Cunnock and Mrs. Russell, followed by the governor and Mrs. Cunnock. Next came Adj. Gen. Dalton and Colonel Carmichael and Cunningham, and the party proceeded to where the ladies were receiving at the upper end of the hall. Here introductions and presentations followed in quick order, one portion of the people passing in front of the governor and his party, while another section started dancing in the space left open in the center of the hall to the music of a waltz which had just been played and which the first dance of the evening was given to the music of "The Star-Spangled Banner" by Dr. F. H. Rex of this city.

From this until 2 o'clock next morning dancing was kept up with short intermissions, the parade music sounding as soon as that for each dance had ended. Refreshments were served in Jackson hall by Caterer Harry Hunt, of Boston. The costumes of the ladies were generally the richest and most beautiful worn at any event of the kind for a considerable period. Altogether, the charity ball was an unqualified success, both financially and otherwise.

Governor and Mrs. Russell were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Cunnock at their home, after the ball. The reception committee was as follows: Hon. Charles H. Dalton, John W. Stevens, Mr. Julian Talbot, Salem W. Stevens, M. Bourwell, F. W. Sweeney, N. G. Norcross, V. L. Cunnock, W. H. Bowley, H. C. Newhall, J. A. Nesmith, Dr. J. V. Meigs, W. T. White, E. Eastman, C. F. Nichols, J. F. Talbot, Capt. Harry Reade, W. R. Hall, Dr. H. E. Fell, A. L. Taylor, Dr. W. R. Harrison, J. M. Andrews, C. W. Ricketts, J. Dempsey, H. Gray, C. P. Coburn, L. T. Trull, E. B. Conant, Dr. W. T. Carolla, H. D. Kendall, Fred. P. Marble, John J. McKenna, Fred. Lawton, Hon. E. J. Hayes, Col. J. W. Bennett, A. A. Casper, H. P. Johnson, John H. Harrington, W. R. Cushman, C. E. Carter, E. W. Lawley and C. J. Eldred. Mr. Percy Parker was floor marshal.

A Charming Ladies' Night

Another charming social event of this time of year quarter of a century ago was the Ladies' night of the Catholic union, which the old Sun reported as follows:

"The celebration of Ladies' night by the Catholic union in Mechanics' hall on Wednesday evening brought together the largest assembly of its members since the annual banquet and was certainly a most enjoyable affair. The entertainment provided was original and quite unique in some of its features. Under the guise of 'Mrs. Murphy's Cook Book' a general burlesque was given by a number of the union was presented by 12 of the ladies. It dealt largely with the peculiarities of the male members and contained a lot of inoffensive jokes which produced much merriment among the persons bantered. The ladies who took part occupied seats on the stage which was made up to resemble a parlor scene, and as they delivered their lines in general they brought in allusions to the gentlemen. The program was varied with musical selections, vocal and instrumental, and recitations. The nature of the entertainment by each young lady is indicated by their names in the following list of characters:

MAKING IT PLAIN

The Pure Food and Drug Laws aim to protect the public by preventing mis-statements on the labels of preparations but some people continue to accept "extracts" of cod liver thinking they will get the benefits of an emulsion of cod liver oil.

The difference is very great. An "emulsion" contains real cod liver oil, which has had the hearty endorsement of the medical profession for many years, while an "extract" is a product which contains no oil and is highly alcoholic.

Scott's Emulsion guarantees the highest grade of real Norwegian cod liver oil, skillfully blended with glycerine and hypophosphites. Scott's is free from the false stimulation of alcohol and is endorsed by good physicians everywhere.

Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J. 16-15

acted by their names in the following list of characters:

Mrs. Grundy, who never gossips; Mrs. McLaughlin, Mrs. John D. Dwyer, a society leader; Kittie Demsey; Abigail Cornstalk from Frogtown; Annie Lee; Georgiana Biddle, an electioneer; Mary Donnelly; Angelina Windmill; Albertine Lane; Giovanniella Allgush; Mary McGovern; Nellie Spritz; a waiting maid; Mary Naven; Edith Newbird, just coming out; Minnie Delaney; Lillian Nordica; Nellie Murphy; Adeline Patti; Lilla Cook; Mandolina Pickering; Nellie Lynch; Clara Lebarge Stratton; Alice Dempsey; Bertha Rubinstein; Kittie Keyes.

The various parts were cleverly sustained and vocal solos were given by Misses Nellie Murphy and Lilla Cook; mandolin and guitar by Misses Nellie Lynch and Albertine Lane; banjo solo, Miss Alice Dempsey; piano selections, Miss Kittie Keyes, and recitations, Miss Mary Donnelly. The entertainment refreshments were served in the lower hall and then dancing was enjoyed until midnight.

The Late Maurice Johnson

Old time Acacia residents will pleasantly recall the late Maurice Johnson, who died in Lawrence a few days ago. Maurice was a clever club swing, and in days gone by with Fred L. Bourke did a club swinging act at local entertainments that would rival the best efforts of the professionals. Maurice went to Lawrence more than 10 years ago and remained there until his death, except for a brief period a few years ago when he was employed at the Merrimack hotel in this city.

BIG MILL TO BE BUILT IN LAWRENCE

LAWRENCE, Nov. 24.—It was reported on good authority that a party of wealthy and influential men will finance a large new mill to be erected in South Lawrence with Alfred Sagar, president of the Lawrence mills at the head of the plant.

Mr. Sagar has had considerable experience with the textile industry, having practically all of his life in the study of the textile industry. There are rumors in connection with his resignation as agent of the Lawrence mills which seem to indicate that the new mill will be built to compete with the Arlington.

SUCCESSFUL SALE

Properties of George W. Olney Woolen Company Sold by J. E. Conant & Co., Auctioneers, of this City

The properties of the George W. Olney Woolen company in the Cherry Valley district of Worcester were sold Wednesday afternoon by J. E. Conant & Company of this city. The sale was a success from any standpoint and very satisfactory to the owners of the company. The entire sale realized $250,000. Lot one, a large piece of the manufacturing plant, sold to E. F. Northbridge and C. A. Brown of Worcester for $100,000. The reading dwelling house properties aggregated $100,000 and an average of $100 each for the entire property. The foregoing major amount together with the lot sales total $250,000. The day proved to be an exceptionally bright, clear, and agreeable fall day. The attendance was only up to all expectation and included, besides from New York City, Providence, from about Springfield and from Worcester, from the State and from Lawrence. The sale was the very best of its kind in the city, and two hours and thirty minutes it took to sell the seven million and odd parcels of property. The salesmen were well for business conditions.

LEARNING FROM CANADA

More than 100,000 workers of the New York World have expressed their opinion in their decision to organize a strike. Several of these workers are on record as opposing arbitration, if that should be the final decision of the brotherhood. A few men, however, are in favor of arbitration, and it is to be expected that they will lead to the arbitration of disputes or to their immediate arbitration, and that public opinion will be helped in promoting peace and justice. Thus far the plan has worked well in most cases strikes have been averted.

In Canada this whole proceeding would be unlawful. By the act of the arbitration board of Canada, an arbitration is the closest approach to a true remedy for labor disputes that has yet been made. It is compulsory only for a season and in purpose and acts not upon the basis of those in controversy, but based on the public interest. If the duty cannot be adjusted by reason, the proposed strike or lockout, which then becomes lawful, has a more impressive sanction than the word of a boss who refuses to arbitrate, or of an irresponsible labor official who is in a hurry to "throw" others, regardless of public rights.

Short of compulsory arbitration, which most English speaking peoples have agreed to adopt, the Canadian arbitration is the closest approach to a true remedy for labor disputes that has yet been made. It is compulsory only for a season and in purpose and acts not upon the basis of those in controversy, but based on the public interest. If the duty cannot be adjusted by reason, the proposed strike or lockout, which then becomes lawful, has a more impressive sanction than the word of a boss who refuses to arbitrate, or of an irresponsible labor official who is in a hurry to "throw" others, regardless of public rights.

THE FRENCH MAID SAYS

WHEN YOU ARE MOVING

"Oh, dear, Marie, more trouble," exclaimed Marjorie disgustedly as she made her daily call on the French maid. "Father is talking about moving from the country and I know it means a lot of work, and I have no idea how to begin to plan a moving as I never moved."

"If you father has an idea of moving he does well to start early looking for a place," said Marie. "Moving under the best of circumstances is a thing but if you take time and get just the right home you want it makes it easier than trying to select one in a hurry. Real estate dealers nowadays expect to take the home hunter about in a motor car which is a great advantage over the old way, when the searcher had to walk many weary miles to come home many times weary and disappointed. It is unwise to decide in a hurry as the new home should be selected as a home for a long time, or should be, as frequent moving is hard on the health and nerves, to say nothing of the wear and tear on the furniture."

"There is much you can set about doing once you have decided on the new home. Plan leisurely and thoroughly and you will learn the French maid's way."

EMPRESS NOT TOLD OF WAR

AMSTERDAM, Netherlands, Nov. 24.—The Telegram's frontier correspondent writes that the Empress Charlotte, widow of Emperor Maximilian of Mexico, still resides at the castle of Pouchout, near Brussels. The castle and the park have not been touched by the Germans and soldiers are forbidden to enter the grounds. The Empress has never been informed of the war but often asks why King Albert and Queen Elizabeth do not visit her any more.

The Empress Charlotte has been suffering from insanity for many years.

STATE HOUSE, Boston, Nov. 24.— According to a statement of the new income tax department the income tax law does not impose a tax upon all income, but merely on four kinds of income. These taxes are:

"1. A six per cent. tax on the income of certain intangible personal property. By this term is meant stocks, bonds, notes, debts, savings bank deposits, other money at interest, and transferable shares in partnerships, associations and trusts. Certain of these are exempted, however, deposits of legal amount in savings banks and savings departments of trust companies; bonds of the United States, and certain of the bonds of the commonwealth of Massachusetts and its counties, cities, towns and districts; loans secured by real estate taxed in Massachusetts to the amount of its assessed value; dividends on Massachusetts corporation, national banks, and the shares of the American Telephone & Telegraph company, the New England Telephone & Telegraph company, and the Western Union Telegraph Co., and such shares in partnerships, associations and trusts, as, by agreement with the tax commissioner, pay the tax to the tax commissioner direct.

"This tax is a new form of taxation in Massachusetts. Such property has formerly been taxable at its full value, and is now taxable only upon its income. The list of intangibles so taxed is the same as was taxable under the old law, with the addition of transferable shares in partnerships, associations and trusts.

"2. A tax of one and one-half per cent. on income from an annuity. Annuities were taxable under the old law at the regular local rate. The new law reduces the rate in most cities and towns.

"3. A tax of one and one-half per cent. on the excess over $2000 income from professions, employments, trade or business. A series of deductions of business expense is allowed, to arrive at the fair net income of the taxpayer. A further deduction is allowed for those having a wife or husband or other dependents.

"Such excess of income was formerly taxable at the local rate.

"4. A tax of three per cent. on the excess of gains over losses from the purchase and sale of securities or other intangible personal property, including shares in Massachusetts corporations and other tax-exempt securities.

"This is a new form of taxation, having no parallel in the old law."

DANDRUFF FOE TO BEAUTY

There is no greater foe to beauty than dandruff, for with insufficient hair or thin hair, beauty is impossible, even though one has a most beautiful face.
Erie acid, say physicians, in its endeavor to escape from the system, is responsible for a very unpleasant and harmful form of dandruff. A careful watch has shown that many sufferers from uric acid rheumatism are troubled with the moist, greasy, flake form of dandruff which, if neglected, is fatal to the health and well-being of the hair.

In very bad cases this is yellow in hue, sticks to the hair like fish scales and leaves a red, angry skin when dissolved. To reduce uric acid a regime is necessary, depending on the individual case and prescribed by a physician.
For local treatment get rid of the scales, but do this in such a way as not to injure the delicate hair roots.

Commence by rubbing the entire scalp gently with sweet oil or vasaline, leaving a little of this on the entire scalp, or over the patches, if the dandruff forms in that way, over night.

In the morning give the head a vigorous shampoo with a pure soap and rinse very carefully, using the bar spray and first warm and then hot water.

This will invigorate the scalp and bring a new supply of blood to the surface. After the hair is dry you will find a considerable portion, if not all, of the dandruff has disappeared.

Now give the scalp a vigorous daily shampoo, using the tips of the fingers, and taking care not to scratch the scalp with the nails. For this massage keep the fingers lubricated with sweet oil or vasoline, and if the hands feel hot wet the fingers with cold water. As often as the dandruff gathers, repeat the oil treatment, followed by a sham-

Mayor O'Donnell Presents Handsome
Silk Flag in Behalf of Congressman
John Jacob Rogers

The Y.M.H.A. troop of Boy Scouts entertained a patrol of scouts from Troop 15, Chelmsford Street Baptist church, in its rooms in Central street, last evening. First Class Scout Hilton was in command of the visiting troop.
Mayor James L. O'Donnell presented to the Y.M.H.A. troop a handsome silk flag in behalf of Congressman John Jacob Rogers, who was unable to attend. His Honor made a brief address to the boys, complimenting them on their progress and thanking them for the part they took recently in civic work. Remarks were also made by Scout Executive William, Field Executive Kilduff, Scoutmaster A. S. Goldman and others.

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina, November.—A case of considerable interest to American exporting houses has cropped up here. A consignment of motor cars from an American factory arrived in Buenos Aires. The invoice price of the cars, sent to the agency in Buenos Aires, were, by the customs authorities, deemed exceedingly low. The minister of finance was induced to believe that some fraudulent intention underlay the invoice prices, which ranged $200 to $300 gold. He fixed the value of the cars, for the purpose of revenue, at from $300 to $600 gold. On behalf of his principals the local agent invited the authorities to take over the cars at the invoice prices. After much delay the minister has gone out of office without giving a decision on the point. The cars remain in store pending the decision of the new minister of finance.

LIGHT AND PROGRESS

The pennant bearing the name of "J. L. Chalifoux's" which floats in the breeze daily from the flag staff over the J. L. Chalifoux Co.'s building at the junction of Merrimack and Central streets, will be given by night if the scheme of H. L. Walker, advertising manager, goes through.
Mr. Walker has arranged to have a spot light of 250 watts placed on the building for the purpose of illuminating the pennant. If one light is not sufficient Mr. Walker says he will put more on for he states the name of the J. L. Chalifoux Co. will have to be seen day and night. The new light, which is equipped with an x-ray reflector will be given a test Saturday evening.

WILL OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY

Division 1, A.O.H., will observe its 50th anniversary in February and the committee in charge of the celebration held an important meeting last evening. John P. Sheehan of the tickets will be in circulation next week.
Other committees reported progress and the following made interesting remarks: John J. McOsker, James Ahearn, Thomas Sheedy, Michael A.
Conley, James E. Burns and James A.
Sheehan. The next meeting will be held next Tuesday evening.

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

Considerable important business was transacted at last evening's meeting of Lowell council, Knights of Columbus. A committee of five was appointed to make arrangements for a ladies' night to be held soon. Thomas J. Fitzgerald was elected treasurer of the council to succeed James Brown.
The year 1917 was in order. This being accomplished, the election of officers will follow three weeks later, on Wednesday evening, Dec. 13. Under good of the order, remarks were made by Commander Fitzgerald, Dickey, Flinders and others. Remembrance election occurred on Wednesday evening, Dec. 13.

OVERCOATS!

They say that peace with "Turkey" will be declared after Dinner-Thanksgiving. On the questions of War, Politics and Light or Dark Meat preference we're Neutral, but when it comes to the question of Overcoats we SHINE—with as big a variety as you'll find in a 10 course Thanksgiving dinner from soup—to turkey—to nuts.

The reasons why so many Lowell men are getting their Thanksgiving Togs at the P&Q Shop, are first and foremost:—

Style NEW $25 STYLES WHEN THEY'RE NEW Quality $25 QUALITY FOR $15

NO WONDER SO MANY P&Q CUSTOMERS SEND THEIR FRIENDS TO US

There's not a garment on our racks that isn't the very latest model. For instance last Saturday's rush pretty near cleaned us out in Overcoats, but by Tuesday the Big P&Q Tailoring Plant in New York had shipped us a big supply of NEW Broadway Styles—bigger and better than ever. Just received by express yesterday.

Such woolen mills as GILBERT, SAWYER, ASSABET, LEBANON and 6 others, known the world over for their superior overcoatings are ALL represented at the P&Q Shop. You won't find these fabrics made up into Overcoats elsewhere for less than $25.
Out of a score of "pace-making" styles we illustrate a few above. Inside the shop you'll find more galore, just as far advanced in style as these—and they're all $15.

Well Known Lowell Man Gives A Glowing Testimonial For Plant Juice

When the stomach performs its functions so perfectly that the possessor forgets that he has one, good health, physical powers and buoyant spirits prevail. The stomach in civilized people of today, however, is degenerated. It lacks tone and strength,

E. A. DEMMONS

gradually brought about by a sedentary existence. Too much food and too little exercise have forced them stomach into a half sick condition.
It becomes weak and does not protect itself, and the bars are down for the entrance of disease in many forms.

Plant Juice, the new herbal stomach remedy, is a purifying and a vitalizing agent. It corrects local disorders of the stomach, which is being demonstrated daily, and verified by well known people of this city who have been restored to health, in signed testimonials.

For instance, Mr. E. A. Demmons, who lives at No. 25 Rogers street, Lowell, Mass., and has many friends in this city, recently stated:

"I have been troubled for years with my stomach; my food soured in my stomach and caused gas to form; I was afraid to sit down to the table to eat anything, as I had such pain afterwards. I could not eat meat nor vegetables and had to exist on the lightest kind of diet. I had very severe headaches, was dizzy, and my head would seem to be in a constant whirl, so I could scarcely see anything. I could not sleep at night and felt all played out in the morning and had no ambition to do my work. I was so constipated that I had to take pills all the time and never got any permanent relief; my kidneys troubled me and I had terrible pains all through my back and in my side. I had tried so many medicines I was fairly disgusted, but when I heard so much about Plant Juice I thought I might try one more, although I had little faith in it helping me. After taking it for several weeks, I can truthfully say that the results were truly remarkable. My appetite is so good that I can eat anything I want and do not suffer afterward; I sleep well and am not dizzy or nervous; it has toned up my entire system and put my kidneys in the condition I am glad to give this endorsement for Plant Juice and hope others who suffer with stomach trouble will try it.
The Plant Juice Man is at Dow's,
The Druggist's, in Merrimack Square, where he is daily meeting the local public and distributing and explaining the merits of this remedy. On Saturday he will remain at the store until 10 p. m. to meet those who are unable to call during the day.

STOLEN JEWELS WORTH $60,000 RECOVERED

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—A $40,000 ruby which was part of the jewelry stolen from Mrs. E. H. Harriman, was sold to an optician for $650, according to police statements made today, narrating the circumstances of its recovery. The ruby passed through several hands and was to have been sold to a Fifth avenue jeweler, who notified the police of his prospective purchase, and this clue led to the speedy solution of the disappearance of the Harriman valuables.

Arthur P. Daggett, 42 years old, of Larchmont, N. Y., and Orville Daggett, 48, brothers, are under arrest in the case, charged with grand larceny. The former was custodian of a trust company's deposit vault in which Mrs. Harriman placed her jewels for safe keeping. The older brother has confessed that he was given the ruby by Arthur Daggett last July, according to the police.

The police said further they learned that Arthur Daggett notified the trust company superintendent on the day before Mrs. Harriman reported her loss, that there was something wrong with the vault and the superintendent upon examination found the door open.

Nearly all the missing jewelry, valued at more than $60,000, has been recovered and the police say the rest has been located.

ganization, its method and policy, Mrs. Morey said:

"I would like to impress upon you two or three facts which we ask you to consider before you make up your mind how you will cast your vote on this measure. First—that your vote affects not only the women of your own constituency, and the women of the state of Massachusetts, but the women of the entire nation, and that the women of the western states, who have political power, will watch the vote of the eastern men on this measure, knowing that their own congressmen will support the measure, and if the party's record is unsatisfactory, it is the result of the vote by members of congress in the states where women are still unfranchised.

"You are helping make the record of your party on this question, which will be taken into the women in the next congressional election, and that record will help decide whether or not the leader of your party will have a democratic majority in the national congress during the last two years of his administration.

"We lay these facts before you for your consideration in an absolutely non-partisan spirit, friendly and hopeful in every degree.

Woman from Kansas

Miss McGaw said: "I am from Kansas. I am a full voting citizen of that state. My work has called me to Massachusetts. I feel that this state offers greater opportunities for the things I want than my own state, and I have come here to earn my living, but by coming here I have lost my citizenship, through no fault of my own whatever, and I protest against such unjust interstate discrimination. Since my work is here, I feel justified in calling upon the congressmen of Massachusetts to protect my rights as a citizen of the United States. I have never given this matter much serious consideration. Since I have been in I have voted simply as a matter of course, just as my brother voted. I never realized that if I crossed an imaginary state line my political rights would be taken away from me—that my political rights are not safeguarded by the national government. The plea of the unfranchised women of the east to the women of the west who have votes and power, to use that power against the party that has refused to further the national enfranchisement of women, made a tremendous impression on me, as it did upon thousands of other women of that state. I was convinced that there was no higher use to which I could put my ballot than to aid in securing political liberty for all American women. As a member of that party and one who is vitally interested in its success, you should see that your party does not bear on the reactionary reputation that it now has in the west.

Widespread Demand

Miss Morey said: "Since there is such an urgent and widespread demand for an amendment to the United States constitution which will enfranchise the women of the east and secure nationally the political rights of the women of the west who are already enfranchised in their own states, we feel that it is the plain duty of congress to pass such an amendment on for the consideration of the legislatures to the states.

"I am urging you to work and vote for this measure because you are a member of the party in control of the coming session of congress. This party has lost control of the house, and will have a very short time to enact legislation with which to plea for a restoration of that power two years from now. We feel sure that had the democratic party realized that there was a demand for a national amendment they would have put their party machinery back of it and secured its passage in the last session of congress. We therefore went to the west to demonstrate that there was a demand for a national suffrage amendment and to put the record of the democratic party before the voting women.

"Secondly I urge you to do your part in furthering the passage of our amendment because as a Massachusetts woman I have had to move my residence to Kansas in order to become a citizen of my own country, and express my opinion as to who shall be our president, and that you shall use your power to make it possible for me to return to my native state without being disfranchised, which can be made possible only by the passage of an amendment to the United States constitution which will forbid such interstate discrimination."

MR. ROGER'S REPLY

Mr. Rogers replied to the deputations that he would vote for the Susan B. Anthony amendment and would do all he could to help its passage. He said that as chairman of the resolutions committee of the republican state convention he had made every possible effort to secure the endorsement of the national suffrage amendment and regretted greatly that he had been unable to do so.

U. S. TO BREAK IF GERMAN PLEDGES ARE BROKEN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Revival of sensational rumors of renewal of ruthless submarine warfare by Germany and consequent action by the United States, were met today by the statement of officials here that the situation, while delicate, was absolutely unchanged and would be until the United States had gathered all the evidence on recent attacks.

The state department still is awaiting the result of investigation and meanwhile officials reiterate that the position of the United States as laid down in the last correspondence with Germany is unchanged.

It made clear that a severance of diplomatic relations would follow any violation of the pledges from Berlin.

$60,000 LOSS CAUSED BY FIRE IN BOSTON

BOSTON, Nov. 24.—Fire in the Badger building, at Albany, Plympton and Wareham streets, in the South End districts, gave the firemen a two hours' fight early today and damaged the three upper floors of the brick structure to an extent estimated at $60,000. Nearby factories and lumber yards were endangered. The principal losses were sustained by the Gordon Supply Co., the Dickerman and Moreland Co., paper box manufacturers, and the American Shoe Finding Co.

GREEK ROYALIST TROOPS REFUSE TO YIELD

LONDON, Nov. 24, 1.30 p. m.—The Greek royalist troops have refused to evacuate Katerina, as demanded by the entente authorities and Gen. Sarraïl, in command of the entente forces, has warned the government at Athens that unless an order for immediate evacuation is given, he will proceed to use force, says an Exchange Telegraph Co. despatch from Athens, today.

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—Twelve persons were injured, several perhaps fatally today when the last car of a seven-car Third Avenue elevated train left the tracks and was crushed against a workman's shanty and a steel pillar at 129th street. Five of those hurt were women. The accident was attributed to a defective switch.

WANT CONGRESS TO INVESTIGATE HIGH PRICES

BALTIMORE, Nov. 24.—A prompt, rigid and full investigation by congress of the holding of foodstuffs and coal for the purpose of raising prices above the normal rate was urged in a resolution adopted today by the convention of the American Federation of Labor. It also asked for the appointment of a federal commission, which should include among its members representatives of organized labor to investigate the whole question of the high cost of living.

Hope was expressed that speedy action would be taken and that the commission's report would include a recommendation for the prosecution and severe punishment of those found guilty of inflicting upon the public an unwarranted increase in the cost of living.

The necessity of placing an embargo, as far as our international trade agreements will permit on the export of wheat and other foodstuffs until prices thereof return to the figures prevailing before the outbreak of the European war, also was urged upon President Wilson and congress by the resolution.

The department of justice was urged in an adopted resolution to immediately institute investigations, through federal grand juries in the larger cities of the United States for the purpose of obtaining evidence of alleged illegal conspiracies to compel the payment of "extortionate prices for paper used in the printing industry."

NOTHING DOING AT THE STATE ARMORY

For the first time since the return of Company M from the Mexican border, the state armory in Westford street again took on a strictly "peace" appearance today. The soldiers, who had been reporting daily for two or three weeks, now have most of their belongings and they were not seen at the armory today. Meals have been served to a few members of the company three times daily and this too was of course discontinued, when the company was mustered out.

VANGUARD OF CROWD OF 80,000 AT NEW HAVEN

RECORD ATTENDANCE EXPECTED AT YALE-HARVARD GAME TOMORROW

NEW LONDON, Conn., Nov. 24.—The Harvard football team was sent through signal drill on the baseball grounds here today in final preparation for the game with Yale at New Haven tomorrow. The players did not appear in uniform as their football suits had been sent direct to New Haven. Before the practice some of the men took walks about the city while others went to a moving picture theatre where pictures of the Harvard-Princeton game were being shown.

Coach Houghton will give the players a blackboard talk tonight and tomorrow on the trip to New Haven the individual coaches will take the opportunity to give final instruction to their charges.

The early afternoon trains brought in the vanguard of the crowd of nearly 80,000 that will witness the contest. Many of the early comers were Yale graduates here to participate in the usual "night before" festivities. Some headed for the Yale ticket office in the hope of securing additional tickets; others besieged hotel clerks for rooms. In each case they were disappointed. Tickets are scarcer than ever before and rooms at hotels were engaged months ago. So far only a few of the coveted tickets have fallen into the hands of speculators who are demanding fancy prices, ranging all the way from $15 to $50.

DIVIDEND OF $5 A SHARE

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—The Atlantic, Gulf & West Indies Steamship Lines today declared an initial dividend of $5 a share on the common stock, payable for earnings for the fiscal year ending Dec. 31. The regular quarterly dividend of $1.25 a share on preferred also was declared.

MUST CHANGE RULES

Practices of Railroads in Providing Storage of Imported Wood Pulp Ordered Discontinued

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—The interstate commerce commission decided today that the rules and practices of railroads which provide storage for imported wood pulp at Baltimore, Philadelphia and Newport News for unlimited periods and without compensation, in addition to the freight rates from these ports, must be replaced by rules allowing only such free time as may reasonably be required for unloading or removal, with reasonable charges for subsequent storage.

The American Paper and Pulp association had complained that the present rules were unduly discriminatory and subjected that association and its members to unlawful prejudice and disadvantage.

The association contended that storage of imported wood pulp free without limitation of time or quantity, other than the physical capacity of the storage facilities, enabled importers to carry large stocks without expense and gave opportunity for speculation, to the detriment of domestic manufacturers and the public generally.

Edward Brown of 13 Jewett street suffered a laceration on the forehead when he fell to the ground last evening. He was treated at the Lowell hospital.

Miss Emma J. Robarge of this city, left yesterday for Washington, D. C., where she is to spend a two or three month's vacation. She will stop with her two sisters, Mrs. Clyde Grant and Mrs. Wightman, formerly of Lowell.

Orea Fisetle, 8 years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Fisetle of 65 Woodcock street, had her leg badly scalded at her home yesterday, when a wash boiler filled with boiling water was overturned. The child was treated by the family physician.

Fourteen girls from Woolworth's 5 and 10 cent store enjoyed a delightful theatre party last evening. They occupied a box at the Opera house and witnessed the representation of "The Girl

From Our Yonder." Afterward they had supper in a downtown restaurant.

Philippe Gauthier, who was injured in a motorcycle accident in Merrimack street, is resting comfortably at the Lowell Corporation hospital. Mrs. Margaret Ready, who sustained burns in her house in Merrimack street, last week, is slightly improving at St. John's.

NEW BOSTON TUNNEL
BOSTON, Nov. 23.—The South terminal station will have subway connection with the street railway system of the Boston Elevated Railway Co. on Dec. 4, representatives of the road notified the public service commission today. The summer street tunnel, which is to extend to Dorchester, ultimately, has been completed to a point just beyond the South station. It was said.

DELIGHTFUL RECITAL BY HELEN A. OSGOOD

One of the most original, refreshing and wholly delightful recitals which the Lowell public has been privileged to enjoy for a long time was given in Colonial hall last evening by Miss Helen A. Osgood who, though but starting her career as a reader and vocalist, has already given great promise for the future. Miss Osgood divided her program about equally between dramatic and song numbers and in both proved that study has so developed her natural ability that she is now an accomplished artist.

Despite the very unfavorable weather which prevented many who had secured tickets from attending, there was a large audience, and it was as appreciative and enthusiastic as any audience that has greeted the most famous entertainers who have come here during the past few years. Miss Osgood was aided by someone Muscanto, who played the accompaniment in a finished manner and gave beautiful interpretations of Chopin's Valse, A Flat, and the Caprice Espagnol of Moszkowski.

Following was the program:
Act I—"We Are Seven".....Gates
"Un Bel Di Vedremo" (Madame Butterfly).....Gates Act IV, Scene III—"Roméo and Juliet".....Shakespeare
(a) Valse, A Flat.....Chopin
(b) Caprice Espagnol.....Moszkowski
Charmant Oiseau, La Perle Du Bresil.....David
Scene from "Romance".....Sheldon
(a) "The Lass With The Delicate Air".....Arne
(b) "Thy Beaming Eyes".....MacDowell
(c) "Will of the Wisp".....Spross
Original Monologues—
(a) "In a Restaurant".....Gates
(b) "After the Wedding" (Man's Version).....Gates

MOTHER OF FOUR CHILDREN

How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Kept Her Well and Strong.

Lincoln, Illinois.—"I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for ten years with good results and I have four healthy children. This summer I was in a very run down condition and the very hot weather seemed more than I could stand, but I commenced taking your Compound in June and from then until September 25th, when my last baby was born, I got along much better than I had before. My baby was a girl and weighed 14 pounds at birth, and I recovered very rapidly which I am sure was due to your medicine. I am well and strong now, nurse my baby and do all my work. I had the same good results with your medicine when needed before my other children came and they are all healthy. My mother has taken your medicine with equal satisfaction. She had her last child when nearly 44 years old and feels confident she never would have carried him through without your help, as her health was very poor."—Mrs. T. F. CLOYD, 1355 North Gulick Ave., Decatur, Ill.

Expectant mothers should profit by Mrs. Cloyd's experience, and trust to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Every year adds to the army of women who have profited by this advice.

She has an atmosphere of youth and buoyancy that gives distinction to everything she does, and she has not a trace of the mannerisms or affectations that young artists too often cultivate in their readings; she appears as the beautiful girl who seems to enjoy the part to a greater extent even than her audience.

The first selection on the program, "We Are Seven," by Gates, is a cleverly written sketch with the character well defined and distinct. Miss Osgood played the impulsive, modern school-girl with natural grace, and just as readily took the part of the fretful aunt of the olden time with the ideas of a dying generation. "Twice a foregone conclusion that the new girl triumphed. The scene from "Roméo and Juliet" was given with dignity, expression and a fine sense of tragedy, and the scene from "Romance" was done in an arch way that would shame many a professional.

Probably the most popular numbers on the program were the two original monologues—"In a Restaurant" and "After the Wedding" (Man's Version), which Miss Osgood has written and which demonstrates her power of analysis and unusual literary ability. Her closest friends predict that the greatest success will come along this line. Both monologues were witty and gave a fine opportunity for comedy touches that the writer-reader made the most of.

The vocal numbers were sung with great artistry. Miss Osgood having trained a naturally rich voice so as to give very exciting selections. She sang the Puccini number with great feeling and made a brilliant impression in "Charmant Oiseau, La Perle Du Bresil." The three songs in English were well suited to her voice, especially the light and airy "Will of the Wisp." There are few artists who can so readily assume the actress or the operatic role as the case may be, and the future ought to assure rare success to an accomplished, beautiful and ambitious girl.

The following served as ushers and presented Miss Osgood with the great clusters of flowers sent by admiring friends: Misses Harriette Morse, Gladys Jewett, Anna Kelley, Helen Jackson, Dorothy Hurd, Estelle Drury and Marion Lee.

MISS MAILHOT WINS POPULARITY CONTEST

The members of St. Joseph's College alumni scored another big success last evening when they conducted a whist and social for the benefit of the organization, the affair being held in the college hall in Merrimack street. Despite the inclement weather the attendance numbered over 300 and all were much pleased with the manner in which the evening's program was carried out.

Wolfgang P. Gaisler, Jr., president of the alumni, presided over the evening's program and under his direction everything went along smoothly. Several deals of whist were played and at the close of the card game, while the points were being counted by Rev. J. H. Basset, O.M.I., Arthur St. Hill and Louis St. Jean, who acted as judges, musical numbers were given by L. N. Gullbault, Alfred Renaud, Sylvio Nadeau, Misses Alice Bonin, Antoinette Alexander, Georgianna Desrosiers, Raymond Mailhot and others.

Suitable prizes were awarded the winners at whist and the popularity contest between Misses Irene Mailhot and Melvina Renaud was brought to a close, the prize being awarded Miss Mailhot. The winner of the five dollar gold piece offered to the holder of the lucky coupon was Miss Lacombe, Clifton street, South Lowell.

The committee in charge of the event consisted of J. B. Richards, chairman; E. S. Desmarais, Arthur Gaudette, E. N. Foley and A. H. Giroux.

Caustic Comment By Sunday

"God might have sent angels to preach to you, but instead he said, 'Bill, you go to Boston and tell them of the old gospel!'"

"When Jesus cut off the commissary, they passed him up."

"Don't be afraid of religious enthusiasm. Religion is suffering from the cold. The devil is stuck on stupidity and stiff unity."

"Some of you women have tongues that are long on gossip but short on religion."

"Throw in the high gear and you'll stagger the devil when you get going."

"Don't you think Jesus would stay two weeks in Boston without coming up to the tabernacle to hear me? That's what a lot of church members are doing."

"I don't polish up my sermons. I fire out the barbed wire with them."

DEMAND FOR VESSELS

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina, November.—The whittling away of the Argentine merchant marine, freighters, passenger boats and fishing fleet, continues rapidly, owing to the foreign demand for vessels. The best known of the shipping companies in the River Plate has parted with passenger and cargo steamers without, it appears, any immediate intention of replacing them. The sale of two more river boats is announced, the purchasers being European firms who have paid 100,000 pounds sterling for them. Two modern tugs have also been disposed of for 35,000 pounds the pair.

HOWARD COOPER VERY BADLY INJURED

Howard Cooper of Humphrey street, a clerk employed at the Union National bank, is at St. John's hospital with a possible fractured skull as a result of falling from a train at the Middlesex street station, about 8.30 o'clock last evening. He was reported today to be resting quite comfortably.

Just how the accident occurred is not known. The young man was found lying across the tracks by Engineer Webber just after the 8.35 train from Boston to Lowell had passed. A freight was approaching and had Cooper remained on the track a few minutes longer, he would have undoubtedly been run over. The freight was flagged until after he was removed.

As Cooper had been in Boston earlier

A delightful entertainment was given at the Centralville M. E. church last evening under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid society. The affair was largely attended and proved very enjoyable. A feature of the program was a talk by George Demers, known as "The Globe Musician," who gave a very vivid description of his hike from "Frisco" to Lowell. Mr. Demers, who is a clever magician, also entertained with sleight-of-hand feats. Other numbers included musical selections by Jackson Palmer, Frank Deignan, Donald Hanson and G. Paulsen. At the close of the evening a luncheon was served.

SUBSTANTIAL GAINS AT THE OPENING TODAY

RECOVERIES FROM FINAL PRICES OF PRECEDING SESSIONS IN INDUSTRIALS AND COPPERS

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—Substantial recoveries from final prices of the preceding session were made at today's opening, mainly in industrials and coppers. These ranged from 1 to 1 1/2 in Lackawanna Steel, Crucible Steel, Air Brake, American Locomotive and Ohio Copper with gains of a point or more in Reading and Union Pacific. Atlantic Gulf & West Indies rose over 2 points and Gulf States Steel 10 points. Other strong and active issues included Central Leather, U. S. Rubber and Ohio Products. The inquiry for stocks came largely from commission houses representing out of town interests.

Cotton Futures
NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—Cotton futures opened fairly steady. December, 26.24; January, 26.25; March, 26.24; May, 26.24; July, 26.24.

Stocks
BOSTON, Nov. 24.—A copper market, without great activity, proved more buoyant today. December, 26.24; January, 26.25; March, 26.24; May, 26.24; July, 26.24.

Exchanges
NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—With few exceptions, early gains were materially extended. Copper leading the advance. U. S. Steel also rose briskly and other industrials were free from the depression of the previous day. Gulf States Steel made an advance recovery of 1 1/2 points. Equipments kept pace with the rising movement, but both heavy steel yielded 1/2 point with futures in Canadian Pacific, although other high grade rails continued to improve. Chicago's at an advance of 1 point again featured the bond market.

BOXING, GOLF AND ATHLETICSCOACHES TALK ON

Three big college football teams—Brown, Princeton and Virginia—have met both Harvard and Yale this season. Two of the head coaches, Eddie Robinson of Brown and P. R. Evans of Virginia, gave their views on the probable outcome of tomorrow's Harvard-Yale game. Speciey Rush of Princeton refused to discuss the game. So Metzger of Washington and Jefferson who has also seen both teams on the gridiron this year, also sized up the situation. The views of the coaches follow:

E. N. Robinson, Brown—The Harvard-Yale game looks like a fifty-fifty proposition to me, with the breaks likely to decide. Yale has unquestionably the better material and with that inspiration which comes from the victory over Princeton and the home crowd should have a little the better of it. Le Gore, who is a wonderful player, will be in his last game, and I am very sure that he will surpass anything Harvard can offer.

Soi Metzger, Washington and Jefferson—I think Harvard will defeat Yale because of a more versatile attack, a better knowledge of a defense against the Yale offense than Yale has for the Crimson attack, and the rain also handicapped the carpenters who have been erecting seats but it was stated today the seats will be in readiness by Saturday morning at the latest. There has been little betting here so far. The Yale men are demanding odds of 10 to 5.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 24.—

Cleveland will train in New Orleans from March 10 to April 2, according to announcement of Robert McRoy and Lee Fohl made here last night.

There were rumors of their coming to arrangements with Heinemann earlier, but it was an eleventh hour deal that made Cleveland come here to train again. They will not go to Texas, but directly north after leaving

New Orleans.

FOR ARMY-NAVY GAME

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—A formidable fleet of American warships is in port today to permit its officers to attend the Army and Navy football game here tomorrow. The fleet includes one dreadnought, seven battleships, five cruisers, a torpedo boat and two colliers. It is expected that between 10,000 and 12,000 men will be granted shore liberty.

Hundreds of active and retired officers of the army and navy thronged the hotels today and with the congestion caused by an abnormal number of civilian visitors nearly every leading hotel in the city was reported full to capacity.

The Army and Navy football squads arrived here today and took up their quarters at different hotels.

INDIANS VS. ORIENTS

The Indians of Lowell and the Orientals of Boston, two of the fastest football teams in the state, will meet at Bunting park tomorrow afternoon to determine the championship of the state. Both teams have set up great records this season, the Orientals having been defeated but once and that time by the Orientals. The visitors will endeavor to wind up the season, with a record of not allowing a team to score on them in two years, while the local boys will attempt to turn the tables and win the title. Both elevens will present their strongest lineups.

LEAGUE

The Kimball System has taken the lead in the City Bowling League, holding the White Ways out of the lofty position for the first time this season. The Newton Mfg. Co. and the Crescents are tied in points for third place though the former five has a slight advantage in pinfall. Martel still holds the individual honors with Mitchell, Devlin, Donohoe, Craib and Kempton putting up a fine fight for second place.

MOTORCYCLE CLUB

It was a happy gathering that took place at the home of Morton V. Loud, 93 Hildreth street, last evening to participate in the first annual banquet of the Spindle City Motorcycle Club. The affair was attended by over 50 members of the organization with their wives and lady friends and a most enjoyable evening was spent.

The toastmaster of the evening was Morton V. Loud, president of the club, and the speakers and their subjects were: George Wenden, "The Correct Way to Ride"; Melvin Graham, "The Shortest Way Home"; Henry Baker, "How to Make a Quick Stop"; A. Gustafson, "The Benefits of a Broken Bone"; and Melvin Gustaf, "The Advantages of a Side Car to a Married Man." Other numbers on the program at the close of the dinner included piano solos by George Freeman; recitations, William Hudson; songs, Fred H. Loud, Miss Maybelle German and James Blackstock; and a duet by Mrs. Violet Blackwell and Mrs. Mabel Phelps.

The officers of the club are as follows: President, Morton V. Loud; vice presidents, Henry Blackwell, Jas. Blackstock and Harry Olson; treasurer, Al Lundgren; secretary, Al Gustafson; and janitor, George Wenden.

ARMY TEAM CONFIDENT

WEST POINT, N. Y., Nov. 24.—The Army football squad, comprising 56 players, 11 coaches and half a dozen trainers and rubbers, left here today for New York where the Army team will meet that of the Navy in the Polo ground tomorrow afternoon in the annual service gridiron battle.

The West Pointers are in splendid condition and high spirits and appeared confident of giving a good account of themselves.

NEBES READY TO
CHALLENGE

Albert Nebes, the Lowell roller skater, dropped into The Sun office today, and stated that he would gladly accept the challenge of Harry Burke of Bridgeport, which appeared in this paper on Wednesday night. Nebes said that nothing would please him better than to tackle the Bridgeport flyer, and the fact that the challenger announced the was ready to post a side bet of $200 is very agreeable to the Lowell champ.

Nebes said: "While I think Manager Moore of the Crescent rink would back me for a race with

SOLUTION OF THE HYPHEN

All over this country the question of the "hyphen" is engaging attention and from the national government down to that of the progressive city like Lowell, an effort is made to offer every facility possible for the education of our immigrant class in the rudiments of our language and as much farther as they care to go. Perhaps in no other city in the country is this work being conducted on such an extended scale as here in our own city where Principal Mahoney of the State Normal school is conducting a course for the training of teachers who have to deal with the immigrants in our evening schools. Supt. Molloy of the school department has also shown deep interest in this movement as evidenced not alone in the evening school system, but in the naturalization classes being conducted under his direction. All this augurs well for the future of the immigrants who can avail of these splendid opportunities. How different from the treatment of those who came to our shores some twenty, thirty or fifty years ago! The intelligent immigrant will require no coaxing to avail of every opportunity to learn to read and write English. That is the first step alike for his own advancement and for his assimilation with the body politic.

Naturalization is urged as the next step, but is that the last? Will that solve the difficulty known as the "hyphen" in our Americanism? Will it lead to the proper assimilation of all classes of foreigners as loyal and patriotic Americans? We think not.

What further steps can be taken? The state should provide facilities for the military training of all the foreigners, each nationality of large numbers taken separately at first, and finally all united in military turnouts such as would be proper in observance of our state holidays.

When we appropriate money to observe independence day, officers of the state militia should be engaged at the expense of the state to drill the immigrants of various nationalities at the army, at the high school annex or in the open air. When we find most of these nationalities undertaking this work themselves, does it not show that the state is negligent in not affording them scientific leadership and offering them the hospitality of the army? Once these men are naturalized they are eligible for military service and hence it would be well to have them prepared for emergencies.

After each unit is dealt with separately, all could be brought together in social gatherings, sports and entertainments that would promote friendly intercourse and overcome all sectional differences. So far from trying to have each nationality forget the motherland much can be accomplished by appealing to their national pride. It does not affect a man's loyalty and love for his wife to show a proper reverence for his mother. Neither will a man's loyalty to his adopted country be affected by a proper regard for the traditions of the race from which he springs. It should not be a difficult matter to convince the intelligent immigrant that the best interests of himself and his family depend upon his loyalty to the country of his adoption in which he exercises part of the sovereignty vested in the people. This idea alone if contrasted with the conditions prevailing under despotic governments will readily win the unswerving allegiance of any rightminded immigrant for his new country and will make of him a citizen who can be relied upon to fight for the flag whenever the call of duty comes.

Thus it becomes the duty of the state to assist in the patriotic training of our new citizens so that they will realize the high attributes of American citizenship and stand ready to defend them with their lives.

THE HIGH SCHOOL CONTRACTS

An important question now up for decision by the municipal council is whether the method of letting the contract for the new high school shall be for the interest of the city or for the interest of the contractors. Before the work was undertaken the municipal council appointed an advisory board made up of men supposed to be well qualified to direct such an undertaking as the building of a high school. After due consideration this board recommended that the contract be let as a whole, if that could be done cheaper than in any other way. Now it remains to be seen whether the municipal council will adopt the recommendation of the advisory board or be governed by the advice of the contractors who wish to have the work done under separate contracts regardless of the total cost or the time limit on the job.

The advisory board also recommended that the city should contract for its electric current from the Lowell Electric Light company as that was found to be the more economical method and one which would not be a substantial saving annually. In spite of this, however, it appears that a movement is now on foot for installing a power plant which will cost for housing and equipment at least $100,000, and $5,000 a year to operate. The necessary electric power can be purchased from the local company for $3,000 a year.

In view of these facts the question arises as to what is the use of having an advisory board if its recommendations are not adopted. It should be understood that while the advisory board favors the letting of the contract as a unit, it also feels that it is only just and fair to the local contractors and the taxpayers that a provision should be made that the work involved in the sub-contracts should be done by local contractors and local labor as far as practicable and that we should have no repetition of the experience of the city in delay and expense such as we have had in reconstructing the Memorial building.

EMBARGO ON FOOD EXPORTS

Congressman Fitzgerald of New York, who is chairman of the house committee on appropriations, has announced that he will introduce a bill for an embargo on food stuffs and press the subject in the coming session of congress. There will always be a howl against any action of this kind from the parties who will be affected, but inasmuch as a nation-wide exigency exists their protests should be overruled in the interests of the public at large. The nations at war are not producing crops sufficient for their own maintenance and they have been drawing on this country for everything they need not only in the line of munitions but in food supplies. Unless some restriction be imposed our food supply would soon be shipped out of the country leaving our own people to starve.

There is here a very serious responsibility resting upon the government and one which should not be delayed even another month. The exporters will buy up all the wheat, potatoes and beef they can get for shipment before the embargo takes effect unless congress gets to work on the matter immediately after the next session opens early next month. An embargo seems to be the only thing that will save the country from a famine. Already the country is threatened with famine prices which are simply robbing the wage earners for the benefit of somebody.

CHRISTMAS SHOPPING

The Christmas shopping is the next event that concerns every household. This year there will not be such a great variety of toys as in the past as the importation of such specialties has been cut off and we are not quite meeting the demand by original inventors. Germany was a great producer of mechanical contrivances that delighted the children. Of late, however, her inventors have been devising ways and means of destroying human life or else fighting in the trenches with the ordinary soldiers. The toy factories have been changed to munition factories. What is true of Germany in this respect is true also of the other nations at war from each of which we obtained many articles suitable for Christmas presents.

Still one who visits any of our large stores, would scarcely miss the foreign attractions, so numerous and beautiful are the American-made substitutes. There is enough of a variety to please everybody and what is now of great importance is that those who have much shopping to do, shall get out and do it early so as to avoid the rush of the two weeks preceding the holiday. This will be advantageous to the buyers as well as to the stores and especially to the clerks who are usually overworked in the pre-Christmas rush.

WILSON IS ELECTED

Well, at last Judge Hughes has conceded the election of President Wilson. Few can realize the extent, the depth, the poignancy, the crushing effect of defeat as it came to Mr. Hughes—first as certain victory only to be overturned by the revelations of a day, leaving him to cling only to a forlorn hope until the last state had certified the returns. Many men have been killed by less bitter disappointment. The republican party certainly owes a deep debt of gratitude to Mr. Hughes, who was rudely pulled off the U. S. supreme bench, so to speak, as the only man who could beat Wilson. Had the party caged its elephantine hoodoo, Mr. Hughes might have won. After all perhaps the country has a right to be grateful to Roosevelt. Perhaps without fear of contradiction we may now repeat the statement we made in a leading headline the day after the election—"Wilson is Elected." Our figures on the electoral vote given the following day were 273 for Wilson, 258 for Hughes. The corrected figures are 276 for Wilson, 255 for Hughes. None of the experts came so near the correct figures.

THE WAGE INCREASE

It is very gratifying to find the mills of Lowell voluntarily granting an increase of wages to their employees. That it has been given without any agitation or haggling between the manufacturers and delegations from the unions will make it more appreciated. It will assist the operatives in meeting the exorbitant prices of the necessities of life. In view of the extraordinary jump in the cost of living, the wages of a year ago are now greatly reduced in purchasing power and apparently the worst is yet to come.

Seen and Heard

Did you ever notice that fat men are always looking for fat jobs?

Some people's idea of honor is to pay their election bets and let the grocer wait for his old account.

The Hartford Courant is wondering if Mr. Hughes is quite as enthusiastic for woman suffrage as he was before he heard from the woman states.

Having adjourned indefinitely the payment for their Thanksgiving dinner by getting trusted for it, many people feel that they can enjoy the holiday with a truly thankful spirit.

The Mothers

"Oh, that he would come back—that he would come back!" is the prayer now on all mothers' lips in Paris. They do not even say, "Let him come back safe." It is another story, a less sublime love, that tears multitudes, "Give him back to me, no matter how."

Last year, one mother, thinking her son dead, found him alive, but with both arms and a leg missing. A sigh and a sob, but a tender expression came from the depths of her soul. "Ah, what does it matter! Every bit of him is dear to me!"

And the other day in the street car there was a mother accompanied by her son, uniformed, decorated, but with one leg gone. Lightly as ever he jumped off the car on his single leg to help his mother, less agile of the two. Replying to a look of admiration, she said impulsively: "Isn't he a dear—like that?"

Best Dog Story

The best dog story of the week comes from the Belfast correspondent of the Bangor News. It reads: Jerry is a little Boston bulldog who lives with Mr. and Mrs. Kelly, Roadside and West St. is the heroine—Jerry is that kind of a dog, of all Belfast dogs. She might not have tramped on her short legs all the way from Stillwater to Belfast, a good 40 miles all alone, to save her mistress 50 cents, but what put the idea of the trip into her head is something she will not divulge. Mrs. Kelly had been visiting at her former home in Stillwater, having Jerry with her. Sunday noon she called up her husband in Belfast and in the course of the conversation said that she was planning to return to Belfast on the last Monday day and remarked: "I suppose it will cost 50 cents for Jerry." Jerry heard it all but didn't say a word. Later in the afternoon she was missed. A search was made for her without avail and an advertisement was placed in the Bangor Daily News. At 5:30 Monday morning, members of the Railroads in Belfast heard Jerry's bark. The little dog

Illustration shows, at left, Emperor Charles Francis Joseph of Austria-Hungary, who has just succeeded the late Emperor Francis Joseph, decorating an Austrian soldier for valor in the war.

An Austrian writer refers to the new emperor as elegant, cheerful and full of temperament, and in a work devoted entirely to the psychological aspects of the dual monarchy, speaks of his influence as likely to come into his people, "with the freshness of love at first sight." He remarks that the archduke seemed to inherit the interest in military affairs of his father, the late Archduke Otto, who was constantly in the company of officers and was generally popular in the army; but other evidence has been presented to show that soldiering is one of the things the new emperor likes least. He has been reported—with what credibility is hard to say—as having seen "The Merry Widow" fifty times in fifty days. He was until called away by the critical condition of Francis Joseph in nominal command of the Russian army operating on the Transylvanian front of Rumania.

Aside from this, since the war began, Charles Francis has been undergoing a course of intensive training for his prospective duties as emperor.

AIRMEN TELL OF DANGERS TO FLIERS

"It's all right so long as you can't see 'em, or hear 'em," said "Tommy" Brennan, of the Royal Flying corps, "but any man who tells you he can fly over an 'Archie' and get a 'blowing' right ahead of him without ducking and wishing they wouldn't come so close or make so much noise, has never been up in an aeroplane. Take it from me."

"Yes," put in "Gibby," and "everytime you duck your old wings, ducks with you as 'Bren' over there says, it wouldn't be so bad if you couldn't see and hear 'em. Generally speaking, you don't hear them unless one happens to break within 30 yards or so of you. It's when you get down close to them and look right down at them spitting fire at you, that's when you have got to have every nerve in your body tuned to the minute."

"I'll never forget the first time they got close to me," declared "Boy" Tylic. "My only thought was that I would never shoot a phreasant again. I knew exactly how a bird must feel when a hunter opens fire."

Brennan wore wings upon his left sleeve, the gold stripe of the wounded. "Gib" had been on the official list of the killed in action some weeks ago, but somehow or other came back to life. When Brennan was "hit," and finally came down safely within his own lines, it was found there were no less than 50 perforations in his wings.

"I was so interested in looking over their trenches I guess I got a little too low," he explained. "There is nothing more interesting in all London than to sit through a long autumn evening talking to the youngsters of the wonderful aviation service Great Britain has almost miraculously built up since the war began."

"We've got the Germans now where they have to be hunted or shot by the map," these intrepid men of the air will tell you. "Of what use are their wonderful guns if they don't know what they are shooting at? They don't even dare approach. The minute they show themselves we have an overwhelming number of machines to send after them and they beat it for home again as fast as they can go. They can't take a photograph

IS A WONDERFUL PLAYER

WEST POINT, Nov. 24.—Army football experts boast of the fact that they have two of the best backs of the season in Eliphant and Vidal. These men are also star all-around players. With Eliphant behind the army line is one of the football sensations of the season. Vidal, the recruit from South Dakota, is one of the fastest and trickiest of the punning backs who have been uncovered this year. He is a heavy thrower and an all-around track and field man. Once past the first line Vidal is dangerous. He is as elusive in a broken field as any of the backs. He has a tricky way of swerving and dodging through the clutches of the tacklers. In addition, he is perhaps one of the best drop kickers of the year. He can shoot them from a bad angle on the fifty yard line, and they go true between the posts with terrific force. A smooth worker in every department is Gene Vidal. He knows Vidal starts, one of his mind.

LITTLE ADS FOR THRIFTY PEOPLE

Designed to Place Before the Public the Merchandise, Craftsmanship and Special Service Offered by Exclusive Concerns That are Not Generally Advertised

A series of "Little Ads," arranged under their respective titles for ready reference, devoted to the interests of everybody. Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Middlesex ss. Probate Court. In the last will and testament of John T. Keefe, late of Lowell, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by William T. Sheppard, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to him, the executor therein named, with full power to administer with and give a surety on his official bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge in said County of Middlesex, on the seventh day of December A. D. 1916, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be admitted to probate. And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing by registered mail, a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate, seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McElroy, Esquire, first Judge of said Court, this twenty-third day of November in the year one thousand nine hundred and sixteen.

of our new positions. Their batteries have been driven from the heights and they can't observe. It is a big difference from the first days of the war.

Associating much with Britain's flying men one will soon learn that an "Archie" usually called "Archie" for short is an anti-aircraft gun.

"Archie looks at you," said Brennan. "He goes 'woot, woot, woot.' He isn't comfortable to listen to, either, but it's when you get down a little nearer to earth that you feel you have got to do what you set out to do. You get quiet and get started to some quiet spot just as fast as the wind will get you out of your way and let you through. You can't imagine how much that old atmosphere gets in your way when you are really in a hurry."

When you get on speaking terms with a machine gun you know that it talks with a "putt, putt, putt." The ordinary back rifle, which often makes a shot at you when you get too close to the trenches, goes "crack, crack, crack," just as everyone expects a rifle to go.

WILD RUNAWAY

Howard G. Simons, of this city, had a narrow escape from serious injury early this morning when the buggy in which he was riding was overturned and wrecked in Prescott street. Although Mr. Simons was thrown out of the carriage, fortunately he did not suffer any injury.

Mr. Simons was driving a high spirited horse through Prescott street at 1:30 o'clock this morning, when one of the shafts of the buggy snapped and struck the animal in the hind legs. The horse started at breakneck speed through the street, overturning the carriage and throwing its occupants to the pavement. The horse was stopped at the corner of Central street by Patrolman Thomas Sullivan. The carriage was badly smashed, one of the wheels bent, broken to pieces.
